SHORT TITLE; DEFINITIONS; APPLICATION

58.005 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Oregon Professional Corporation Act." [1969 c.592 §1]

58.010 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.015 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Employee" means a person employed by a professional corporation who is licensed to render the professional service for which the corporation is organized. "Employee" does not include clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians or others employed by a professional corporation who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom, practice or law to be rendering professional service, or any other person employed by a professional corporation who performs all employment under the direct supervision and control of an officer or employee of the corporation who is licensed to render the professional service for which the corporation is organized.

(2) "Foreign professional corporation" means a professional corporation organized under laws other than the laws of this state.

(3) "License" includes a license, certificate of registration, permit or other legal authorization required by law as a condition precedent to the rendering of professional service within this state.

(4) "Oregon Business Corporation Act" has the same meaning given that term in ORS 60.951.

(5) "Professional corporation" or "domestic professional corporation" means a corporation organized under this chapter for the specific purpose of rendering professional service and for such other purposes provided under this chapter, and which has as shareholders holding a majority of the shares only individuals who themselves are duly licensed to render the same professional service as the corporation.

(6) "Professional service" means any type of personal service rendered in this state to the public which may be lawfully rendered only pursuant to a license.

(7) "Regulating board" means the governmental agency of the State of Oregon required or authorized by law to license and regulate the rendering of the professional service for which a professional corporation is organized. [1969 c.592 §2; 1971 c.362 §3; 1985 c.728 §42; 1985 c.764 §3; 1987 c.94 §14]

58.035 Application to persons licensed to render professional services. This chapter does not affect the right of persons licensed to render professional service within this state from so doing in any other business form permitted them by law, rules and regulations of the regulating board of their profession and standards of professional conduct of their profession. [1969 c.592 §4]

58.040 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.045 Application of general corporation law. The Oregon Business Corporation Act is applicable to domestic and foreign professional corporations except when inconsistent with this chapter. This chapter takes precedence in the event of any conflict with provisions of the Oregon Business Corporation Act. [1969 c.592 §5, 1987 c.94 §15]

58.050 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.070 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

FORMATION AND OPERATION

(Generally)

58.075 Purposes for which professional corporation may be organized. (1) A professional corporation may be organized to render one type of professional service only and services ancillary thereto through its shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents who are themselves duly licensed to render such service. Shareholders holding a majority of the shares and a majority of the directors of the corporation must be licensed to render the professional service for which the corporation is organized.

(2) A professional corporation may not engage in any business other than the rendering of the professional service for which the corporation is organized and services ancillary thereto. However, this chapter does not prohibit a professional corporation from investing its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or any other type of investment, or from owning real or personal property necessary for the rendering of such professional service and ancillary services. [1969 c.592 §6; 1987 c.94 §123]

58.085 Who may incorporate; contents of articles of incorporation. One or more natural persons may act as incorporators of a professional corporation by delivering articles of incorporation to the Office of Secretary of State for filing. The articles of incorporation shall meet the requirements of the Oregon Business Corporation Act and, in addition, shall set forth:

(1) The designation of the professional service to be rendered through the corporation.

(2) The names and addresses, including street and number, of all the persons who are to be the original shareholders of the corporation. [1969 c.592 §7; 1971 c.200 §4; 1985 c.764 §4; 1987 c.94 §123a]

58.090 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.095 Number of directors when fewer than three shareholders. A professional corporation which has fewer than three shareholders may have fewer than three directors; however, such corporation may not have fewer directors than shareholders. [1969 c.592 §8]

58.100 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.101 Term of office for directors; classes. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 60.314, the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a professional corporation may specify any length for the term of office of director.

(2) If the articles of incorporation or bylaws specify a length for the term of office of director other than that provided in ORS 60.314, the bylaws may divide the directors into classes and may assign to each class a different initial term of office so that the terms of office of the classes expire at staggered intervals. Each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible. At the annual meeting at the time of which the term of office of the directors in a class expires, the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of the meeting shall be elected to hold office for the term specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. [1983 c.172 §2; 1987 c.94 §16]

58.105 Eligibility to be shareholder, director, officer or agent. (1) A person may be a shareholder, director, officer or agent of a professional corporation providing professional services even if the person is not an individual licensed within this state to render the professional service for which the corporation is organized if the shareholders holding a majority of the shares and a majority of the directors are so licensed. However, if a professional corporation has only one shareholder, the secretary of the corporation need not be licensed to perform the services for which the corporation is organized. Except as provided in this section, every director or officer of a professional corporation must be a shareholder of the corporation.

(2) Any two or more offices of a professional corporation may be held by the same person. [1969 c.592 §9; 1983 c.717 §20; 1985 c.764 §5]

58.110 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.115 Corporate name. (1) The corporate name of a professional corporation shall contain the last name of one or more of its shareholders, but a corporate name which does not contain the last name of one or more of its shareholders may be used if permitted by the law, rules and regulations of the regulating board or standards of professional conduct of the profession practiced through the corporation. The corporate name need not comply with ORS 60.094 (1), but shall contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C." or "Prof. Corp."

(2) When a person whose name is part of a corporate name of a professional corporation ceases to be a shareholder, the corporation shall alter its corporate name to reflect this change. However, a professional corporation may retain the name of a retired or deceased shareholder in its corporate name if permitted by the law, rules and regulations of the regulating board or standards of professional conduct of the profession practiced through the corporation. [1969 c.592 §13, 1985 c.728 §102, 1987 c.94 §17]

58.125 Conversion to professional or other type of corporation. (1) A corporation may become a professional corporation by adopting restated articles of incorporation conforming to the requirements of this chapter, and submitting the restated articles for filing to the Office of Secretary of State. Adoption, filing and the effective date of the restated articles shall be governed by this chapter.

(2) A professional corporation may become another type of corporation by adopting restated articles of incorporation conforming to the requirements of the chapter under which it wishes to exist and by submitting the restated articles to the Office of Secretary of State. Adoption, filing and the effective date of the restated articles shall be governed by the chapter under which they are submitted. [1983 c.717 §§17, 19, 1985 c.728 §43]

(2) The names and addresses, including street and number, of all shareholders who are licensed to render the professional service in this state. [1987 c.94 §21]

58.139 Powers. A foreign professional corporation may exercise in this state only those powers that a domestic professional corporation may exercise under ORS 58.075. [1987 c.94 §22]

58.140 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.144 Corporate name. (1) The corporate name of a foreign professional corporation shall contain the last name of one or more of its shareholders, but a corporate name that does not contain the last name of one or more of its shareholders may be used if permitted by the law, rules and regulations of the regulating board of this state or standards of professional conduct of the profession practiced through the corporation. The corporate name need not comply with ORS 60.717, but shall contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C." or "Prof. Corp."

(2) When a person whose name is part of a corporate name of a foreign professional corporation ceases to be a shareholder, the corporation shall alter its name in this state to reflect this change. However, a foreign professional corporation may retain in this state the name of a retired or deceased shareholder in its corporate name if permitted by the law, rules and regulations of the regulating board in this state or standards of professional conduct of the profession practiced through the corporation. (2) A shareholder of a professional corporation may be held:

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the corporation shall be liable for its acts in the same manner and to the same extent as any corporation organized under the Oregon Business Corporation Act. However, the shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents of the corporation are not personally liable for the debts or other contractual obligations of the corporation, except as provided in ORS 60.151 (1). [1969 c.592 §15; 1987 c.94 §18]

58.190 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.195 Limits on merger. A professional corporation may merge only with another professional corporation organized to render the same professional service. A foreign professional corporation and a domestic professional corporation may merge only if such mergers are permitted by the regulating board having jurisdiction of the corporations in their respective states of corporation. [1969 c.592 §22, 1987 c.94 §19]

58.200 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

58.250 [Repealed by 1961 c.726 §427]

DISPOSITION OF SHARES

58.255 Transfer of shares. (1) A shareholder of a professional corporation may sell or transfer shares only in a manner that leaves the corporation in compliance with this chapter.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) of this section, the articles of incorporation, bylaws or agreements among shareholders of a professional corporation may provide limitations on the issuance and transferability of capital stock of the corporation and may provide for the purchase or redemption of shares by the corporation. [1969 c.592 §18, 1985 c.764 §7]

58.265 Person disqualified from rendering services to dispose of interest in corporation. If any individual rendering professional service on behalf of a professional corporation is legally disqualified by reason of discipline by the professional licensing board to render the professional service, or assumes a public office which under law or the regulations of the governing body prohibits rendering of the professional service, the individual immediately shall sever all employment relationship with the corporation and any other relationship in which the individual shares in the corporation's profits attributable to professional services rendered after such disqualification or assumption of office, and shall dispose of the individual's shares of capital stock in the corporation as expeditiously as possible. [1969 c.592 §11; 1985 c.764 §8]

58.275 Effect of death of shareholder. The articles of incorporation or bylaws of a professional corporation may provide for the disposition of the shares of a deceased shareholder, or its shareholders may provide for such disposition by agreement. If there is no such provision, the shares shall first be offered for sale to the remaining shareholders by the personal representative of the deceased shareholder's estate. If the shares are not disposed of within six months after the date of the death of the deceased shareholder, a special meeting of the shareholders shall be called, at which it shall be decided by vote of a majority of the remaining shareholders whether the corporation shall purchase, redeem or retire the shares, or whether the corporation shall be voluntarily dissolved. At the special meeting the shares of the deceased shareholder may not be voted or counted for any purpose, unless the deceased shareholder was the only shareholder. [1969 c.592 §20]

58.285 Determination of price of shares of disqualified or deceased shareholder. If the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a professional corporation do not provide a price or method of determining a price at which the corporation may purchase or redeem the shares, or at which its shareholders may purchase the shares, of a legally disqualified or deceased shareholder and the shareholders have not provided the price or a method of determining the price by private agreement, then the price for the shares shall be the book value as of the end of the month preceding the disqualification or death of the shareholder. Book value shall be determined from the books and records of the corporation in accordance with the regular method of accounting used by the corporation. [1969 c.592 §21]

58.295 Redemption of shares regardless of surplus. If the articles of incorporation of a professional corporation so provide, the corporation may purchase or redeem shares of its capital stock notwithstanding the inadequacy of earned surplus and capital surplus for such purpose. If the articles or bylaws do not contain a provision for the disposition of the shares of a legally disqualified shareholder, and such shareholder does not dispose of the shares of the shareholder as required by ORS 58.265, and within 30 days after the disqualification occurs, the corporation shall purchase or redeem such shares notwithstanding the inadequacy of earned surplus and capital surplus for such purpose and the absence of a provision in the articles of incorporation permitting such purchase or redemption. [1969 c.592 §19]

RELATIONSHIP OF CORPORATION TO PROFESSIONAL LICENSING AGENCIES

The regulating board, by rule or regulation, may require that a professional corporation file with the board a copy of the bylaws of the corporation or the articles of incorporation of the corporation or any other document which the corporation is required to file with the Secretary of State. [1969 c.592 §24]

58.345 Registration and renewal with professional licensing agency; fees. The regulatory board by rule may require that professional corporations register with it and may establish a fee, with the approval of the Executive Department, for the registration and renewal thereof. [1969 c.592 §25; 1983 c.128 §1; 1985 c.728 §44]

58.355 Suspension, revocation or refusal of certificate of registration. (1) The regulating board may suspend, revoke or refuse to issue or renew any certificate of registration for any of the following reasons:

(b) The death of the last remaining shareholder; or

(c) Upon finding that the holder of or applicant for a certificate has failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the regulations prescribed by the board pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Before any certificate of registration is denied, suspended or revoked by the regulating board notice and hearing shall be provided in accordance with ORS 183.415.

(3) Except as provided in ORS 58.365, any corporation may appeal from the final order of the regulating board as provided in ORS 183.480. [1969 c.592 §26; 1973 c.612 §8]

58.365 Oregon State Bar as regulating board for attorneys; appeals from Oregon State Bar to Supreme Court; rules applicable to corporations rendering legal services. (1) For the purpose of this chapter the regulating board for attorneys shall be the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar.

(2) Appeal under ORS 58.355 from determinations of the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar shall be directly to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, and the procedure for appeal to the Supreme Court shall be the same as procedure for appeal to the Court of Appeals under ORS 58.355 from decisions of regulating boards other than the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar.

(3) The Supreme Court of the State of Oregon shall have the power to make rules and regulations regarding certification or registration of corporations organized to provide legal service, not inconsistent with this chapter. [1969 c.592 §27; 1973 c.612 §9]
