PROCEDURE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS GENERALLY

JUDGMENT

(Generally)

137.010 Duty of court to ascertain and impose punishment. (1) The statutes that define offenses impose a duty upon the court having jurisdiction to pass sentence in accordance with this section or, for felonies committed on or after November 1, 1989, in accordance with rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

(2) If it cannot be determined whether the felony was committed on or after November 1, 1989, the defendant shall be sentenced as if the felony had been committed prior to November 1, 1989.

(3) Except when a person is convicted of a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989, if the court is of the opinion that it is in the best interests of the public as well as of the defendant, the court may suspend the imposition or execution of sentence for any period of not more than five years. The court may extend the period of suspension beyond five years in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(4) If the court suspends the imposition or execution of sentence for an offense other than a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989, the court may also place the defendant on probation for a definite or indefinite period of not more than five years. However, upon a later finding that a defendant on probation for a felony has violated a condition of the probation and in lieu of revocation, the court may order the period of both the suspended sentence and the probation extended until a date not more than six years from the date of original imposition of probation. Time during which the probationer has absconded from supervision and a bench warrant has been issued for the probationer's arrest shall not be counted in determining the time elapsed since imposition of probation.

(5) If the court announces that it intends to suspend imposition or execution of sentence, the defendant may, at that time, object and request imposition of sentence. In no case, however, does the defendant have a right to refuse the court's order, and the court may suspend imposition or execution of sentence despite the defendant's objection or request. If the court further announces that it intends to place the defendant on probation, the defendant may, at that time, object and request that probation or its conditions not be imposed or that different conditions be imposed. In no case, however, does the defendant have the right to refuse probation or any of the conditions of the probation, and the court may place the defendant on probation subject to conditions despite the defendant's objection or request.

(6) The power of the judge of any court to suspend execution of sentence or to grant probation to any person convicted of a crime shall continue until the person is delivered to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

(7) When a person is convicted of an offense and the court does not suspend the imposition or execution of sentence or when a suspended sentence or probation is revoked, the court shall impose the following sentence:

- (a) A term of imprisonment;
- (b) A fine;
- (c) Both imprisonment and a fine; or
- (d) Discharge of the defendant.

(8) This section does not deprive the court of any authority conferred by law to decree a forfeiture of property, suspend or cancel a license, remove a person from office or impose any other civil penalty. An order exercising that authority may be included as part of the judgment of conviction.

(9) When imposing sentence for a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989, the court shall complete a sentencing report form as established under section 7, chapter 790, Oregon Laws 1989. The completed form shall be submitted to the Oregon Criminal Justice Council forthwith.

(10) A judgment of conviction that includes a term of imprisonment for a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989, shall state the length of incarceration and the length of post-prison supervision. The judgment of conviction shall also provide that if the defendant violates the conditions of post-prison supervision, the defendant shall be subject to sanctions including the possibility of additional imprisonment in accordance with rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board. [Amended by 1971 c.743 §322; 1981 c.181 §1; 1987 c.320 §27; 1989 c.790 §6; 1989 c.849 §1]

137.013 Appearance by victim at time of sentencing. At the time of sentencing, the victim or the victim's next of kin has the right to appear personally or by counsel, and has the right to reasonably express any views concerning the crime, the person responsible, the impact of the crime on the victim, and the need for restitution and compensatory fine. [1987 c.2 §10]

137.015 Assessment in addition to fine or bail forfeiture; increased bail deposit to cover assessment. (1) Whenever a court imposes a fine, including a fine imposed and thereafter suspended, or orders a bail forfeiture, as a penalty for violation of a law of this state or an ordinance of a city or county except an ordinance relating to cars unlawfully left or parked, an assessment in addition to such fine or bail forfeiture shall be collected. Within 30 days of receipt of such assessments by the clerk of a municipal court, or by the county treasurer in the case of a justice court, the assessment shall be forwarded to the Department of Revenue to be credited to the Police Standards and Training Account established by ORS 181.690. Within 30 days of the receipt of such assessments by the court, in the case of a circuit or district court, the State Court Administrator shall deposit those moneys in the Police Standards and Training Account. The assessment is not part of the fine or forfeiture or in lieu of any part thereof. The amount of the assessment shall be as follows:

(a) When fine or forfeiture is $5 to $14.99, $3.

(b) When fine or forfeiture is $15 to $49.99, $7.

(c) When fine or forfeiture is $50 to $99.99, $8.

(d) When fine or forfeiture is $100 to $249.99, $12.

(e) When fine or forfeiture is $250 to $499.99, $14.

(f) When fine or forfeiture is $500 or over, $35.

(2) When any deposit of bail is made for an offense to which this section applies, the person making such deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the assessment prescribed in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If bail is forfeited the assessment prescribed in this section shall be forwarded or deposited as provided in subsection (1) of this section. If bail is returned, the assessment made thereon shall also be returned. [1971 c.328 §1; 1973 c.346 §1; 1979 c.341 §1; 1983 c.125 §1; 1985 c.277 §1; 1989 c.844 §1]

Note: 137.015 is repealed July 1, 1991. See sections 37 and 39, chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, as amended by chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989. Section 7, chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989, also provides:

Sec. 7. Chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, is repealed July 1, 1991. [1989 c.905 §7]

137.017 Disposition of fines, costs and forfeited bail received by court. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, all fines, costs and forfeited bail collected by the clerk of a circuit court in criminal actions and proceedings, as defined in ORS 131.005, in the circuit court shall be deposited in the General Fund available for general governmental expenses. [1981 s.s. c.3 §102; 1983 c.763 §42]

Note: The amendments to 137.017 by section 5, chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, take effect July 1, 1991. See amendments to section 39, chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, by section 6, chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989. Chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, is repealed on July 1, 1991. See section 7, chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989. The text is set forth for the user's convenience.

137.017. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, all fines, costs and forfeited bail ordered paid in criminal actions and proceedings, as defined in ORS 131.005, in the circuit court shall be accounted for and distributed as provided in ORS 137.293 and 137.295, as monetary obligations payable to the state.

137.020 Time for pronouncing judgment; delay; notice of right to appeal. (1) After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal, if the judgment is not arrested or a new trial granted, the court shall appoint a time for pronouncing judgment.

(2)(a) The time appointed shall be at least two calendar days after the plea or verdict, if the court intends to remain in session so long. If the court does not intend to remain in session at least two calendar days, the time appointed may be sooner than two calendar days, but shall be as remote a time as can reasonably be allowed. However, in the latter case, the judgment shall not be given less than six hours after the plea or verdict, except with the consent of the defendant.

(b) Except for good cause shown or as otherwise provided in this paragraph, a court shall not delay for more than 31 calendar days after the plea or verdict the sentencing of a defendant held in custody on account of the pending proceedings. Except for good cause shown or as otherwise provided in this paragraph, a court shall not delay for more than 56 calendar days after the plea or verdict the sentencing of a defendant not held in custody on account of the pending proceedings. If the defendant is not in custody and the court does not pronounce judgment within 56 calendar days after the plea or verdict, any period of probation imposed as a part of a subsequent sentencing order shall begin to run from the date of the plea or verdict.

(3) If the defendant is in custody following the verdict, the court shall pronounce judgment as soon as practicable, but in any case within seven calendar days following the verdict if no presentence investigation is ordered, and within seven calendar days after delivery of the presentence report to the court if a presentence investigation has been ordered; however, the court may delay pronouncement of judgment beyond the limits of this subsection for good cause shown.

(4) If the final calendar day a defendant must be sentenced is not a judicial day then sentencing may be delayed until the next judicial day.

(5) At the time court pronounces judgment the defendant, if present, shall be advised of the right to appeal and of the procedure for protecting such right. If the defendant is not present, the court shall advise the defendant in writing of the right to appeal and of the procedure for protecting such right. [Amended by 1971 c 565 §18a; 1987 c 242 §1]

137.030 Presence of defendant at pronouncement of judgment. For the purpose of giving judgment, if the conviction is for a felony, the defendant shall be personally present; but if it is for a misdemeanor, judgment may be given in the absence of the defendant.

137.040 Bringing defendant in custody to pronouncement of judgment. If the defendant is in custody, the court shall direct the officer in whose custody the defendant is to bring the defendant before it for judgment; and the officer shall do so accordingly.

137.050 Nonattendance or nonappearance of released defendant when attendance required by court. (1) If the defendant has been released on a release agreement or security deposit and does not appear for judgment when personal attendance is required by the court, the court may order a forfeiture of the security deposit as provided in ORS 135.280. In addition, if the defendant fails to appear as required by the release agreement or security deposit, the court may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for the defendant's arrest.

(2) At any time after the making of the order for the bench warrant, the clerk, on the application of the district attorney, shall issue such warrant, as by the order directed, whether the court is sitting or not. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §257]

137.060 Form of bench warrant. The bench warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

137.071 Requirements for judgments. This section establishes requirements for judgments in actions and proceedings resulting from a person being accused and tried for the commission of an offense. The judge shall assure the creation and filing of a judgment that complies with this section in such action or proceedings. On appeal, the appellate court may give leave as provided in ORS 19.033 for entry of a judgment that complies with this section but may not reverse or set aside a judgment, determination or disposition on the sole ground that the document fails to comply with this section. No particular form of words is required, but every judgment in a criminal action or proceeding must comply with all the following:

(1) It must be in writing, plainly titled as a judgment and set forth in a separate document.

(2) It must clearly identify the court and file number or other identifier used by the court for that case.

(3) It must clearly identify the defendant.

(4) It must clearly identify the attorney for the state and the attorney, if any, for the defendant. If there is no attorney for the defendant, it must specify whether the defendant knowingly waived any right to an attorney after having been informed of that right.

(5) It must include the identity of the recorder or reporter for the proceeding or action who is to be served under ORS 138.081.

(6) It must include any information specifically required by statute or by court rule.

(7) It must specify clearly the court's determination for each charge in the information, indictment or complaint.

(8) It must specify clearly the court's disposition, including all legal consequences the court establishes or imposes. If the determination is one of conviction, it must include any suspension of sentence, forfeiture, imprisonment, cancellation of license, removal from office, monetary obligation, probation, conditions of probation, discharge, restitution, community service and all other sentences and legal consequences imposed by the court. Nothing in this subsection requires the judgment to specify any consequences that may result from the determination but are not established or imposed by the court.

(9) Any money judgment must comply with this subsection and subsection (10) of this section. A judgment that does not comply with this subsection and subsection (10) of this section is subject to not being docketed in the judgment docket as provided under ORS 137.180 until it is amended to become a money judgment and to so comply. A money judgment must include all the following:

- (a) The identity of the judgment creditor.
- (b) The identity of the judgment debtor.

(c) If restitution or compensatory fine is ordered, the name and address of the person to whom the court should disburse payments. This paragraph does not require the name and address of the victim, but may include other persons designated by the victim who will pass the restitution or fine on to the victim without requiring the victim's name and address to be a public record.

(d) The amount of the money judgment. The following apply to the amount of the money judgment:

(A) This paragraph requires both the total amount of the money judgment, excluding any amount that is suspended, and a listing of amounts and identification for the fines, assessments, costs, restitution and any other monetary obligations imposed in the sentence as part of the money judgment.

(B) Money required to be paid as a condition of probation:

(i) Is a money judgment that survives and remains payable after revocation of probation if the amount is included in the money judgment section.

(ii) Is not a money judgment or docketable in the judgment docket and does not survive revocation of probation if not included in the money judgment section, even if the amount is included in another part of the judgment.

(e) If other than immediate payment is permitted, the specific terms of payment imposed or allowed by the court.

(f) A statement specifying whether all or any part of any monetary obligation is suspended. This paragraph does not require a response that no monetary obligation was suspended if that is the case. In those instances where there is no statement that any monetary obligation is suspended, it shall be deemed that no monetary obligation or any part is suspended.

(10) The requirements of subsection (9) of this section must be presented in the following manner:

(a) The information must be presented in a separate, discrete section immediately above the judge's signature.

(b) The separate section must be clearly labeled at its beginning as a money judgment.

(c) The information required under subsection (9) of this section must be presented in the same order as set forth in that subsection.

(d) The separate section must contain no other provisions except what is specifically required by this subsection and subsection (9) of this section and shall not include requirements to pay money that are not part of the money judgment.

(11) It must be signed by the judge rendering the judgment and dated as of the date of signature. [1989 c.472 §2]

137.072 [1967 c.585 §2; repealed by 1973 c.836 §358]

137.073 Applicability of ORS 137.071.

(1) The requirements of ORS 137.071 do not apply where the action or proceeding is initiated solely on the basis of a citation adopted under ORS 1.525 that contains a space on the citation for entry of judgment.

(2) The exemption in subsection (1) of this section does not apply:

(a) If any indictment, information or complaint other than a citation under ORS 1.525 is filed in the action or proceeding.

(b) To citations issued in lieu of arrest under ORS 133.055. [1989 c.472 §3]

137.074 Fingerprints of convicted felons and certain misdemeanants required. When a person is convicted of a felony or a Class A misdemeanor, the court shall insure that the person's fingerprints have been taken. The law enforcement agency attending upon the court is the agency responsible for obtaining the fingerprints. The agency attending upon the court may, by agreement, arrange for another law enforcement agency to obtain the fingerprints on its behalf. [1989 c.790 §19]

137.075 [1967 c.585 §3; 1971 c.743 §323; repealed by 1973 c.836 §358]

(Presentence Report)

137.077 Presentence report; general principles of disclosure. The presentence report is not a public record and shall be available only to:

(1) The sentencing court for the purpose of assisting the court in determining the proper sentence to impose and to other judges who participate in a sentencing council discussion of the defendant. The sentencing judge may disclose information from the presentence report that is necessary to address the content of the report, examine the reasoning for a sentencing recommendation or to explain the reasons for the sentence imposed. Appellate judges may disclose information from the presentence report that is necessary for legal analysis of the case or to report the reasoning of the appellate court.

(2) The Department of Corrections, State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision and other persons or agencies having a legitimate professional interest in the information likely to be contained therein. These agencies or persons may make the presentence report, or any reports based on the contents of that report, available to the victim.

(3) Appellate or review courts where relevant to an issue on which an appeal is taken or post-conviction relief sought.

(4) The district attorney, the defendant or the counsel of the defendant, as provided in ORS 137.079. The district attorney and counsel of the defendant may retain a copy of the presentence report as a part of the permanent records of the case. The district attorney and counsel of the defendant may disclose the contents of the presentence report to individuals or agencies when preparing for the sentencing of the defendant. "Individuals and agencies" include victims, psychologists, psychiatrists, medical doctors and any other person or agency who may assist the state or the defendant at the time of sentencing. [1973 c.836 §260; 1987 c.320 §28; 1989 c.408 §1]

137.079 Presentence report; other writings considered in imposing sentence; disclosure to parties; court's authority to exempt parts from disclosure. (1) A copy of the presentence report and all other written information concerning the defendant that the court considers in the imposition of sentence shall be made available to the district attorney, the defendant or defendant's counsel at least five judicial days before the sentencing of the defendant. All other written information, when received by the court outside the presence of counsel, shall either be summarized by the court in a memorandum available for inspection or summarized by the court on the record before sentence is imposed.

(2) The court may exempt from disclosure parts of the presentence report or other written information described in subsection (1) of this section which are not relevant to a proper sentence, diagnostic opinions which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation if known by the defendant, or sources of information which were obtainable with an expectation of confidentiality.

(3) If parts of the presentence report or other written information described in subsection (1) of this section are not disclosed under subsection (2) of this section, the court shall inform the parties that information has not been disclosed and shall state for the record the reasons for the court's action. The action of the court in excepting information shall be reviewable on appeal.

(4) A defendant who is being sentenced for felonies committed prior to November 1, 1989, may file a written motion to correct the criminal history contained in the presentence report prior to the date of sentencing. At sentencing, the court shall consider defendant's motion to correct the presentence report and shall correct any factual errors in the criminal history contained in that report. An order allowing or denying a motion made pursuant to this subsection shall not be reviewable on appeal. If corrections are made by the court, only corrected copies of the report shall be provided to individuals or agencies pursuant to ORS 137.077.

(4)(a) The provisions of this subsection apply only to a defendant being sentenced for a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the defendant's criminal history as set forth in the presentence report shall satisfy the state's burden of proof as to the defendant's criminal history.

(c) Prior to the date of sentencing, the defendant shall notify the district attorney and the court in writing of any error in the criminal history as set forth in the presentence report. Except to the extent that any disputed portion is later changed by agreement of the district attorney and defendant with the approval of the court, the state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence any disputed part of the defendant's criminal history. The court shall allow the state reasonable time to produce evidence to meet its burden.

(d) The court shall correct any error in the criminal history as reflected in the presentence report.

(e) If corrections to the presentence report are made by the court, only corrected copies of the report shall be provided to individuals or agencies pursuant to ORS 137.077.

(f) Except as provided in ORS 138.222, the court's decision on issues relating to a defendant's criminal history shall not be reviewable on appeal. [1973 c.836 §261; 1977 c.372 §11; 1983 c.649 §1; 1989 c.408 §2; 1989 c.790 §8]

(Aggravation or Mitigation)

137.080 Consideration of circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of punishment. (1) After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal, in a case where discretion is conferred upon the court as to the extent of the punishment to be inflicted, the court, upon the suggestion of either party that there are circumstances which may be properly considered in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, may, in its discretion, hear the same summarily at a specified time and upon such notice to the adverse party as it may direct.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the consideration of aggravating and mitigating circumstances as to felonies committed on or after November 1, 1989, including the maximum sentence that may be imposed because of aggravating circumstances, shall be in accordance with rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board. [Amended by 1989 c.790 §9]

137.085 Age and physical disability of victim as factors in sentencing. When a court sentences a defendant convicted of any crime involving a physical or sexual assault, the court shall give consideration to a victim's particular vulnerability to injury in such case, due to the victim's youth, advanced age or physical disability. Such particular vulnerability of the victim is a fact enhancing the seriousness of any assault, and the court shall consider it as such in imposing the sentence within the limits otherwise provided by law. [1985 c.767 §1]

Note: 137.085 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 137 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

137.090 Considerations in determining aggravation or mitigation. (1) In determining aggravation or mitigation, the court shall consider:

(a) Any evidence received during the proceeding;

(b) The presentence report, where one is available; and

(c) Any other evidence relevant to aggravation or mitigation that the court finds trustworthy and reliable.

(2) When a witness is so sick or infirm as to be unable to attend, the deposition of the witness may be taken out of court at such time and place, and upon such notice to the adverse party, and before such person authorized to take depositions, as the court directs. [Amended by 1965 c.400 §1; 1973 c.836 §259; 1989 c.790 §10]

137.100 Defendant as witness in relation to circumstances. If the defendant consents thereto, the defendant may be examined as a witness in relation to the circumstances which are alleged to justify aggravation or mitigation of the punishment; but if the defendant gives testimony at the request of the defendant, then the defendant must submit to be examined generally by the adverse party.

(Compensatory Fine)

137.101 Compensatory fine. (1) Whenever the court imposes a fine as penalty for the commission of a crime resulting in injury for which the person injured by the act constituting the crime has a remedy by civil action, unless the issue of punitive damages has been previously decided on a civil case arising out of the same act and transaction, the court may order that the defendant pay any portion of the fine separately to the clerk of the court as compensatory fines in the case. The clerk shall pay over to the injured victim or victims, as directed in the court's order, moneys paid to the court as compensatory fines under this subsection. This section shall be liberally construed in favor of victims.

(2) Compensatory fines may be awarded in addition to restitution awarded under ORS 137.103 to 137.109.

(3) Nothing in this section limits or impairs the right of a person injured by a defendant's criminal acts to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action. Evidence that the defendant has paid or been ordered to pay compensatory fines under this section may not be introduced in any civil action arising out of the facts or events which were the basis for the compensatory fine. However, the court in such civil action shall credit any compensatory fine paid by the defendant to a victim against any judgment for punitive damages in favor of the victim in the civil action. [1981 c.637 §2; 1987 c.2 §11]

(Restitution)

137.103 Definitions for ORS 137.101 to 137.109. As used in ORS 137.101 to 137.109, 137.540, 161.675 and 161.685:

(1) "Criminal activities" means any offense with respect to which the defendant is convicted or any other criminal conduct admitted by the defendant.

(2) "Pecuniary damages" means all special damages, but not general damages, which a person could recover against the defendant in a civil action arising out of the facts or events constituting the defendant's criminal activities and shall include, but not be limited to, the money equivalent of property taken, destroyed, broken or otherwise harmed, and losses such as medical expenses and costs of psychological treatment or counseling.

(3) "Restitution" means full, partial or nominal payment of pecuniary damages to a victim. Restitution is independent of and may be awarded in addition to punitive compensation awarded under ORS 137.101.

(4) "Victim" means any person whom the court determines has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities; "victim" shall not include any coparticipant in the defendant's criminal activities. [1977 c.371 §1; 1981 c.637 §1; 1983 c.488 §1; 1983 c.740 §16]

Note: The amendments to 137.103 by section 16, chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, take effect July 1, 1991. See amendments to section 39, chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, by section 6, chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989. Chapter 905, Oregon Laws 1987, is repealed on July 1, 1991. See section 7, chapter 844, Oregon Laws 1989. The text is set forth for the user's convenience.

137.103. As used in ORS 137.101 to 137.109, 137.540, 161.675 and 161.685:

(1) "Criminal activities" means any offense with respect to which the defendant is convicted or any other criminal conduct admitted by the defendant.

(2) "Pecuniary damages" means all special damages, but not general damages, which a person could recover against the defendant in a civil action arising out of the facts or events constituting the defendant's criminal activities and shall include, but not be limited to, the money equivalent of property taken, destroyed, broken or otherwise harmed, and losses such as medical expenses and costs of psychological treatment or counseling.

(3) "Restitution" means full, partial or nominal payment of pecuniary damages to a victim. Restitution is independent of and may be awarded in addition to a compensatory fine awarded under ORS 137.101.

(4) "Victim" means any person whom the court determines has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities; "victim" shall not include any coparticipant in the defendant's criminal activities.

137.106 Restitution to victims of crimes; criteria; objections by defendant.

(1) When a person is convicted of criminal activities which have resulted in pecuniary damages, unless the presentence investigation report contains such a presentation, the district attorney shall investigate and present to the court, prior to or at the time of sentencing, evidence of the nature and amount of such damages. In addition to any other sentence it may impose, the court may order that the defendant make restitution to the victim.

(2) In determining whether to order restitution which is complete, partial or nominal, the court shall take into account:

(a) The financial resources of the defendant and the burden that payment of restitution will impose, with due regard to the other obligations of the defendant;

(b) The ability of the defendant to pay restitution on an instalment basis or on other conditions to be fixed by the court; and

(c) The rehabilitative effect on the defendant of the payment of restitution and the method of payment.

(3) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount or distribution of the restitution, the court shall at the time of sentencing allow the defendant to be heard on such issue. [1977 c.371 §2; 1983 c.724 §1]

137.109 Effect of restitution order on other remedies of victim; credit of restitution against subsequent civil judgment; effect of criminal judgment on subsequent civil action. (1) Nothing in ORS 137.103 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685 limits or impairs the right of a person injured by a defendant's criminal activities to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action. Evidence that the defendant has paid or been ordered to pay restitution pursuant to ORS 137.103 to 137.109, 137.540, 144.275, 161.675 and 161.685 may not be introduced in any civil action arising out of the facts or events which were the basis for the restitution. However, the court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim against any judgment in favor of the victim in such civil action.

(2) If conviction in a criminal trial necessarily decides the issue of a defendant's liability for pecuniary damages of a victim, that issue is conclusively determined as to the defendant if it is involved in a subsequent civil action. [1977 c.371 §7]

(Term and Place of Confinement)

137.120 Term of sentence; reasons to be stated on record. (1) Whenever any person is convicted of a felony committed prior to November 1, 1989, the court shall, unless it imposes other than a sentence to serve a term of imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections, sentence such person to imprisonment for an indeterminate period of time, but stating and fixing in the judgment and sentence a maximum term for the crime, which shall not exceed the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law therefor; and judgment shall be given accordingly. Such a sentence shall be known as an indeterminate sentence. The court shall state on the record the reasons for the sentence imposed.

(2) Whenever any person is convicted of a felony committed on or after November 1, 1989, the court shall impose sentence in accordance with rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board.

(3) This section does not affect the indictment, prosecution, trial, verdict, judgment or punishment of any felony committed before June 14, 1939, and all laws now and before that date in effect relating to such a felony are continued in full force and effect as to such a felony. [Amended by 1967 c.372 §2, 1971 c.743 §324; 1977 c.372 §12; 1987 c.320 §29; 1989 c.790 §111]

137.121 Maximum consecutive sentences. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, but subject to ORS 161.605, the maximum consecutive sentences which may be imposed for felonies committed on or after November 1, 1989, whether as terms of imprisonment, probation or both, shall be as provided by rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board. [1989 c.790 §14]

Note: 137.121 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 137 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

137.122 Concurrent and consecutive sentences; court discretion; findings required. (1) A term of imprisonment imposed by the court may be made concurrent or consecutive to any other term of imprisonment which has been previously imposed or is simultaneously imposed upon the same defendant. The court may provide for consecutive terms of imprisonment only in accordance with the provisions of this section. A term of imprisonment shall be deemed to be a concurrent term unless the court's order expressly provides for consecutive terms of imprisonment.

(2) If a defendant is simultaneously sentenced for criminal offenses that do not arise from the same continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct, or if the defendant previously was sentenced by any other court within the United States to a term of imprisonment which the defendant has not yet completed, the court may impose a term of imprisonment concurrent with or consecutive to the other sentence or sentences.

(3) When a defendant has been found guilty of more than one criminal offense arising out of a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct, the sentences imposed for each resulting conviction shall be concurrent unless the court complies with the procedures set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The court has discretion to impose consecutive terms of imprisonment for separate convictions arising out of a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct only if the court finds:

(a) The criminal offense for which a consecutive sentence is contemplated was not merely an incidental violation of a separate statutory provision in the course of the commission of a more serious crime; or

(b) The criminal offense for which a consecutive sentence is contemplated caused or created a substantial risk of causing greater or qualitatively different loss, injury or harm to the victim or caused or created a substantial risk of causing loss, injury or harm to a different victim than was caused or threatened by the other offense or offenses committed during a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct.

(5) When the court makes the findings provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (4) of this section, it may, in its discretion, impose a consecutive sentence for each criminal conviction arising out of a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct for which such a finding has been made. The court may impose a consecutive sentence if the court finds that the actual term of incarceration would not otherwise be commensurate with the seriousness of the total course of defendant's criminal conduct or the public would not be adequately protected if a concurrent term of imprisonment were imposed.

(6) Whenever the court imposes a consecutive sentence under this section, it shall state its reasons for doing so and make all required special findings on the record at the time of sentencing. [1985 c.722 §2]

137.123 Additional provisions relating to concurrent and consecutive sentences.

(1) A sentence imposed by the court may be made concurrent or consecutive to any other sentence which has been previously imposed or is simultaneously imposed upon the same defendant. The court may provide for consecutive sentences only in accordance with the provisions of this section. A sentence shall be deemed to be a concurrent term unless the court's order expressly provides for consecutive sentences.

(2) If a defendant is simultaneously sentenced for criminal offenses that do not arise from the same continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct, or if the defendant previously was sentenced by any other court within the United States to a sentence which the defendant has not yet completed, the court may impose a sentence concurrent with or consecutive to the other sentence or sentences.

(3) When a defendant has been found guilty of more than one criminal offense arising out of a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct, the sentences imposed for each resulting conviction shall be concurrent unless the court complies with the procedures set forth in subsection (4).

(4) The court has discretion to impose consecutive terms of imprisonment for separate convictions arising out of a continuous and uninterrupted course of conduct only if the court finds:

(a) That the criminal offense for which a consecutive sentence is contemplated was not merely an incidental violation of a separate statutory provision in the course of the commission of a more serious crime but rather was an indication of defendant's willingness to commit more than one criminal offense; or

(b) The criminal offense for which a consecutive sentence is contemplated caused or created a risk of causing greater or qualitatively different loss, injury or harm to the victim or caused or created a risk of causing loss, injury, or harm to a different victim than was caused or threatened by the other offense or offenses committed during a continuous and uninterrupted course or conduct. [1987 c.2 §12]

137.124 Commitment of defendant to Department of Corrections; place of confinement; transfer of inmates; juveniles.

(1) If the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment upon conviction of a felony, it shall not designate the correctional facility in which the defendant is to be confined but shall commit the defendant to the legal and physical custody of the Department of Corrections.

(2) After assuming custody of the convicted person the Department of Corrections may transfer inmates from one correctional facility to another such facility for the purposes of diagnosis and study, rehabilitation and treatment, as best seems to fit the needs of the inmate and for the protection and welfare of the community and the inmate.

(3) If the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment upon conviction of a misdemeanor, it shall commit the defendant to the custody of the executive head of the correctional facility for the imprisonment of misdemeanants designated in the judgment.

(4)(a) When a person under 18 years of age is remanded under ORS 419.533 and subsequently is sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections, the department shall transfer the person to a juvenile training school for physical custody as provided in ORS 420.011 (3).

(b) When a person under 16 years of age is remanded under ORS 419.533 and subsequently is sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the county jail, the sheriff shall transfer the person to a juvenile training school for physical custody as provided in ORS 420.011 (3). [1967 c.585 §4; 1971 c.743 §325; 1973 c.836 §262; 1985 c.631 §5; 1987 c.320 §30]

137.125 [1955 c.660 §3; repealed by 1967 c.585 §8]

(Community Service)

137.126 Definitions for ORS 137.126 to 137.129. As used in ORS 137.126 to 137.129:

(1) "Community service" means uncompensated labor for an agency whose purpose is to enhance physical or mental stability, environmental quality or the social welfare.

(2) "Agency" means a nonprofit organization or public body agreeing to accept community service from offenders and to report on the progress of ordered community service to the court or its delegate. [1981 c.551 §2]

137.127 [1955 c.660 §5; repealed by 1967 c.585 §8]

137.128 Community service as part of sentence; effect of failure to perform community service. (1) A judge may sentence an offender to community service either as an alternative to incarceration or fine or probation, or as a condition of probation. Prior to such order of community service the offender must consent to donate labor for the welfare of the public. The court or its delegate may select community service tasks that are within the offender's capabilities and are to be performed within a reasonable length of time during hours the offender is not working or attending school.

(2) Failure to perform a community service sentence may be grounds for revocation of probation or contempt of court. [1981 c.551 §§3,5]

137.129 Length of community service sentence. The length of a community service sentence shall be within these limits:

(1) For a violation or traffic offense except a major traffic offense, not more than 48 hours.

(2) For a misdemeanor or major traffic offense other than driving under the influence of intoxicants in violation of ORS 813.010, not more than 160 hours.

(3) For a felony, not more than 500 hours.

(4) For a violation of driving under the influence of intoxicants under ORS 813.010, not less than 80 hours or more than 250 hours. [1981 c.551 §4, 1983 c.721 §1; 1985 c.16 §447]

(Post-judgment Procedures)

137.130 [Repealed by 1987 c.550 §5]

137.140 Imprisonment when county jail is not suitable for safe confinement. Whenever it appears to the court that there is no sufficient jail of the proper county, as provided in ORS 137.330, suitable for the confinement of the defendant, the court may order the confinement of the defendant in the jail of an adjoining county or, if there is no sufficient and suitable jail in the adjoining county, then in the jail of any county in the state. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §263, 1987 c.550 §3]

137.150 [Amended by 1959 c.530 §1; 1969 c.511 §2, repealed by 1971 c.743 §432]

137.160 [Repealed by 1961 c.520 §1]

137.170 Entry of judgment on conviction. When judgment upon a conviction is given, the clerk shall enter the same in the register forthwith, stating briefly the crime for which the conviction has been had. [Amended by 1959 c.638 §19; 1973 c.836 §264; 1985 c.540 §36]

137.175 Order of conviction which effects the release of defendant; delivery to sheriff. Whenever a judgment order of conviction will effect the immediate release of a defendant by discharge, probation, sentence to time served, or otherwise, the court shall cause the prompt delivery of the order to the sheriff no later than three calendar days after the order is entered. [1987 c.251 §3]

137.180 Docketing of judgment to pay fine or costs. (1) If a court imposes a sentence that a convicted defendant pay money, whether as a fine, fee, assessment or as costs and disbursements of the action, as restitution or as any other monetary obligation, the clerk shall comply with the following:

(a) If the judgment is given by the circuit court, the clerk shall enter the judgment in the register of actions and shall docket the money judgment portion of the judgment in the judgment docket.

(b) If the judgment is given by the district court, the clerk shall enter the judgment in the register of actions and may docket the money judgment portion of the judgment in the judgment docket.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the clerk shall rely on the existence of a separate section within the judgments subject to ORS 137.071 in determining whether the judgment is a judgment for the payment of money and shall docket in the judgment docket only from the separate section unless otherwise instructed by the court. A clerk is not liable for failure to docket a judgment or to enter specific information on the judgment docket where any of the following occur:

(a) The judgment for the payment of money is required to but does not comply with ORS 137.071.

(b) The clerk is unable to ascertain the specific information from the separate section under ORS 137.071.

(3) The clerk is not liable for entering any information in the judgment docket that reflects information actually contained in a judgment or decree whether or not the information in the judgment or decree is correct or properly presented.

(4) Entry and docketing of judgment under this section has the same effect as a judgment in a civil action, as provided in ORS 18.320, 18.350, 18.360 and 18.400. The judgment is a judgment in favor of the state and may be enforced only by the state. [Amended by 1987 c.709 §2; 1989 c.472 §5]

137.190 [Repealed by 1959 c.558 §32 (137.220 enacted in lieu of 137.190)]

137.200 [Repealed by 1971 c.743 §432]

137.205 [1963 c.600 §12; 1967 c.372 §3; repealed by 1971 c.743 §432]

137.210 Taxation of costs against complainant. (1) If it is found by any justice or court trying the action or hearing the proceeding that the prosecution is malicious or without probable cause, that fact shall be entered upon record in the action or proceeding by the justice or court.

(2) Upon making the entry prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, the justice or court shall immediately render judgment against the complainant for the costs and disbursements of the action or proceeding.

(3) As used in this section "complainant" means every person who voluntarily appears before any magistrate or grand jury to prosecute any person in a criminal action, either for a misdemeanor or felony. [Amended by 1959 c.426 §3]

137.220 Clerk to prepare trial court file. In every criminal proceeding, the clerk shall attach together and file in the office of the clerk, in the order of their filing, all the original papers filed in the court, whether before or after judgment, including but not limited to the indictment and other pleadings, demurrers, motions, affidavits, stipulations, orders, the judgment and the notice of appeal and undertaking on appeal, if any. [1959 c 558 §33 (enacted in lieu of 137 190)]

137.225 Order setting aside conviction or record of arrest; prerequisites; limitations. (1)(a) At any time after the lapse of three years from the date of pronouncement of judgment, any defendant who has fully complied with and performed the sentence of the court and whose conviction is described in subsection (5) of this section by motion may apply to the court wherein that conviction was entered for entry of an order setting aside the conviction; or

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, when a person is sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections, for the purpose of computing the amount of sentence served the term of confinement includes only:

(3) If the Attorney General establishes a program under subsection (1) of this section, the Attorney General's office shall issue satisfactions under the program unless the Attorney General determines that there are sufficient other agencies authorized under subsection (1) of this section who are actually participating in the program to provide reasonable access to satisfactions on a state-wide basis.

(a) The issuance of any satisfactions where the monetary obligation runs to any party other than the state.

(b) Issuance of satisfactions for any part of the judgment other than a money judgment.

(5) Any satisfaction issued by a person authorized under this section may be entered in the same manner and has the same effect on the money judgment as a satisfaction issued for a judgment from a civil action or proceeding. (1) If a person pleads guilty or no contest to, or is found guilty of, a crime described in ORS 163.305 to 163.495, and if the court contemplates placing the person on probation, the court, before entering judgment, may order that the person undergo an examination by a psychiatrist or other physician found qualified and appointed by the court to determine whether available medical treatment would be likely to reduce such biological, emotional or psychological impulses, including any paraphilia, which may be the cause of the criminal conduct and, if so, whether the person is a suitable candidate medically for such treatment. Such medical treatments may include the taking of prescribed medication.

(2) If the examining psychiatrist or other physician reports that available medical treatment would be likely to reduce the biological, emotional or psychological impulses that were a probable cause of the criminal conduct, and that the person is a suitable candidate medically for such treatment, the court may include as a condition of probation that the person participate in a prescribed program of medicine and accept medical treatment at the person's own expense under the care of the psychiatrist or other physician appointed by the court and that the person faithfully participate in the prescribed program of medical treatment during the course of the probation.

(3) Probation under this section shall not be granted except upon the written consent of the convicted person. Probation under this section may be revoked upon any failure of the convicted person to cooperate in the treatment program, including, but not limited to, any failure to meet with the treating physician as directed by the physician or to take medication or otherwise to participate in the prescribed program of medical treatment during the course of the probation. [1987 c.908 §3]

(1) Probation officers, when directed by the court, shall fully investigate and report to the court in writing on the circumstances of the offense, criminal record, social history and present condition and environment of any defendant; and unless the court directs otherwise in individual cases, no defendant shall be placed on probation until the report of such investigation has been presented to and considered by the court.

(2) Whenever a presentence report is made, the preparer of the report shall make a reasonable effort to contact the victim and obtain a statement describing the effect of the defendant's offense upon the victim. If the victim is under 18 years of age, the preparer shall obtain the consent of the victim's parent or guardian before contacting the victim. The preparer of the report shall include the statement of the victim in the presentence investigation report. If the preparer is unable to contact the victim or if the victim declines to make a statement, the preparer shall report that the preparer was unable to contact the victim after making reasonable efforts to do so, or, if contact was made with the victim, that the victim declined to make a statement for purposes of this section. Before taking a statement from the victim, the preparer of the report shall inform the victim that the statement will be made available to the defendant and the defendant's attorney prior to sentencing as required under ORS 137.079.

(3) Whenever desirable, and facilities exist therefor, such investigation shall include physical and mental examinations of such defendants.

(4) As used in this section, "victim" means the person or persons who have suffered financial, social, psychological or physical harm as a result of an offense, and includes, in the case of any homicide, an appropriate member of the immediate family of any such person. [Amended by 1983 c.723 §1]

137.540 Conditions of probation; evaluation and treatment; effect of failure to abide by conditions; modification.

(a) For crimes committed prior to November 1, 1989, be confined to the county jail or be restricted to the probationer's own residence or to the premises thereof, or be subject to any combination of such confinement and restriction, such confinement or restriction or combination thereof to be for a period not to exceed one year or one-half of the maximum period of confinement that could be imposed for the offense for which the defendant is convicted, whichever is the lesser. However, the court shall not order restriction to residence or premises thereof in the case of a defendant convicted of a crime in the course of which the defendant used or threatened to use any weapon or in the course of which the defendant caused, attempted to cause or threatened to cause, physical injury to another.

(j) Take Antabuse, if medically approved.

(k) Submit to breath test or blood test to determine blood alcohol content upon request of a probation officer having reasonable grounds to believe the results would disclose evidence of a probation violation. This condition may be set when it is reasonably related to the nature of the offense or treatment of the offender.

(L) Neither own, possess nor control any firearm or any other specified weapon.

(m) Submit person, residence, vehicle and property to search by a probation officer having reasonable grounds to believe such search will disclose evidence of a probation violation. This condition may be set when it is reasonably related to the nature of the offense or treatment of the offender.

(3)(a) As a condition of probation, the court may require the defendant to report to any state or local mental health facility or other appropriate mental health program for evaluation. Whenever medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment is recommended, the court may order the defendant, as a condition of probation, to cooperate with and accept the treatment from the facility or program.

(b) The facility or program to which the defendant has been referred for evaluation shall perform such evaluation and submit a written report of its findings to the court. If the facility or program finds that treatment of the defendant is appropriate, it shall include its recommendations for treatment in the report to the court.

(c) Whenever treatment is provided by the facility or program, it shall furnish reports to the court on a regular basis concerning the progress of the defendant.

(4) As a condition of probation, the court may order the defendant to pay to the provider the reasonable cost of psychiatric or psychological treatment or other counseling services provided to the victim or victims and the victim's family resulting from or related to the crime or crimes of which the defendant was convicted.

(5) Failure to abide by all general and special conditions imposed by the court and supervised by the probation department and its representatives may result in arrest and revocation of probation and will result in notification of the violation to the sentencing court.

(6) The court may at any time modify the conditions of probation.

(7) It shall not be a cause for revocation of probation that the probationer failed to apply for or accept employment at any workplace where there is a labor dispute in progress. As used in this subsection, "labor dispute" has the meaning for that term provided in ORS 662.010. [Amended by 1965 c.346 §1; 1969 c.597 §125; 1977 c.371 §3, 1977 c.380 §2; 1981 c.671 §1; 1983 c.588 §2; 1985 c.818 §2; 1987 c.780 §3, 1989 c.790 §16]

137.550 Period of probation; discharge from probation; proceedings in case of violation of conditions. (1) Subject to the limitations in ORS 137.010 and to rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board for felonies committed on or after November 1, 1989:

(a) The period of probation shall be such as the court determines and may, in the discretion of the court, be continued or extended.

(b) The court may at any time discharge a person from probation.

(2) At any time during the probation period, the court may issue a warrant and cause a defendant to be arrested for violating any of the conditions of probation. Any probation officer, police officer or other officer with power of arrest may arrest a probationer without a warrant for violating any condition of probation, and a statement by the probation officer setting forth that the probationer has, in the judgment of the probation officer, violated the conditions of probation is sufficient warrant for the detention of the probationer in the county jail until the probationer can be brought before the court. The probation officer, as soon as practicable, but within one judicial day, shall report such arrest or detention to the court that imposed the probation. The probation officer shall promptly submit to the court a report showing in what manner the probationer has violated the conditions of probation.

(3) Except for good cause shown or at the request of the probationer, the probationer shall be brought before a magistrate during the first 36 hours of custody, excluding holidays, Saturdays and Sundays. That magistrate, in the exercise of discretion, may order the probationer held pending revocation hearing or pending transfer to the jurisdiction of another court where the probation was imposed. In lieu of an order that the probationer be held, the magistrate may release the probationer upon the condition that the probationer appear in court at a later date for a probation revocation hearing. If the probationer is being held on an out-of-county warrant, the magistrate may order the probationer released subject to an additional order to the probationer that the probationer report within seven calendar days to the court that imposed the probation.

(4)(a) For defendants sentenced for crimes committed prior to November 1, 1989, the court that imposed the probation, after summary hearing, may revoke the probation:

(A) If the execution of sentence has been suspended, the court shall cause the sentence imposed to be executed.

(B) If no sentence has been imposed, the court may impose any sentence which originally could have been imposed.

(b) For defendants sentenced for crimes committed on or after November 1, 1989, the court that imposed the probationary sentence shall revoke probation supervision and impose a sanction as provided by rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board.

(5) Except for good cause shown, if the revocation hearing is not conducted within 14 calendar days following the arrest or detention of the probationer, the probationer shall be released from custody.

(6) A defendant who has been previously confined in the county jail as a condition of probation pursuant to ORS 137.540 or as part of a probationary sentence pursuant to the rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board may be given credit for all time thus served in any order or judgment of confinement resulting from revocation of probation.

(7) In the case of any defendant whose sentence has been suspended but who is not on probation, the court may issue a warrant and cause the defendant to be arrested and brought before the court at any time within the maximum period for which the defendant might originally have been sentenced. Thereupon the court, after summary hearing, may revoke the suspension of sentence and cause the sentence imposed to be executed.

(8) If a probationer fails to appear or report to a court for further proceedings as required by an order under subsection (3) of this section, the failure to appear may be prosecuted in the county to which the probationer was ordered to appear or report. [Amended by 1955 c 688 §2, 1965 c.346 §2, 1971 c.743 §326; 1987 c.908 §1, 1989 c 790 §17]

137.551 Revocation of probationary sentences; release dates; rules. (1) The State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision shall adopt rules to establish release dates for revocations of probationary sentences imposed for felonies committed before November 1, 1989.

(2) To the extent permissible under law, the release dates for revocation of probationary sentences imposed for felonies committed before November 1, 1989, shall be set consistent with sanctions for probation revocations as provided by rules of the State Sentencing Guidelines Board for felonies committed on or after November 1, 1989. [1989 c.790 §18a]

Note: 137.551 was enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly but was not added to or made a part of ORS chapter 137 or any series therein by legislative action. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

137.553 Use of citations for probation violations authorized. (1) In addition to any authority granted under ORS 137.550, a court may authorize the use of citations to direct its probationers who violate conditions of probation to appear before the court. The following apply to the use of citations under this subsection:

(a) A court may authorize issuance of citations under this subsection only by officers who are permitted under ORS 137.550 to make an arrest without a warrant.

(b) Nothing in this subsection limits the authority, under ORS 137.550, of a probation officer, police officer or other officer to arrest for violation of conditions of probation even if the officer is authorized under this section to issue a citation.

(c) A court may impose any conditions upon an authorization under this subsection that the court considers appropriate. The conditions may include, but are not limited to, requirements that citation authority be sought on a case by case basis, provision for citation in all cases that meet certain conditions, allowance of citation for certain types of cases or designation of certain cases where citations shall not be used.

(2) The cited probationer shall appear before the court at the time, date and court specified in the citation. If the probationer fails to appear at the time, date and court specified in the citation, the court may issue a warrant of arrest, upon the request of the supervisor of probation, or upon request of the district attorney, or upon the court's own motion. [1987 c.761 §2]

137.557 Citation; procedure; contents.

(1) If a citation is issued under ORS 137.553, the officer who issues the citation shall serve one copy of the citation to the probationer who is cited to appear and shall, as soon as practicable, file a duplicate copy with the court in which the probationer is cited to appear, along with proof of service.

(2) Each copy of the citation issued under ORS 137.553 shall contain:

(a) The name of the court at which the cited probationer is to appear.

(b) The name of the probationer cited.

(c) A brief description of the asserted probation violation, the date, the time and the place at which the violation occurred, the date on which the citation was issued and the name of the officer who issued the citation.

(d) The time, date and place at which the cited probationer is to appear in court.

(e) A notice to the effect that:

(A) The citation is not itself a motion to revoke probation, but that such a motion will be filed and a copy provided to the probationer when the probationer appears at court;

(B) The probationer must appear in court at the time set in the citation; and

(C) If the probationer fails to appear as directed, the court may immediately issue a warrant for the probationer's arrest or the probationer may immediately be taken into custody by the officer responsible for supervising the probation. [1987 c.761 §3]

137.560 Copies of certain orders to be sent to Department of Corrections. Within 10 days following the issuing of any order of suspension or imposition or execution of sentence or of probation of any person convicted of a crime, or of the continuation, extension, modification or revocation of any such order, or of the discharge of such person, or the recommendation by the court to the Governor of the pardon of such person, provided such person is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, the judge issuing such an order shall send a copy of the same to the Director of the Department of Corrections. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §271; 1979 c.75 §1; 1987 c.320 §39]

137.570 Authority to transfer probationer from one agency to another; procedure. A court may transfer a person on probation under its jurisdiction from the supervision of one probation agency to that of another probation agency. Whenever a person placed on probation resides in or is to remove to a locality outside the jurisdiction of the court which placed such person on probation, such court may transfer such person to a probation officer appointed to serve for the locality in which such person resides or to which the person is to remove:

(1) If such probation officer sends to the court desiring to make such transfer a written statement that the probation officer will exercise supervision over such person.

(2) If the statement is approved in writing by the judge of the court to which such probation officer is attached. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §272]

137.580 Effect of transfer of probationer from one agency to another. Whenever the transfer mentioned in ORS 137.570 is made, the court making it shall send to the probation agency to whose supervision the probationer is transferred a copy of all the records of such court as to the offense, criminal record and social history of the probationer. The probation agency shall report concerning the conduct and progress of the probationer to the court that placed the probationer on probation. Probation officers or agencies shall have, with respect to persons transferred to their supervision from any other jurisdiction, all the powers and be subject to all the duties now imposed by law upon them in regard to probationers received on probation from courts in their own jurisdiction. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §273]

137.590 Appointment of probation officers and assistants; chief probation officer. The judge or judges of any court of criminal jurisdiction, including municipal courts, may appoint, with the prior approval of the governing body of the county or city involved, and at pleasure remove, such probation officers and clerical assistants as may be necessary. Probation officers appointed by the court shall be selected because of definite qualifications as to character, personality, ability and training. In courts where more than one probation officer is appointed, one shall be designated chief probation officer and shall have general supervision of the probation work of probation officers appointed by and under the direction of the court. Appointments shall be in writing and entered on the records of the court. Probation officers and clerical assistants appointed under this section are not state officers or employees, and their compensation and expenses shall not be paid by the state. [Amended by 1971 c.633 §12; 1973 c.836 §274; 1981 s.s. c.3 §38]

137.610 Performance by Department of Corrections staff of duties of probation officers appointed by judge. The judge or judges of any court of criminal jurisdiction, including municipal courts, may request at any time the staff of the Department of Corrections to perform any of the duties which might be required of a probation officer appointed by the court pursuant to ORS 137.590. All such requests for services of the staff shall be made upon the Director of the Department of Corrections, who shall order the prompt performance of any such requested service whenever members of the staff are available for such duty. [Amended by 1969 c.597 §126; 1987 c.320 §40]

137.620 Powers of probation officers; oath of office; bond; audit of accounts. Probation officers of the Department of Corrections and those appointed by the court shall have the powers of peace officers in the execution of their duties, but shall not be active members of the regular police force. Each probation officer appointed by the court, before entering on the duties of office, shall take an oath of office. Each probation officer who collects or has custody of money shall execute a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the court, with sufficient sureties approved thereby, conditioned for the honest accounting of all money received by the probation officer as probation officer. The accounts of all probation officers shall be subject to audit at any time by the proper fiscal authorities. [Amended by 1973 c.836 §275, 1987 c.320 §41]

[Amended by 1969 c.597 §127; 1981 c.447 §1; 1987 c.320 §42]
