ELECTROLOGISTS

(Generally)

690.350 Definitions for ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998. As used in ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Council" means the Advisory Council to the Health Division for Electrologists.

(3) "Electrologist" means a person who practices electrolysis pursuant to the provisions of ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998.

(4) "Electrolysis" means the process by which hair, with a series of treatments, is permanently removed from the skin by inserting a needle-conductor into the hair follicle and directing electrical energy toward the hair cell. The word "electrolysis" is used in generic form in ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998 and refers to modalities of galvanic electrolysis, thermolysis and combinations thereof.

(5) "Instructor" means a person who teaches in a school of electrolysis pursuant to the provisions of ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998.

(7) "Physician" means a person licensed to practice the healing arts by this state pursuant to ORS chapter 677, 684 or 685.

(8) "Schools of electrolysis" means those teaching establishments approved by the Department of Education, Division of Vocational Education, where electrolysis and related subjects are taught. [1987 c.698 §1]

690.355 License required to perform electrolysis; exceptions. No person, including an electrologist, shall perform electrolysis or display a sign or in any other way advertise or purport to be an electrologist unless that person holds a valid license issued by the division. However, ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998 does not prevent or affect the use of electrolysis by a physician, a person under the control and supervision of a physician or any other person specifically permitted to use electrolysis by law. [1987 c.698 §2; 1989 c.171 §82]

690.360 Prohibited acts. No person shall:

(1) Sell, barter or offer to sell or barter a license;

(2) Purchase or procure by barter a license with intent to use it as evidence of the person's qualification to practice electrolysis;

(3) Alter materially a license with fraudulent intent;

(4) Use or attempt to use as a valid license a license which has been purchased, fraudulently obtained, counterfeited or materially altered; or

(5) Wilfully make a false, material statement in an application for licensure or for renewal of a license. [1987 c.698 §13]

(Licensing)

690.365 License fee; general qualifications. An applicant for licensure shall pay a fee established by the division under ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998 and shall show to the satisfaction of the division that the applicant:

(5) Has passed an examination approved, administered or recognized by the division. [1987 c.698 §3]

690.370 Examinations. (1) An applicant for licensure who is notified by the division that the applicant has fulfilled the requirements of ORS 690.365 (1) to (4) shall appear at a time, place and before such persons as the division may designate, for an examination.

(2) The division shall offer an examination at least twice a year. The applicant who fails any part of the examination may apply to retake the failed section or sections twice without being required to obtain additional training. [1987 c.698 §4] requirement. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a license issued under ORS 690.415 expires one year after the date of issue unless renewed by payment of the required renewal fee. The division, however, may vary the date of license renewal by giving to the applicant written notice of the renewal date being assigned and by making prorated adjustments in the renewal fee. If payment is transmitted by postal service, the envelope must be postmarked on or before the expiration of the license. If the license expires, the license may be renewed on payment of a renewal fee and late penalty fee established by the division under ORS 690.350 to 690.430 and 690.996 to 690.998.

690.385 License renewal; fees; effect of failure to renew; continuing education
