CONTENT OF AGREEMENTS

90.240 Terms and conditions of rental agreement. (1) A landlord and a tenant may include in a rental agreement terms and conditions not prohibited by ORS 90.100 to 90.940 or other rule of law including rent, term of the agreement and other provisions governing the rights and obligations of the parties.

(2) The landlord shall provide the tenant with a copy of any written rental agreement and all amendments and additions thereto.

(3) In absence of agreement, the tenant shall pay as rent the fair rental value for the use and occupancy of the dwelling unit.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by ORS 90.100 to 90.940:

(a) Rent is payable without demand or notice at the time and place agreed upon by the parties. Unless otherwise agreed, rent is payable at the dwelling unit, periodic rent is payable at the beginning of any term of one month or less and otherwise in equal monthly instalments at the beginning of each month, and rent may not be increased without a 30-day written notice thereof.

(b) Unless the rental agreement fixes a definite term, the tenancy is week to week in case of a roomer who pays weekly rent regardless of length of stay or amount of prepaid rent, and in all other cases month to month. [Formerly 91.740]

90.245 Prohibited provisions in rental agreements. (1) A rental agreement may not provide that the tenant:

(c) Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability arising as a result of the other party's wilful misconduct or negligence or to indemnify the other party for that liability or costs connected therewith.

(2) A provision prohibited by subsection (1) of this section included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a landlord deliberately uses a rental agreement containing provisions known by the landlord to be prohibited and attempts to enforce such provisions, the tenant may recover in addition to the actual damages of the tenant an amount up to three months' periodic rent. [Formerly 91.745]

90.250 Separation of rents and obligations to maintain premises prohibited. A rental agreement, assignment, conveyance, trust deed or security instrument may not permit the receipt of rent free of the obligation to comply with ORS 90.320 (1). [Formerly 91.750]

90.255 Attorney fees. In any action on a rental agreement or arising under ORS 90.100 to 90.940, reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal may be awarded to the prevailing party together with costs and necessary disbursements, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary. (a) With respect to any rental payment received by 5 p.m. on the fourth day after commencement of the rental period for which rent is payable.

(b) Unless the rental agreement provides for payment of a late charge on delinquent rent payments and the rental agreement or a monthly coupon, billing or notice provided by the landlord discloses the date on which payments are due and the time at which a late charge becomes due.

(c) More than once on any single instalment.

(2) Nonpayment of a late fee alone shall not constitute grounds for eviction for nonpayment of rent. [1989 c.506 §15]

Note: 90.260 was added to and made a part of 90.100 to 90.940 by legislative action but was not added to any smaller series therein. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

(3) Nothing in this section:

(a) Authorizes the installation of an alternative energy device in a dwelling unit without the landlord's written permission; or

(b) Limits a landlord's right to recover damages and obtain injunctive relief as provided in ORS 90.400 (5).

(4) As used in this section, "alternative energy device" has the meaning given that term in ORS 469.160. [Formerly 91.757]

"Security deposit" shall not include a fee if such fee is clearly designated as nonrefundable.

(2) A security deposit shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is a party to the rental agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security deposit shall be prior to the claim of any creditor of the landlord, including a trustee in bankruptcy.

(3) The landlord may claim all or part of the security deposit only if the deposit was made for any or all of the purposes provided by subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The landlord may claim from the security deposit only the amount reasonably necessary:

(a) To remedy the tenant's defaults in the performance of the rental agreement; and

(b) To repair damages to the premises caused by the tenant, not including ordinary wear and tear.

(5) A security deposit shall not be required or forfeited to the landlord upon the failure of the tenant to maintain a tenancy for a specified term.

(6) In order to claim all or part of the security deposit, within 30 days after the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession the landlord shall give to the tenant a written accounting which states specifically the basis or bases of the claim.

(7) The security deposit or portion of the deposit not claimed in the manner provided by subsection (6) of this section shall be returned to the tenant not later than 30 days after the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession to the landlord.

(8) If the landlord fails to comply with subsection (7) of this section or if the landlord in bad faith fails to return all or any portion of any prepaid rent or deposit due to the tenant under ORS 90.100 to 90.940 or the rental agreement, the tenant may recover the property and money due in an amount equal to twice the amount:

(a) Withheld without a written accounting under subsection (6) of this section; or

(b) Withheld in bad faith.

(9) This section does not preclude the landlord or tenant from recovering other damages under ORS 90.100 to 90.940.

(10) The holder of the landlord's interest in the premises at the time of the termination of the tenancy is bound by this section. [Formerly 91.760]

(4)(a) A landlord shall retain a copy of each rental agreement at the resident manager's office or at the address provided to the tenant under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section.

(b) A tenant may request to see the rental agreement and, within a reasonable time, the landlord shall make the agreement available for inspection. At the request of the tenant and upon payment of a reasonable charge, not to exceed the lessor of 25 cents per page or the actual copying costs, the landlord shall provide the tenant with a copy of the rental agreement. This subsection shall not diminish the landlord's obligation to furnish the tenant an initial copy of the rental agreement and any amendments under ORS 90.240 (2). [Formerly 91.765]

90.310 Disclosure of legal proceedings; tenant remedies for failure to disclose; liability of manager. (1) If at the time of the execution of a rental agreement for a dwelling unit in premises containing no more than four dwelling units the premises are subject to:

(a) Any outstanding notice of default under a trust deed, mortgage or contract of sale, or notice of trustee's sale under a trust deed;

(b) Any pending suit to foreclose a mortgage, trust deed or vendor's lien under a contract of sale;

(c) Any pending declaration of forfeiture or suit for specific performance of a contract of sale; or

(d) Any pending proceeding to foreclose a tax lien;

the landlord shall disclose that circumstance to the tenant in writing before the execution of the rental agreement.

(2) If the tenant moves as a result of a circumstance which the landlord failed to disclose as required by subsection (1) of this section, the tenant may recover twice the actual damages or twice the monthly rent, whichever is greater, and all prepaid rent, in addition to any other remedy which the law may provide.

(3) This section shall not apply to premises managed by a court appointed receiver.

(4) A manager who has complied with ORS 90.305 shall not be liable for damages under this section if the manager had no knowledge of the circumstances which gave rise to a duty of disclosure under subsection (1) of this section. [Formerly 91.766]

A tenant's payment for a given utility or service benefits the landlord or other tenants if the utility or service is delivered to any area other than the tenant's dwelling unit.

(2) For the purpose of this section, "utility or service" includes electricity, natural gas, oil, water, hot water, heat, air conditioning, and garbage collection and disposal.

(3) If the landlord knowingly fails to disclose those matters required under this section, the tenant may recover twice the actual damages sustained or one month's rent, whichever is greater. [Formerly 91.767]

90.320 Landlord to maintain premises in habitable condition; agreement with tenant to maintain premises. (1) A landlord shall at all times during the tenancy maintain the dwelling unit in a habitable condition. For purposes of this section, a dwelling unit shall be considered uninhabitable if it substantially lacks:

(d) It is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform the tenant of what the tenant must or must not do to comply;

(e) It is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord; and

(f) The tenant has notice of it at the time the tenant enters into the rental agreement, or when it is adopted.

(2) If a rule or regulation adopted after the tenant enters into the rental agreement works a substantial modification of the bargain, it is not valid unless the tenant consents to it in writing. [Formerly 91.780]

90.335 Landlord's access to premises; manner of entry. (1) A tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord to enter into the dwelling unit or any portion of premises under the tenant's exclusive control in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements, supply necessary or agreed services, or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workers or contractors.

(2)(a) A landlord may enter the dwelling unit or any portion of premises under a tenant's exclusive control without consent of the tenant in case of emergency.

(b) A landlord may enter upon premises under the tenant's exclusive control not including the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant for the purpose of serving notices required or permitted under ORS 90.100 to 90.940, the rental agreement or any provision of applicable law.

(c) A landlord and tenant may agree that the landlord or the landlord's agent may enter the dwelling unit and the premises without notice at reasonable times for the purpose of showing the premises to a prospective buyer, provided that the agreement:

(A) Is executed at a time when the landlord is actively engaged in attempts to sell the premises;

(B) Is reflected in a writing separate from the rental agreement and signed by both parties; and

(C) Is supported by separate consideration recited in the agreement.

(3)(a) A landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency, agreement to the contrary or unless it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least 24 hours' notice of the intent of the landlord to enter and may enter only at reasonable times.

(b) If repairs or maintenance are requested by the tenant, or entry of the tenant's dwelling unit or portions of the premises under the tenant's exclusive control is necessary to perform repairs or maintenance required for other portions of the premises, except in the case of an emergency or an agreement to the contrary or unless it is impracticable to do so, the landlord or persons acting on behalf of the landlord may enter upon demand or in the tenant's absence until completing the repairs or maintenance, provided:

(A) The landlord has given at least 24 hours' notice in writing, specifying the purposes of the entry and the persons who will perform the repairs or maintenance, and stating that those persons are authorized by the landlord to enter upon demand or in the tenant's absence;

(B) The entry is for the purposes stated in the notice and by the persons specified in the notice or persons acting under their supervision; and

(C) The entry occurs at reasonable times.

(4) In the case of a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park, as defined in ORS 446.003, the landlord may, upon less than 24 hours' notice to the tenant and during reasonable hours of the day, enter onto the rented space for the purpose of normal maintenance only.

(5) A landlord has no other right of access except:

(a) Pursuant to court order;

(b) As permitted by ORS 90.410 (2); or

(c) When the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises. [Formerly 91.785]

90.340 Occupancy of premises as dwelling unit only; notice of tenant's absence. Unless otherwise agreed, the tenant shall occupy the dwelling unit only as a dwelling unit. The rental agreement may require that the tenant notify the landlord of any anticipated extended absence from the premises in excess of seven days no later than the first day of the extended absence. [Formerly 91.790]

TENANT REMEDIES

90.360 Effect of landlord noncompliance with rental agreement or obligation to maintain premises; generally. (1)(a) Except as provided in ORS 90.100 to 90.940, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or a noncompliance with ORS 90.320, the tenant may deliver a written notice to the landlord specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in seven days in the case of an essential service or 30 days in all other cases, and the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to paragraphs (b) to (d) of this subsection.

(b) If the breach is remediable by repairs, the payment of damages or otherwise and if the landlord adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate by reason of the breach.

(c) If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon at least 14 days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(d) The tenant may not terminate for a condition caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of the family of the tenant or other person on the premises with the consent of the tenant.

(2) Except as provided in ORS 90.100 to 90.940, the tenant may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or ORS 90.320.

(3) The remedy provided in subsection (2) of this section is in addition to any right of the tenant arising under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all security recoverable by the tenant under ORS 90.300 and all prepaid rent. [Formerly 91.800]

90.365 Effect of deliberate refusal or negligent failure of landlord to supply heat, water, electricity or other essential services. (1) If contrary to the rental agreement or ORS 90.320 the landlord deliberately refuses or is grossly negligent in failing to supply any essential service, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and may:

(a) Procure reasonable amounts of the essential service during the period of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct their actual and reasonable cost from the rent;

(b) Recover damages based upon the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit; or

(c) Procure reasonable substitute housing during the period of the landlord's noncompliance, in which case the tenant is excused from paying rent for the period of the landlord's noncompliance.

(2) In addition to the remedy provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section the tenant may recover the actual and reasonable cost or fair and reasonable value of reasonably comparable substitute housing.

(3) If contrary to the rental agreement or ORS 90.320 the landlord negligently fails to repair any cooking appliance or refrigerator supplied or required to be supplied by the landlord, or to supply any other essential service, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and may cause the necessary work to be done in a workmanlike manner and, after submitting to the landlord receipts or an agreed upon itemized statement, deduct from the rent the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value of the work not exceeding $200:

(a) The landlord and tenant may agree, at any time, to allow the tenant to exceed the monetary limits of this subsection when making reasonable repairs.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section, in case of emergency, written notice required by this subsection, or attempted oral notice followed by written notice, may be given as promptly as the conditions permit.

(c) In the case of a faulty cooking appliance or refrigerator, "reasonable notice" under paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of this section shall be determined in light of the degree to which the tenant has been deprived of cooking or refrigeration facilities.

(d) This subsection shall not be construed to require a landlord to supply a cooking appliance or a refrigerator if the landlord did not supply or agree to supply a cooking appliance or refrigerator to the tenant.

(4) If the tenant proceeds under this section, the tenant may not proceed under ORS 90.360 as to that breach.

(5) Rights of the tenant under this section do not arise:

(a) Until the tenant has given reasonable notice under the circumstances, in writing, to the landlord to enable the landlord to provide the essential service; or

(b) If the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of the tenant's family or other person on the premises with the tenant's consent.

(6) Notice required under this section shall be delivered personally or sent by first class mail. For purposes of this section, "first class mail" does not include certified or registered mail, or any other form of mail which may delay or hinder actual delivery of mail to the recipient.

(7) The landlord may specify people to do all work under this section as long as the tenant's rights under this section are not diminished. [Formerly 91.805]

90.370 Tenant counterclaims in action by landlord for possession or rent. (1) In an action for possession based upon nonpayment of the rent or in an action for rent when the tenant is in possession, the tenant may counterclaim for any amount, not in excess of the jurisdictional limits of the court in which the action is brought, that the tenant may recover under the rental agreement or ORS 90.100 to 90.940. In the event the tenant counterclaims, the court from time to time may order the tenant to pay into court all or part of the rent accrued and thereafter accruing, and shall determine the amount due to each party. The party to whom a net amount is owed shall be paid first from the money paid into court, and shall be paid the balance by the other party. The court may at any time release money paid into court to either party if the parties agree or if the court finds such party to be entitled to the sum so released. If no rent remains due after application of this section, judgment shall be entered for the tenant in the action for possession.

(2) In an action for rent when the tenant is not in possession, the tenant may counterclaim as provided in subsection (1) of this section but is not required to pay any rent into court.

(3) If the tenant does not comply with an order to pay rent into the court as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the tenant shall not be permitted to assert a counterclaim in the action for possession.

(4) If the total amount found due to the tenant on any counterclaims is less than any rent found due to the landlord, and the tenant retains possession solely because the tenant paid rent into court under subsection (1) of this section, no attorney fees shall be awarded to the tenant unless the tenant paid at least the balance found due to the landlord into court no later than the commencement of the trial.

(5) When a tenant is granted a continuance for a longer period than two days, and has not been ordered to pay rent into court under subsection (1) of this section, the tenant shall be ordered to pay rent into court under ORS 105.140 (2). [Formerly 91.810]

90.375 Effect of unlawful ouster or exclusion; wilful diminution of services. If a landlord unlawfully removes or excludes the tenant from the premises, seriously attempts or threatens unlawfully to remove or exclude the tenant from the premises or wilfully diminishes services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, running water, hot water, electric or other essential service, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to recover possession or may terminate the rental agreement and recover an amount up to two months' periodic rent or twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant, whichever is greater.

If the rental agreement is terminated the landlord shall return all security recoverable under ORS 90.300 and all prepaid rent. The tenant need not terminate the rental agreement, obtain injunctive relief or recover possession to recover damages under this section. [Formerly 91.815]

90.380 Effect of rental of dwelling in violation of building or housing codes. (1) If a governmental agency has posted a dwelling as unlawful to occupy due to the existence of conditions that violate state or local law and materially affect health or safety, a landlord shall not enter into a rental agreement for the dwelling unit until the conditions leading to the posting are corrected.

(2) If a landlord knowingly violates subsection (1) of this section, the tenant may recover either two months' periodic rent or up to twice the actual damages sustained as a result of the violation, whichever is greater. If the tenant elects to terminate the tenancy as a result of the conditions leading to the posting, or if the agency charged with code enforcement requires that the tenant vacate the premises, the tenant also may recover:

(a) All of the security deposit owed to the tenant under ORS 90.300; and

(b) All prepaid rent.

(3) If conditions at premises which were not caused by the tenant pose an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of occupants of the premises within one year from the beginning of the tenancy, the tenant may immediately terminate the rental agreement by giving the landlord actual notice of the termination and the reason for the termination. If the conditions existed at the outset of the tenancy, the tenant may recover from the landlord within 72 hours:

(a) All of any security deposit paid to the landlord including any last month's rent; and

(b) All rent prepaid for the month in which the termination occurs. [Formerly 91.817]

Note: 91.817 [renumbered 90.380 in 1989] was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

90.385 Retaliatory conduct by landlord prohibited; tenant remedies and defenses; action for possession in certain cases. (1) Except as provided in this section, a landlord may not retaliate by increasing rent or decreasing services, by serving a notice to terminate the tenancy or by bringing or threatening to bring an action for possession after:

(a) The tenant has complained to, or expressed to the landlord in writing an intention to complain to, a governmental agency charged with responsibility for enforcement of any of the following concerning a violation applicable to the tenancy:

(A) A building, health or housing code materially affecting health or safety;

(B) Laws or regulations concerning the delivery of mail; or

(C) Laws or regulations prohibiting discrimination in rental housing;

(b) The tenant has complained to the landlord of a violation of:

(A) ORS 90.305, 90.315, 90.320, 90.335 or 90.435;

(B) A written rental agreement; or

(C) If there is no written rental agreement, an oral rental agreement;

(c) The tenant has organized or become a member of a tenants' union or similar organization;

(d) The tenant has complained to the landlord of a failure to comply with the notice requirements of ORS 90.240 (4);

(e) The tenant has testified against the landlord in any judicial, administrative or legislative proceeding; or

(f) The tenant successfully defended an action for possession brought by the landlord within the previous six months.

(2) If the landlord acts in violation of subsection (1) of this section the tenant is entitled to the remedies provided in ORS 90.375 and has a defense in any retaliatory action against the tenant for possession.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section, a landlord may bring an action for possession if:

(a) The violation of the applicable building or housing code was caused primarily by lack of reasonable care by the tenant or other person in the household of the tenant or upon the premises with the consent of the tenant;

(b) The tenant is in default in rent; or

(c) Compliance with the applicable building or housing code requires alteration, remodeling or demolition which would effectively deprive the tenant of use of the dwelling unit.

(4) The maintenance of an action under subsection (3) of this section does not release the landlord from liability under ORS 90.360 (2). [Formerly 91.865]

LANDLORD REMEDIES

90.400 Effect of tenant noncompliance with rental agreement or failure to maintain premises; failure to pay rent;

damage to persons or property. (1)(a) Except as provided in ORS 90.100 to 90.940, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or a noncompliance with ORS 90.325 materially affecting health and safety, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant terminating the tenancy for cause as provided in this subsection. The notice shall specify the acts and omissions constituting the breach and shall state that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than 30 days after receipt of the notice. If the breach is remedial by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise, the notice shall also state that the tenant can avoid termination by remedying the breach within 14 days.

(b) If the breach is not remedied in 14 days, the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection.

(c) If the breach is remedial by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant adequately remedies the breach before the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate.

(d) If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement upon at least 10 days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(2) If rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within seven days, including the first day rent is due, the landlord, after 72 hours' written notice of nonpayment and the landlord's intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period, may immediately terminate the rental agreement and take possession in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.165. This subsection may not be used to terminate a tenancy for nonpayment of rent when the only moneys owing represent a late charge.

(3) The landlord, after 24 hours' written notice specifying the causes, may immediately terminate the rental agreement and take possession in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.165, if:

(a) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet seriously threatens immediately to inflict personal injury, or inflicts any substantial personal injury, upon the landlord or other tenants;

(b) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control intentionally inflicts any substantial damage to the premises;

(c) The tenant has vacated the premises, the person in possession is holding contrary to a written rental agreement that prohibits subleasing the premises to another or allowing another person to occupy the premises without the written permission of the landlord, and the landlord has not knowingly accepted rent from the person in possession; or

(d) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control commits any act which is outrageous in the extreme. An "act outrageous in the extreme" includes, but is not limited to, an act which the tenant or person in the tenant's control has in fact committed and which has resulted in:

(A) Service of written notice to the landlord, under any state statute or local ordinance, of drug manufacturing or delivery, gambling or prostitution activity at the premises occupied by the tenant; or

(4) The landlord's 24 hours' written notice given under paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section shall not be construed as an admission by the landlord that the individual occupying the premises is a lessee or sublessee of the landlord.

(5) Except as provided in ORS 90.100 to 90.940, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or ORS 90.325. [Formerly 91.820]

90.405 Effect of tenant keeping unpermitted pet. (1) If the tenant, in violation of the rental agreement, keeps on the premises a dog, cat or other pet capable of causing damage to persons or property, the landlord may deliver a written notice specifying the violation and stating that the tenancy will terminate upon a date not less than 10 days after the receipt of the notice unless the tenant removes the pet from the premises prior to the termination date specified in the notice. If the pet is not removed by the date specified, the tenancy shall terminate and the landlord may take possession in the manner provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.165.

(2) If substantially the same act which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given under subsection (1) of this section recurs within six months, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement upon at least 10 days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

(3) This section shall not apply to any tenancy governed by ORS 90.505 to 90.760 and 90.770 to 90.940. [Formerly 91.822]

90.410 Effect of tenant's failure to give notice of absence; absence; abandonment.

(1) If the rental agreement requires the tenant to give notice to the landlord of an anticipated extended absence in excess of seven days as permitted by ORS 90.340 and the tenant wilfully fails to do so, the landlord may recover actual damages from the tenant.

(2) During any absence of the tenant in excess of seven days, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit at times reasonably necessary.

(3) If the tenant abandons the dwelling unit, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to rent it for a fair rental. If the landlord rents the dwelling unit for a term beginning before the expiration of the rental agreement, the rental agreement terminates as of the date of the new tenancy. If the landlord fails to use reasonable efforts to rent the dwelling unit at a fair rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender, the rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment. If the tenancy is from month to month or week to week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose is deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be. [Formerly 91.825]

90.415 Waiver; exceptions of right of landlord to terminate tenancy. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a landlord waives the right to terminate a rental agreement for a particular breach if the landlord:

(2) A landlord does not waive the right to terminate as described in subsection (1) of this section if the landlord and tenant agree otherwise after the breach has occurred.

(3) A landlord's acceptance of partial rent for a rental period is not a waiver under subsection (1) of this section of the right to terminate the rental agreement during the rental period for nonpayment if:

(a) The landlord accepted the partial rent before the landlord gave any notice of intent to terminate under ORS 90.400 (2) based on the tenant's agreement to pay the balance by a time certain; and

(b) The tenant does not pay the balance of the rent as agreed.

(4) A landlord who accepts partial rent under subsection (3) of this section may proceed to serve a notice under ORS 90.400 (2) to terminate the tenancy if the balance of the rent is not paid, provided:

(a) The notice is served no earlier than it would have been permitted under ORS 90.400 (2) had no rent been accepted; and

(b) The notice permits the tenant to avoid termination of the tenancy for nonpayment of rent by paying the balance within 72 hours or by any date to which the parties agreed, whichever is later.

(5) Unless a landlord and tenant agree otherwise in writing, a landlord waives the right to terminate a rental agreement for nonpayment during a rental period by accepting partial rent for the period if the landlord accepts the partial rent after the landlord has served notice of intent to terminate under ORS 90.400 (2).

(6) A written agreement under subsection (5) of this section may provide that the landlord may proceed to terminate the rental agreement and take possession in the manner provided by ORS 105.105 to 105.165 without serving a new notice under ORS 90.400 (2) in the event the tenant fails to pay the balance of the rent by a time certain.

(7) A landlord who has previously given a termination notice for cause other than nonpayment of rent does not waive the right to terminate the rental agreement for that cause if the landlord accepts rent prorated to the termination date specified in the notice.

(8) A landlord's acceptance of partial rent for a rental period does not waive the right to evict for nonpayment of rent if the entire amount of the partial payment was from funds paid under the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. §1437).

(9) A landlord who has served a notice of termination for cause under ORS 90.400 (1) and who has commenced proceedings under ORS 105.105 to 105.165 to recover possession of the premises does not waive the right to evict on that notice:

(a) By accepting rent for any period beyond the expiration of the notice during which the tenant remains in possession provided:

(A) The landlord notifies the tenant in writing, in or after the service of the notice of termination for cause, that acceptance of rent while an eviction action is pending will not waive the right to evict on that notice; and

(B) The rent does not cover a period extending beyond the date of its acceptance.

(b) By serving a notice of nonpayment of rent under ORS 90.400 (2). [Formerly 91.830]

90.420 Enforceability of landlord liens; distraint for rent abolished. (1) A lien or security interest on behalf of the landlord in the tenant's household goods is not enforceable unless perfected before October 5, 1973.

(2) Distraint for rent is abolished. [Formerly 91.835]

90.425 Disposition of personal property abandoned by tenant; notice to tenant. (1) The landlord may dispose of any goods, chattels, motor vehicles or other personal property left upon the premises by the tenant in the manner provided by subsections (4) and (5) of this section, after giving notice as required by subsection (2) of this section, in the following circumstances only:

(a) A tenancy terminates by expiration of a lease or surrender or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the circumstances that the tenant has left the property upon the premises with no intention of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the property;

(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or

(c) The landlord elects to remove the property pursuant to ORS 105.165.

(2) To dispose of the tenant's property under this section, the landlord must give a written notice to the tenant which shall be:

(a) Sent by first class mail;

(b) Addressed to the tenant's last-known address and to any of the tenant's alternate addresses known to the landlord; and

(3) "First class mail" for purposes of this section does not include certified or registered mail, or any other form of mail which may delay or hinder actual delivery of mail to the tenant.

(4) The notice required under subsection (2) of this section shall state that the property is considered abandoned and must be removed from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, if the landlord has stored the property as provided in subsection (5) of this section, by a specified day not less than 15 days after delivery of the notice or the property will be sold or otherwise disposed of, and if the abandoned property is not removed:

(a) The landlord may sell the property at a public or private sale; or

(b) The landlord may destroy or otherwise dispose of the property if the landlord reasonably determines that the value of the property is so low that the cost of storage and conducting a public sale probably exceeds the amount that would be realized from the sale; or

(c) The landlord may sell certain items and destroy or otherwise dispose of the remaining property.

(5) After notifying the tenant as required by subsections (2) and (4) of this section the landlord shall store all goods, chattels, motor vehicles and other personal property of the tenant in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable care for the property, except that the landlord may promptly dispose of rotting food and allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. The landlord may store a tenant's manufactured dwelling or residential vehicle on the space rented or elsewhere on the premises. The landlord shall be entitled to reasonable storage charges and costs incidental to storage. The landlord may store the property in a commercial storage company, in which case the storage cost shall include the actual storage charge plus the cost of removal of the property to the place of storage.

(6) If the tenant upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsections (2) and (4) of this section or otherwise responds in writing to the landlord on or before the day specified in the landlord's notice that the tenant intends to remove the property from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, if the landlord has stored the property as provided in subsection (5) of this section, and does not do so within the time specified in the notice or within 15 days after the delivery of the tenant's response, whichever is later, the tenant's property shall be conclusively presumed to be abandoned. Except as provided in ORS 105.165, if the tenant removes the property the landlord shall be entitled to the cost of storage for the period the property remains in the landlord's safekeeping, including any cost of removal of the property to the place of storage.

(7) The landlord shall not be responsible for any loss to the tenant resulting from storage of property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the landlord's deliberate or negligent act. In the event of deliberate and malicious violation the landlord shall be liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant.

(8) A public or private sale authorized by this section shall be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.5040 (3).

(9)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

(A) The reasonable cost of notice, storage and sale; and

(b) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection the landlord shall remit to the tenant the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an itemized accounting.

(c) If the tenant cannot after due diligence be found, the remaining proceeds shall be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred, and if not claimed within three years shall revert to the general fund of the county available for general purposes.

(10) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in any action brought by a tenant against a landlord for loss or damage to such personal property disposed of pursuant to this section.

(11) If a landlord seizes and retains a tenant's personal property without complying with this section, the tenant shall be relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct which was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant. [Formerly 91.840]

90.430 Claims for possession, rent, damages after termination of rental agreement. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord may have a claim for possession and for rent and a separate claim for actual damages for breach of the rental agreement. [Formerly 91.845]

90.435 Limitation on recovery of possession of premises. A landlord may not recover or take possession of the dwelling unit by action or otherwise, including wilful diminution of services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of heat, running water, hot water, electricity or other essential service to the tenant, except in case of abandonment, surrender or as permitted in ORS 90.100 to 90.940. [Formerly 91.850]

(b) That the prospective purchaser complete and submit a complete and accurate written application for occupancy of the home as a tenant when the sale is complete.

(5) The following apply if a landlord receives an application for tenancy from a prospective purchaser under subsection (4) of this section:

(c) If, within 10 days after being served with a complaint alleging a violation of ORS 90.510, the landlord offers to enter into a written rental agreement with each of the other tenants of the landlord which does not substantially alter the terms of the oral agreement made when each tenant rented the space and which complies with ORS 90.100 to 90.940, then the landlord shall not be subject to any further liability to such other tenants for previous violations of ORS 90.510.

(Park Purchase by Tenants)

90.800 Policy. (1) The State of Oregon encourages affordable housing options for all Oregonians. One housing alternative chosen by many Oregonians is mobile home or manufactured dwelling park living. The Legislative Assembly finds that many mobile home or manufactured dwelling park residents would like to join together to purchase the mobile home or manufactured dwelling park in which they live in order to have greater control over the costs and environment of their housing. The Legislative Assembly also finds that current market conditions place residents at a disadvantage with other potential investors in the purchase of mobile home or manufactured dwelling parks.

(2) It is the policy of the State of Oregon to encourage mobile home or manufactured dwelling park residents to participate in the housing marketplace by insuring that technical assistance, financing opportunities, notice of sale of mobile home or manufactured dwelling parks and the option to purchase parks are made available to residents who choose to participate in the purchase of a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park.

(3) The purpose of ORS 90.100, 90.500, 90.630, 90.760, 90.800 to 90.840, 308.905, 446.003, 456.579 and 456.581 is to strengthen the private housing market in Oregon by encouraging all Oregonians to have the ability to participate in the purchase of housing of their choice. [1989 c.919 §1]

(b) Any listing agreement entered into, by the owner or agent of the owner, to effect the sale of the mobile home or manufactured dwelling park.

90.815 Incorporation of park purchase association. A park purchase association shall comply with the provisions of ORS chapters 60, 62 and 65 before making the offer provided for under ORS 90.820. [1989 c.919 §9]

(2) Upon receipt of the notice required by subsection (1) of this section, the owner shall negotiate in good faith with the association and provide it a reasonable opportunity to purchase the park as the owner would any bona fide third party potential purchaser.

(3) A park purchase association, actively involved in negotiations with a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park owner may waive or reduce the time periods for notice described in this section.

(4) This section, ORS 90.760 (2) and 90.810 do not apply to:

(a) Any sale or transfer to a person who would be included within the table of descent and distribution if the park owner were to die intestate.

(b) Any transfer by gift, devise or operation of law.

(c) Any transfer by a corporation to an affiliate. As used in this paragraph, "affiliate" means any shareholder of the transferring corporation, any corporation or entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the transferring corporation or any other corporation or entity owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any shareholder of the transferring corporation.

(d) Any transfer by a partnership to any of its partners.

(e) Any conveyance of an interest in a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park incidental to the financing of such mobile home or manufactured dwelling park.

(f) Any conveyance resulting from the foreclosure of a mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument encumbering a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park or any deed given in lieu of such foreclosure.

(e) A particular sale or transfer of such park is exempted from the provisions of this section and ORS 90.820.

(2) Any party acquiring an interest in a mobile home or manufactured dwelling park, and any and all title insurance companies and attorneys preparing, furnishing or examining any evidence of title, have the absolute right to rely on the truth and accuracy of all statements appearing in such affidavit and are under no obligation to inquire further as to any matter or fact relating to the park owner's compliance with the provisions of ORS 90.820.

(3) It is the purpose and intention of this section to preserve the marketability of title to mobile home or manufactured dwelling parks, and, accordingly, the provisions of this section shall be liberally construed in order that all persons may rely on the record title to mobile home or manufactured dwelling parks. [1989 c.919 §11]

(2) The landlord or the tenant may terminate a month-to-month tenancy by giving to the other, at any time during the tenancy, not less than 30 days' notice in writing prior to the date designated in the notice for the termination of the tenancy. The tenancy shall terminate on the date designated and without regard to the expiration of the period for which, by the terms of the tenancy, rents are to be paid. Unless otherwise agreed, rent is uniformly apportionable from day to day.

(3) If the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination, the landlord may bring an action for possession and if the tenant's holdover is wilful and not in good faith the landlord may also recover not more than two months' periodic rent or twice the actual damages sustained by the landlord, whichever is greater. If the landlord consents to the tenant's continued occupancy, ORS 90.240 (4) applies. [Formerly 91.855]

90.910 Service of notices. (1) Notices under this chapter may be served by personal delivery or by first class mail. For purposes of this section, "first class mail" does not include certified or registered mail, or any other form of mail which may delay or hinder actual delivery of mail to the tenant.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, if a notice under ORS 90.400, 90.405, 90.630 or 90.900 is served by mail, the minimum period for compliance or termination of tenancy, as appropriate, shall be extended by three days, and the notice shall recite the fact and extent of the extension.

(3)(a) If a written rental agreement so provides, a notice of nonpayment of rent under ORS 90.400 (2), a 24-hour notice of termination under ORS 90.400 (3)(a), (b) or (d) or a notice of inspection under ORS 90.335 (3) may be deemed served on the day on which it is both mailed by first class mail to the tenant at the premises and attached in a secure manner to the main entrance to that portion of the premises of which the tenant has possession.

(b) Payment by a tenant who has received a nonpayment of rent notice under ORS 90.400 (2) is timely if mailed to the landlord within the period of the notice unless:

(A) The nonpayment of rent notice is personally served on the tenant;

(B) A written rental agreement and the nonpayment of rent notice expressly state that payment is to be made at a specified location which is either on the premises or, unless the tenant has become unable to make rent payments in person since the last rent payment, at a place where the tenant has made all previous rent payments in person; and

(C) The place so specified is available to the tenant for payment throughout the period of the notice. [Formerly 91 857]

90.920 Landlord and tenant remedies for refusal or abuse of access. (1) If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to compel access or may terminate the rental agreement. In addition, the landlord may recover actual damages.

(2) If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or makes repeated demand for entry otherwise lawful but which has the effect of unreasonably harassing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the reoccurrence of the conduct or may terminate the rental agreement. In addition, the tenant may recover actual damages not less than an amount equal to one month's rent. [Formerly 91 860]

90.930 Refusal to rent to physically impaired person because of assistance animal prohibited; extra fee prohibited; liability for damages. A landlord, as defined in ORS 90.100 (5), is subject to ORS 346.690. [Formerly 91.862]

Note: 91 862 [renumbered 90 930 in 1989] was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of any series in ORS chapter 90 by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

90.940 Right of city to recover from owner for costs of relocating tenant due to condemnation. (1) A city with a population that exceeds 300,000 shall have a right of action against the owner of any premises to recover the reasonable costs of relocation incurred by the city because the condition of the premises causes condemnation and relocation of the tenants at public expense. In order to recover the costs, the city must allege and prove that, due to action or inaction of the owner, the premises are or have been in multiple and material violation of applicable health or safety codes for a period of more than 30 days and that such violation endangers the health or safety of the tenants or the public, or both.

(2) It shall be an affirmative defense to recovery of relocation costs incurred for any tenant that the condition was caused by the action or negligence of that tenant.

(3) The official responsible for city code enforcement shall notify the owner in writing when the official finds the premises to be in a condition that may cause tenant relocation. The notice shall also inform the owner of the potential liability for relocation costs.

(4) A landlord may not evict a tenant because of the receipt of the notice required by subsection (3) of this section except for the reasons set forth in ORS 90.385 (3). The owner is not liable for tenant relocation costs if the eviction is for the reasons set forth in ORS 90.385 (3)(a).

(5) The action provided in subsection (1) of this section is in addition to any other action that may be brought against an owner under any other provision of law. [Formerly 91.866]
