254.145 Design and contents of official ballots. (1) Subject to rotation of candidate names for the primary election, the names of candidates for nomination for or election to each office shall be arranged on the ballot or ballot label in alphabetical order by surname under the designation of the office. The names of candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, however, shall be arranged in groups. In a precinct in which voting machines are used, spaces shall be provided, either on the ballot or on separate material delivered to the elector with the ballot, in which the elector may write the names of persons for any offices appearing on the ballot label. In other precincts, at the end of the list of candidates for each office shall be a blank space in which the elector may write the name of any person not printed on the ballot. On the left margin of the ballot or ballot label the name of each group or candidate may be numbered. The blank spaces shall not be numbered. A particular number shall not be used to designate more than one candidate at any election.

(2) The names of all candidates for the same office shall be listed in the same column on the ballot or ballot label. If more than one column is needed to list names of all candidates for that office, the names may be arranged in one or more columns in block form. The block shall be set apart by rulings under the title of the office. If a blank space follows the list of candidates, the space shall be in the same column as the names of candidates for that office. If blocks of columns are used, blank spaces shall be included within the ruled block.

(3) In precincts using voting machines, the ballot label shall be clearly marked to indicate when names of candidates for the office are continued on the following page.

(4) When a measure is submitted to the people, the number, ballot title and financial estimate under ORS 250.125, if any, of each measure shall be printed consecutively by number after the list of candidates. A measure referred by the Legislative Assembly shall be designated "Referred to the People by the Legislative Assembly." A state measure referred by petition shall be designated "Referendum Order by Petition of the People." A state measure proposed by initiative petition shall be designated "Proposed by Initiative Petition."

(5) Each official ballot shall have a removable stub. The stub on the ballots for a precinct shall be numbered consecutively.

(6) The ballot shall be printed to give the elector a clear opportunity to designate the elector's choice for candidates and approval or rejection of measures submitted. In precincts not using voting machines the elector shall indicate a preference by making a cross or check mark inside a voting square corresponding to the candidate or answer for which the elector wishes to vote. A voting square may be printed on the blank, write-in vote spaces. However, the elector is not required to place a mark in the voting square corresponding to a name written in a blank space. On the ballot or ballot label shall be printed words to aid the elector, such as "Vote for one," "Vote for three," and regarding measures, "Yes" and "No." [1979 c.190 §238; 1983 c.253 §2]

Note: The amendments to 254.145 by section 46, chapter 267, Oregon Laws 1987, are repealed January 1, 1994. See section 82, chapter 267, Oregon Laws 1987. The text is set forth for the user's convenience.

If more than one column is needed to list names of all candidates for that office, the names may be arranged in one or more columns in block form. The block shall be set apart by rulings under the title of the office. If a blank space follows the list of candidates, the space shall be in the same column as the names of candidates for that office. If blocks of columns are used, blank spaces shall be included within the ruled block.

(3) In precincts using voting machines, the ballot label shall be clearly marked to indicate when names of candidates for the office are continued on the following page.

254.155 Rotation of names on primary ballot. (1) This section governs the procedure for determining the order on the ballot of names of candidates for nomination for or election to all offices at the primary election.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the county clerk shall divide the ballot or ballot label forms for the county into sets so as to provide a substantial rotation of the names and numbers of the candidates. The county clerk shall divide the number of ballot or ballot label forms for the county into sets equal in number to the candidates for nomination for or election to the office having the most candidates. The county clerk shall arrange the sets of forms so the names and numbers of the candidates shall be rotated by removing one name with its number from the top of the list for each nomination or office and placing that name and number at the bottom of the list for each successive set. However, no more than one set shall be used in printing the ballots or ballot labels for use in any one precinct.

(3) The names of the candidates for any office for which an elector may vote for two or more candidates shall not be rotated. [Formerly 249.362; 1983 c 253 §1]

The name of a candidate nominated to fill a vacancy in nomination or office shall be printed on the ballots or ballot labels or, if they have already been printed, the county clerk shall cause the name to appear on the ballots or ballot labels before the ballots are given to the electors. (2) The complete text of each ballot title and financial estimate shall be included with any absent elector's official ballot.

(3) Sample ballots and the publication of any facsimile sample ballots shall include the full text of the ballot title and financial estimate. [Formerly 258.380; 1981 c.173 §31; 1981 c.391 §10; 1985 c 808 §36]

(2) Sample ballots shall be prepared for the information of the elector. The sample ballot shall contain the offices, candidates, measures and other information on the ballots or ballot labels of the precincts for which the sample ballot is issued. For the primary election, a facsimile of the sample ballot of each major political party shall be published.

The facsimile shall be published in at least one issue of two newspapers in each county with a population of 10,000 or more in which more than one newspaper is published. The county governing body, at the first regular meeting each year, shall select the newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the county in which the facsimile shall be published and shall notify the county clerk of the selection.

(3) If the county governing body determines that publication of the facsimile in the newspaper or newspapers selected under subsection (2) of this section does not give sufficient notice of the election, it may select additional newspapers in which the facsimile shall be published at least once. The selection shall be made at the same time, but need not be made in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The county governing body shall notify the county clerk of the additional selection.

(4) The facsimile shall be published at the current published local display advertising rate.

(5) The facsimile shall not be published in any newspaper unless it agrees that no paid political advertisement shall be placed on the same page as the facsimile or on the page facing the facsimile. (6) In lieu of the procedure described in subsections (2) to (5) of this section, the county clerk of a county that produces a county voters' pamphlet may publish the facsimile of the sample ballot by distributing the facsimile to each post office mailing address within the electoral district for which the election is being held. The county clerk shall provide suitable compartments, shelves or tables at which electors are to mark their ballots. The arrangement shall insure that the ballot boxes, compartments, shelves or tables, and the electors while marking their ballots, shall not be hidden from view of the election board clerks, yet they shall be so arranged that the elector may conveniently mark the ballot with absolute secrecy. There shall be provided in each polling place not less than one compartment, shelf or table for every 120 electors to vote at that polling place. (6) The county clerk shall insure that the information on the numbered written form is treated as confidential so that in the event of a recount of votes it cannot be determined how any challenged person voted.

(7) The registration of any person voting under this section and ORS 254.407 shall be verified not later than the last business day prior to the last day for the official certification of election results required by ORS 254.545 (3) and 255.295 (1) in order for the vote of the person to be counted. 254.415 Challenging a person's right to vote. (1) An election board clerk or elector present shall challenge any person offering to vote whom the clerk or elector knows or suspects not to be qualified as an elector. The challenge form shall be sealed in an envelope. The county clerk may examine the challenge form after the election to inquire into the validity of the person's registration to vote. The county clerk shall insure that the information on the challenge form is treated as confidential, so that in the event of a recount of votes it cannot be determined how any challenged person voted. [Formerly 250.400; 1983 c.83 §30]

(1) Any elector who, because of a physical disability or an inability to read or write, is unable to mark or punch the ballot, upon request, shall receive the assistance of two election board clerks of different parties or of some other person chosen by the elector in marking or punching the ballot. The persons assisting the elector shall ascertain the wishes of the elector and assist the elector in voting the ballot accordingly, and thereafter shall give no information regarding the vote. The board chairman may require a declaration of disability to be made by the elector under oath. Whenever an elector receives assistance in this manner, a clerk shall make a notation of it in the poll book following the name of the elector.
