696.007 Statement of legislative purpose. (1) The Sixty-second Legislative Assembly recognizes that notwithstanding amendments made to ORS chapter 696 by sections 9, 17, 19, 23, 25, 27 to 30, 32 and 40 to 43, chapter 649, Oregon Laws 1977, section 40, chapter 617, Oregon Laws 1981, and amendments made to ORS chapter 656 by chapter 864, Oregon Laws 1979, section 1, chapter 725, Oregon Laws 1981, and section 4, chapter 854, Oregon Laws 1981, agencies of this state are uncertain regarding application to real estate licensees of statutes of this state relating to employers and employees. This section and ORS 316.209 and 656.037 are enacted to eliminate that uncertainty, to reaffirm the legislative intent of the enactments cited in this section and to conform Oregon law to parallel provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

An associate broker's license may be obtained by a broker, without examination, by subscribing to an agreement that the broker will not engage in any act in the capacity of a broker other than as an agent of the other broker or the organization, while associated with the other broker or the organization. The form of this agreement is subject to the approval of the commissioner. The real estate broker shall file signed copies of the agreement with the other broker or the organization and with the commissioner. Before an associate broker's license may be issued, the applicant must also surrender to the commissioner for inactivation the applicant's license as a real estate broker. The license shall remain inactive as long as the associate broker's license is outstanding and effective, and shall be reissued upon inactivation of the associate broker's license and compliance with the other provisions of ORS 696.010 to 696.495 and 696.710 to 696.730 relating to brokers.

(2) Upon approval of the agreement mentioned in this section, and the tender of the broker's license to the commissioner, the commissioner shall issue, in the applicant's name, an associate broker's license. The commissioner shall deliver the license to the broker or organization in accordance with ORS 696.180. An associate broker's license shall designate the applicant as an associate real estate broker, and the applicant shall be

(2) If the licensee fails to renew the license in the manner set forth in subsection (1) of this section on or before the expiration date of the license, the commissioner may accept a late payment, subject to such conditions as the commissioner may require. However, during the period beginning on the day following the expiration date of the license and ending on the date of renewal of the license the rights of the licensee under such license and the rights of each associate broker and salesperson engaged by the licensee shall be suspended, and during such suspension it is unlawful for any of such licensees to do or attempt or offer to engage in any professional real estate activity.

(3) The license of an associate broker or salesperson suspended as provided for in subsection (2) of this section may be reissued to the same broker or a new broker if requested within 30 days after expiration of the broker's license and upon payment of a transfer fee and on receipt of the associate broker's or salesperson's original license.

(4) To qualify an active license for renewal, the real estate licensee must present evidence of attendance during the preceding two license years of 24 clock-hours of real estate oriented educational sessions at the time of each of the first three renewals and 12 clock-hours of such sessions at the time of each succeeding renewal. Certification of attendance by the broker or appraiser with whom the licensee is licensed shall be considered evidence of attendance. A real estate broker licensed under ORS 696.025 (1), a designated real estate broker licensed under ORS 696.025 (3), a real estate appraiser licensed under ORS 696.025 (7), and a designated real estate appraiser licensed under ORS 696.162 (2) are not subject to the education requirements of this subsection at the time of renewal of an active license. "Real estate oriented educational sessions" include sessions relating to the subject matter of ORS chapter 696.

(5) The commissioner may waive the continuing education requirements of subsection (4) or (6) of this section for any licensee who submits satisfactory evidence of inability to attend such sessions because of health or other circumstances beyond the licensee's control.

(2) Real estate organizations shall have established as the equivalent of a birthdate, that date upon which the license is issued.

(3) Branch offices shall have established as the equivalent of a birthdate, the expiration date of the license of the real estate broker or real estate organization establishing the branch office. [1969 c.674 §10; 1975 c.746 §13; 1977 c.649 §26]

Each license shall have imprinted thereon the seal of the agency and shall contain such other matter as shall be prescribed by the commissioner. The license of each real estate salesperson shall be delivered or mailed to the real estate broker by whom such real estate salesperson is engaged and shall be kept in the custody and control of such broker. [Amended by 1977 c.649 §27]

(1) Except for associate brokers licensed pursuant to ORS 696.165, every real estate broker and real estate organization shall maintain in this state a place of business to be designated as the broker's or organization's main office and designate such place of business by a sign which shall contain the name under which such broker is licensed.

(2) The place of business shall be specified in the application for license, and designated in the license. No license issued under ORS 696.010 to 696.490 and 696.710 to 696.730 authorizes the licensee to transact business from any office other than that designated in the license, unless notice in writing is given to the commissioner prior to any such change of business location, designating the new location of such office, at which time the broker shall send in the broker's license and the licenses of the licensee agents with the fee required by ORS 696.270 for each new license. The commissioner forthwith shall issue a new license for the new location for the unexpired period. The change of a business location without notification to the commissioner is grounds for revocation of licenses previously issued.

(3) If a broker desires to establish one or more branch offices, the broker shall notify the commissioner, giving the location thereof, and pay the fee required by ORS 696.270 for each branch office to be established, whereupon the commissioner may issue a license therefor. The branch office license shall be issued in the same name that the main office license is issued, and the license must be posted in the branch office. Branch office signs shall conform with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section and the designation "Branch Office" shall be included. Each office, whether main or branch, shall be under the management of a licensee in the broker category as specified in ORS 696.025 who shall conduct and supervise the business of the office. A broker may conduct and supervise the business of more than one office, whether main or branch. The license of an associate real estate broker managing an office shall state that the broker is associated with or the agent of, as the case may be, the broker licensed to establish the office. Salespersons who were authorized to and were managing a "Branch Office" for a broker on October 5, 1973, may continue such management.

(4) Upon removal from any location it shall be a broker's duty to see that the broker's name or the name under which the broker has operated is removed from the location which the broker has vacated. A broker shall not display any name as such at the designated places of business named in the broker's license or licenses other than the name under which the broker is licensed. [Amended by 1955 c.322 §14, 1961 c.471 §3, 1965 c.367 §1; 1973 c.416 §7, 1975 c.746 §14; 1977 c.649 §29, 1979 c.823 §1; 1981 c.617 §10; 1989 c.532 §7]

696.205 Death of sole proprietor broker; temporary license. In the event of the death of a licensed broker who is the sole proprietor of a real estate business, the commissioner may issue a temporary license to the executor, administrator or personal representative of the estate of the deceased broker, or to some other person designated by the commissioner, to continue to transact said business for the sole purpose of winding up the affairs of the deceased broker. Unless the commissioner, in the discretion of the commissioner, extends the term of the temporary license upon sufficient cause being furnished to the commissioner by the temporary licensee, the term of a temporary license shall not exceed one year from the date of issuance. [1975 c.746 §7]

696.210 Display of licenses at place of business. Each real estate broker shall display prominently in the broker's principal place of business the broker's own license as well as the licenses of all real estate salespersons who are agents for the real estate broker. [Amended by 1977 c.649 §30]

696.220 [Repealed by 1955 c.322 §15]

696.221 Return of license to commissioner. (1) A real estate broker or real estate appraiser at any time may, and at the request of a licensee under the broker's or appraiser's supervision shall without delay, return the license of the licensee to the commissioner. When, and only when, the license of the licensee is returned to the commissioner, the relationship of the broker or appraiser returning the license and the licensee whose license is returned, is, for the purposes of ORS 696.010 to 696.490 and 696.710 to 696.730, terminated. Before the broker or appraiser returns the license of a licensee to the commissioner the broker or appraiser shall make a reasonable attempt to give the licensee notice of the broker's or appraiser's intent to do so.

(2) After the license of a licensee has been returned to the commissioner under subsection (1) of this section by the broker or appraiser it may:

(a) Become an inactive license.

(b) Be reissued to the same broker or appraiser.

(c) Be reissued to a different broker or appraiser. [1955 c.322 §4, 1969 c.674 §12, 1977 c.649 §31; 1983 c.258 §2]

696.224 Inactive real estate license. (1) The license of a real estate licensee becomes an inactive license if it is not reissued, revoked or suspended within 30 days after the licensee's agency relationship with a broker or appraiser is terminated.

(2) The license of a real estate licensee shall be reissued to the same or a different broker or appraiser when, within 30 days after termination of the licensee's agency relationship with a broker or appraiser:

(a) Notice of the licensee's agency relationship by the broker or appraiser and the name of the agency relationship broker or appraiser is given to the commissioner by the real estate licensee; and

(b) The fee prescribed by ORS 696.270 for the transfer of licenses has been paid to the commissioner. [1955 c.322 §5; 1969 c.674 §13; 1977 c.649 §32; 1983 c.258 §3; 1989 c.724 §12]

696.226 Return of broker or appraiser license to commissioner; inactive licensee not to engage in business; renewal, reactivation, revocation or suspension of inactive licenses. (1) When a broker or appraiser ceases to maintain a place of business the broker or appraiser shall return the broker's or appraiser's license and the licenses of all persons under the broker's or appraiser's supervision to the commissioner, who shall keep such licenses on record as inactive licenses.

The court shall have power, during the pendency of the proceedings before it to issue such preliminary restraining orders as may appear to be just and proper; and the findings of the commissioner shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence and sufficient ground, in the discretion of the court, for the issue ex parte of a preliminary restraining order.

(4) In any such court proceedings the commissioner may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring forthwith the appearance of any defendant and employees of the defendant and the production of documents, books and records as may appear necessary for the hearing of such petition, to testify and give evidence concerning the acts or conduct or things complained of in such application for injunction. (2) Pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner may apply to the circuit court of the county in which the licensee's principal place of business is located for an order directing the licensee to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed to take charge of and manage or liquidate if necessary the assets of the licensee utilized in professional real estate activity in such a manner as to prevent or minimize such financial loss to others.

(3) If the court is satisfied from reading the commissioner's petition that the facts therein alleged, if established, warrant such receivership action, the court shall issue such order to show cause. The court may at such time, without notice, issue a temporary injunction restraining such licensee, or any of the licensee's officers, directors, stockholders, members, agents or employees, from the transaction of any professional real estate activity, or the waste or disposition of any such assets until further order of the court. Should such an injunction be issued, a hearing on whether the injunction shall be continued shall be held within five business days of its service.

(4) On return of the order to show cause, and after a full hearing, the court shall either deny the application or grant the same, together with such other relief as the court may deem necessary.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no bond shall be required of the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representatives as a prerequisite for the issuance of any injunction or other order pursuant to this section.

(6) At any time during such proceedings, the licensee may satisfy the court that the activity which prompted such proceedings has been rectified or that financial loss to others no longer will likely occur, in which case the court may dismiss such proceedings.

(7) The expenses of the receiver, compensation of the legal counsel of the receiver, as well as all expenditures of the receiver required in such proceedings shall be fixed by the court and shall be paid out of funds in the hands of the receiver or entered as a judgment against such licensee.
