"Meeting the essential requirements for physical health and safety" means those actions necessary to provide the health care, food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene and other care without which serious physical injury or illness is likely to occur. "Manage financial resources" means those actions necessary to obtain, administer and dispose of real and personal property, intangible property, business property, benefits and income.

(6) "Interested person" includes heirs, devisees, children, spouses, creditors, beneficiaries and any others having a property right in or claim against the estate of a ward or protected person which may be affected by the proceeding, persons having priority for appointment as personal representative and other fiduciaries representing interested persons. The meaning as it relates to particular persons may vary from time to time and must be determined according to the particular purposes of, and matter involved in, any proceeding.

(8) "Minor ward" is a minor for whom a guardian has been appointed solely because of minority.

(9) "Protective proceeding" is a proceeding under ORS 126.157 to determine that a person cannot effectively manage or apply the estate of the person to necessary ends, either because the person lacks the ability or is otherwise inconvenienced, or because the person is a minor, and to secure admin-

(10) "Protected person" is a minor or other person for whom a conservator has been appointed or other protective order has been made.

(11) "Visitor" means a person who is an officer, employee or special appointee of the court, who has no personal interest in the proceedings and who has been trained or has the expertise to appropriately evaluate the needs of the person who is allegedly incapacitated.

126.050 Effect of bankruptcy, felony conviction or misdemeanor conviction on appointment as guardian or conservator; notice to court. (1) A person nominated or appointed as guardian or conservator who has been convicted of a felony or Class A misdemeanor, or who has filed a petition for relief under bankruptcy laws, shall inform the court of the conviction or bankruptcy filing. The conviction or bankruptcy filing shall not disqualify the person from acting as guardian or conservator unless the court finds that the facts underlying the conviction or bankruptcy filing are such as to give rise to a reasonable belief that such person will be unfaithful to or neglectful of trust or that the appointment will not be in the best interests of the minor or protected person.

(2) A nominee or appointee who fails to inform the court as required by subsection (1) of this section may be disqualified from acting as guardian or conservator or may be removed. [1977 c.355 §2; 1991 c.895 §1]

The same procedures and provisions for appointment of an original guardian or conservator shall apply.

(2) When a successor guardian or conservator is appointed, the successor has all the rights and powers of the predecessor, except that a successor guardian shall not exercise powers given in a will or other written instrument which, by the terms of the will or written instrument, are personal to the guardian named therein. [1977 c.355 §3]

Note: See note under 126.045.

(Guardians of Minors)

126.060 Status of guardian of minor; Children's Services Division as guardian. (1) A person becomes a guardian of a minor upon appointment by the court. The guardianship status continues until terminated, without regard to the location of the guardian or minor ward.

(2) The Children's Services Division may be made guardian of a minor upon appointment by the court if the minor has no living parents and if no willing, qualified and suitable relative or other person is available and has petitioned the court for appointment as a guardian. In that case, the division shall be considered a "person" under ORS 126.060 to 126.090. [1973 c.823 §9; 1987 c.466 §1]

126.065 Venue for guardianship proceedings for minor. The venue for guardianship proceedings for a minor is in the place where the minor resides or is present. [1973 c.823 §10]

126.070 Procedure for appointment of guardian of minor. (1) Notice for the appointment of a guardian of a minor shall be given by the petitioner as required under ORS 126.007 to:

- (a) The minor, if the minor is 14 years of age or older;
- (b) The person who has had the principal care and custody of the minor during the 60 days preceding the date of the petition;
- (c) Any living parent of the minor; and
- (d) If the Children's Services Division proposes to be appointed a guardian for the purpose of consenting to the adoption of a minor, the minor's brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and grandparents whose identity and address can be ascertained with reasonable diligence, and any persons named as potential guardians in a will filed for probate action executed by a parent of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that a qualified person seeks appointment, venue is proper, the required notices have been given and the welfare and best interests of the minor will be served by the requested appointment, the court shall make the appointment. In other cases the court may dismiss the proceedings or make any other disposition of the matter that will best serve the interests of the minor.

(3) If necessary, the court may appoint a temporary guardian, with the status of an ordinary guardian of a minor, but the authority of a temporary guardian shall not last longer than six months.

(4) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the minor are or may be inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is 14 years of age or older. [1973 c.823 §11; 1987 c.466 §2]

126.075 Effect of accepting appointment to be guardian of minor; notice of proceedings to guardian. (1) By accepting appointment, a guardian whether a resident or nonresident of this state, submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any interested person.

(2) Notice of any proceeding shall be delivered to the guardian, or mailed to the guardian by ordinary mail at the address as listed in the court records and to the address as then known to the petitioner. [1973 c.823 §12]

126.080 Powers and duties of guardian of minor. (1) A guardian of a minor has the powers and responsibilities of a parent who has not been deprived of custody of the minor and unemancipated child, except that a guardian is not legally obligated to provide from the funds of the guardian for the ward and is not liable to third persons by reason of the parental relationship for acts of the ward. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian:

(a) Shall take reasonable care of the ward's personal effects and begin protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the ward.

(b) May receive money payable for the support of the ward to the ward's parent, guardian or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship or custodianship.

(c) May receive money or property of the ward paid or delivered by virtue of ORS 126.025.

(d) May institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward.

(e) Shall facilitate the ward's educational, social, or other activities and authorize medical or other professional care, treatment or advice. Termination does not affect the liability of the guardian for prior acts or the responsibility of the guardian to account for, or to discharge obligations from, funds and assets of the ward.

(2) After notice of a petition for removal or for permission to resign and hearing upon objections to the petition, if any, the court may terminate the guardianship and make any further order that may be appropriate.

(3) If, at any time in the proceeding, the court determines that the interests of the ward, are, or may be, inadequately represented, it may appoint an attorney to represent the minor, giving consideration to the preference of the minor if the minor is 14 years of age or older. [1973 c.823 §16]

(3) Upon good cause shown, the court may extend the period of temporary guardianship an additional 30 days beyond the period specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) If no hearing is requested after notice is given under this section, the court shall appoint a visitor who shall, within three judicial days after the appointment of a temporary guardian, conduct an interview of the person for whom the temporary guardian has been appointed. The guardian shall exercise care to conserve any excess for the ward's needs.

(2) Pursuant to ORS 126.107 (2), the guardianship order of the court may modify the powers and duties of a guardian described in subsection (1) of this section by specifying the authority of the guardian to act only in those specific areas in which the ward has a demonstrated incapacity.

(3) If a conservator has been appointed:

(a) All of the ward's estate received by the guardian in excess of those funds expended to meet current expenses for support, care, and education of the ward shall be paid to the conservator for management, and the guardian shall account to the conservator for funds expended.

(b) The guardian shall control the custody and care of the ward, and may receive reasonable sums for services of the guardian and for room and board furnished to the ward as agreed upon between the guardian and the conservator, if the amounts agreed upon are reasonable under the circumstances. (3) Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to the liabilities of the conservator concerning the matters considered in connection therewith. An order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or successors relating to the conservatorship.

(4) In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in the control of the conservator, to be made in any manner the court may specify. [1973 c.823 §53; 1987 c.728 §1; 1989 c.230 §5]

126.285 [1961 c.344 §38; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.287 Conservator's accounting to protected person. Notwithstanding ORS 126.283, if the protected person recovers from the disability of the protected person or is a minor who attains the age of majority a conservator may settle the account of the estate of the protected person with the protected person without filing a report with the court. The protected person shall give a receipt to the conservator for the property delivered to the protected person. The protected person shall file with the court a copy of the receipt issued by the protected person to the conservator. When the receipt is filed, the court shall terminate the protective order. [1973 c.823 §54]

126.293 Power of conservator over property of protected person. A conservator shall take possession of all the property of substantial value of the protected person, and of rents, income, issues and profits therefrom whether accruing before or after the appointment of the conservator, and of the proceeds from the sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition thereof. However, the conservator may permit the protected person to have possession and control of property and funds for living requirements as appropriate to the needs and capacities of the protected person. The title to all property of the protected person is in the protected person and not in the conservator. [1973 c.823 §56]

126.295 [1961 c.344 §40; 1969 c.591 §238; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.297 Certain transactions voidable. Any sale or encumbrance to a conservator, the spouse, agent or attorney of the conservator, or any corporation or trust in which the conservator has a substantial beneficial interest, or any transaction which is affected by a substantial conflict of interest is voidable unless the transaction is approved by the court after notice as required under ORS 126.007 to interested persons and others as directed by the court and a hearing of objections, if any. [1973 c.823 §57]

126.300 [1961 c.344 §41; repealed by 1969 c.591 §305]

126.303 Status of persons dealing with conservator. (1) A person who in good faith either assists a conservator or deals with the conservator for value in any transaction other than those requiring a court order as provided in ORS 126.203 to 126.217, is protected as if the conservator properly exercised the power. The fact that a person knowingly deals with a conservator does not alone require the person to inquire into the existence of a power or the propriety of its exercise, except that restrictions on powers of conservators which are indorsed on letters as provided in ORS 126.343 are effective as to third persons. A person is not required to see to the proper application of estate assets paid or delivered to a conservator.

(2) The protection provided under subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Extends to instances in which some procedural irregularity or jurisdictional defect occurs in proceedings leading to the issuance of letters.

(b) Is not substituted for that provided by comparable provisions of the laws relating to commercial transactions and laws simplifying transfers of securities by fiduciaries.

(3) A person who holds property in which the protected person has an interest, or who is indebted either to the protected person, or to the protected person and others, may deal with the conservator with respect to the property or debt to the same extent that such person could deal with the protected person were the protected person not under disability. [1973 c.823 §58; 1981 c.906 §1]

126.305 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.306 [1961 c.344 §42; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.307 Conservator of estate of minor has duties and powers of guardian. A conservator has the powers conferred in ORS 126.313 and any additional powers conferred by law on trustees in this state. In addition, a conservator of the estate of a minor under the age of 18 years, as to whom no one has parental rights, has the duties and powers of a guardian of a minor described in ORS 126.080 until the minor attains the age of 18 or marries, but the parental rights so conferred on a conservator do not preclude appointment of a guardian as provided under ORS 126.060 to 126.095. [1973 c.823 §59]

126.310 [Repealed by 1961 c.344 §109]

126.311 [1961 c.344 §43; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.313 Powers of conservator. A conservator, acting reasonably in efforts to accomplish the purpose for which the conservator was appointed, may act without court authorization or confirmation, to:

(1) Collect, hold and retain assets of the estate including land wherever situated, until, in the judgment of the conservator, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even though they include an asset in which the conservator is personally interested;

(3) Continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise;

(4) Acquire an undivided interest in an estate asset in which the conservator, in any fiduciary capacity, holds an undivided interest;

(8) Make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings;

(9) Subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or to partition by giving or receiving considerations, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

(18) Borrow money to be repaid from estate assets or otherwise and mortgage or pledge property of the protected person as security therefor, to advance money for the protection of the estate or the protected person, and for all expenses, losses, and liability sustained in the administration of the estate or because of the holding or ownership of any estate assets and the conservator has a lien on the estate as against the protected person for advances so made;

(19) Pay or contest any claim, to settle a claim by or against the estate or the protected person by compromise, arbitration, or otherwise, and to release, in whole or in part, any claim belonging to the estate to the extent that the claim is uncollectible;

(20) Pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the conservator, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care, administration and protection of the estate;

(21) Allocate items of income or expense to either income or principal, including creation of reserves out of income for depreciation, obsolescence, or amortization, or for depletion in mineral or timber properties;

(22) Pay any sum distributable to a protected person or a dependent of the protected person by paying the sum to the distributee or by paying the sum for the use of the distributee either to the guardian of the protected person or if none, to a relative or other person with custody of the person of the protected person;

(23) Employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, or agents, even though they are associated with the conservator to advise or assist the conservator in the performance of administrative duties, to act upon their recommendation without independent investigation, and instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary, except that payment to the conservator's attorney of record shall be subject to the provisions of ORS 126.263;

(25) Prosecute claims of the protected person including those for the personal injury of the protected person; and

126.317 Duties and powers of conservator to pay expenses of protected person and dependents. A conservator may expend or distribute income or principal of the estate without court authorization or confirmation for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person and the dependents of the protected person if the conservator:

(1) Considers recommendations relating to the appropriate standard of support, education and benefit for the protected person made by a parent or guardian, if any. The conservator may not be surcharged for sums paid to persons or organizations actually furnishing support, education or care to the protected person pursuant to the recommendations of a parent or guardian of the protected person unless:

(a) The conservator knows that the parent or guardian is deriving personal financial benefit therefrom, including relief from any personal duty of support; or

(b) The recommendations are clearly not in the best interests of the protected person.

(2) Expends or distributes sums reasonably necessary for the support, education, care or benefit of the protected person with due regard to:

(a) The size of the estate, the probable duration of the conservatorship and the likelihood that the protected person, at some future time, may be fully able to manage the affairs of the protected person and the estate which has been conserved for the protected person;

Funds expended under ORS 126.317 may be paid by the conservator to any person, including the protected person to reimburse for expenditures which the conservator might have made, or in advance for services to be rendered to the protected person when it is reasonable to expect that they will be performed and where advance payments are customary or reasonably necessary under the circumstances. 126.336 [1961 c.344 §48; 1965 c.402 §2; 1969 c.384 §1; repealed by 1973 c.823 §154]

126.337 Powers and duties of conservator on death of protected person. (1) If a protected person dies, the conservator shall deliver to the court for safekeeping any will of the deceased protected person which may have come into the possession of the conservator, inform the executor or a beneficiary named therein that the conservator has done so, and retain the estate for delivery to the personal representative of the decedent or other persons entitled thereto.

(2) If after 40 days from the death of the protected person a person has not been appointed personal representative and an application or petition for appointment is not before the court, the conservator may apply to exercise the powers and duties of a personal representative so that the conservator may proceed to administer and distribute the decedent's estate without additional or further appointment.

(3) Upon application for an order granting the powers of a personal representative to a conservator, after notice to any person demanding notice under ORS 126.193 and to any person nominated executor in any will of which the applicant is aware, the court may, upon determining that there is no objection, order the conferral of the power and indorse the letters of the conservator to note that the formerly protected person is deceased and that the conservator has acquired all of the powers and duties of a personal representative. The making and entry of an order under this subsection shall have the effect of an order of appointment of a personal representative as provided in ORS chapters 113 to 116 except that estate in the name of the conservator, after administration, may be distributed to the decedent's successors without prior retransfer to the conservator as personal representative. The court may, at the time of appointment or later,

I, _____ (name of transferor or name and representative capacity if a fiduciary) hereby transfer to _____ (name of custodian), _____ as custodian for _____ (name of minor) under the Oregon Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, the following: (insert a description of the custodial property sufficient to identify it).

Dated: _____

(Signature)

_____ (name of custodian) acknowledges receipt of the property described above as custodian for the minor named above under the Oregon Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

Dated: _____

(Signature of Custodian)

(3) A transferor shall place the custodian

in control of the custodial property as soon as practicable.
[1985 c.665 §10]

126.835 [1959 c.640 §7; 1967 c.300 §5; 1981 c.443 §5; repealed by 1985 c.665 §27]

126.836 Limitations on custodianship. A transfer may be made only for one minor and only one person may be the custodian. All custodial property held under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 by the same custodian for the benefit of the same minor constitutes a single custodianship. [1985 c.665 §11]

126.839 Validity of transfer. (1) The validity of a transfer made in a manner prescribed in ORS 126.805 to 126.886 is not affected by:

(a) Failure of the transferor to comply with ORS 126.832 (3) concerning possession and control;

(b) Designation of an ineligible custodian, except designation of the transferor in the case of property for which the transferor is ineligible to serve as custodian under ORS 126.832 (1); or

(c) Death or incapacity of a person nominated under ORS 126.812 or designated under ORS 126.832 as custodian or the disclaimer of the office by that person.

(2) A transfer made pursuant to ORS 126.832 is irrevocable, and the custodial property is indefeasibly vested in the minor, but the custodian has all the rights, powers, duties and authority provided in ORS 126.805 to 126.886 and neither the minor nor the minor’s legal representative has any right, power, duty or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in ORS 126.805 to 126.886.

(3) By making a transfer, the transferor incorporates in the disposition all the provisions of ORS 126.805 to 126.886 and grants to the custodian, and to any third person dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights and immunities provided in ORS 126.805 to 126.886. [1985 c.665 §12]

126.840 [1959 c.640 §8; repealed by 1985 c.665 §27]

126.842 Duties of custodian; standard of care. (1) A custodian shall:

(a) Take control of custodial property;

(b) Register or record title to custodial property if appropriate; and

(c) Collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest custodial property.

(2) In dealing with custodial property, a custodian shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other statute restricting investments by fiduciaries. If a custodian has a special skill or expertise or is named custodian on the basis of representations of a special skill or expertise, the custodian shall use that skill or expertise. However, a custodian, in the custodian's discretion and without liability to the minor or the minor's estate, may retain any custodial property received from a transferor.

(3) A custodian may invest in or pay premiums on life insurance or endowment policies on:

(a) The life of the minor only if the minor or the minor's estate is the sole beneficiary; or

(b) The life of another person in whom the minor has an insurable interest only to the extent that the minor, the minor's estate or the custodian in the capacity of custodian, is the irrevocable beneficiary.

(4) A custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from all other property in a manner sufficient to identify it clearly as custodial property of the minor. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest is so identified if the minor's interest is held as a tenant in common and is fixed. Custodial property subject to recordation is so identified if it is recorded, and custodial property subject to registration is so identified if it is either registered, or held in an account designated, in the name of the custodian, followed in substance by the words: "As a custodian for _____ (name of minor) under the Oregon Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(5) A custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to custodial property, including information necessary for the preparation of the minor's tax returns, and shall make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor if the minor has attained 14 years of age. [1985 c.665 §13]

126.845 [1959 c.640 §9; 1973 c.823 §112; 1981 c.443 §7; repealed by 1985 c.665 §27]

126.846 Rights, powers and authority of custodian. (1) A custodian, acting in a custodial capacity, has all the rights, powers and authority over custodial property that unmarried adult owners have over their own property, but a custodian may exercise those rights, powers and authority in that capacity only.

(2) This section does not relieve a custodian from liability for breach of ORS 126.842. [1985 c.665 §14]

126.849 Payments to and expenditures for minor; effect on duty to support minor. (1) A custodian may deliver or pay to the minor or expend for the minor's benefit so much of the custodial property as the custodian considers advisable for the use and benefit of the minor, without court order and without regard to:

(a) The duty or ability of the custodian personally or of any other person to support the minor; or

(b) Any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for that purpose.

126.857 Third persons duties in dealing with custodian. A third person in good faith and without court order may act on the instructions of or otherwise deal with any person purporting to make a transfer or purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian and, in the absence of knowledge, is not responsible for determining:

(1) The validity of the purported custodian's designation;

(2) The propriety of, or the authority under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 for, any act of the purported custodian;

(3) The validity or propriety under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 of any instrument or instructions executed or given either by the person purporting to make a transfer or by the purported custodian; or

(2) A custodian is not personally liable:

(a) On a contract properly entered into in the custodial capacity unless the custodian fails to reveal that capacity and to identify the custodianship in the contract; or

(b) For an obligation arising from control of custodial property or for a tort committed during the custodianship unless the custodian is personally at fault.

126.862 Refusal to serve as custodian; substitute and successor custodians; resignation; removal. (1) A person nominated under ORS 126.812 or designated under ORS 126.832 as custodian may decline to serve by delivering a valid disclaimer to the person who made the nomination or to the transferor or the transferor's legal representative. If the event giving rise to a transfer has not occurred and no substitute custodian able, willing and eligible to serve was nominated under ORS 126.812, the person who made the nomination may nominate a substitute custodian under ORS 126.812; otherwise the transferor or the transferor's legal representative shall designate a substitute custodian at the time of the transfer, in either case from among the persons eligible to serve as custodian for that kind of property under ORS 126.832 (1). The custodian so designated has the rights of a successor custodian.

(2) A custodian at any time may designate a trust company or an adult other than a transferor under ORS 126.816 as successor custodian by executing and dating an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. If the instrument of designation does not contain or is not accompanied by the resignation of the custodian, the designation of the successor does not take effect until the custodian resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated or is removed.

(3) A custodian may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the minor if the minor has attained 14 years of age and to the successor custodian and by delivering the custodial property to the successor custodian.

(4) If a custodian is ineligible, dies or becomes incapacitated without having effectively designated a successor and the minor has attained 14 years of age, the minor may designate as successor custodian, in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, an adult member of the minor's family, a conservator of the minor or a trust company. If the minor has not attained 14 years of age or fails to act within 60 days after the ineligibility, death or incapacity, the conservator of the minor becomes successor custodian. If the minor has no conservator or the conservator declines to act, the transferor, the legal representative of the transferor or of the custodian, an adult member of the minor's family or any other interested person may petition the court to designate a successor custodian.

(5) A custodian who declines to serve under subsection (1) of this section or resigns under subsection (3) of this section, or the legal representative of a deceased or incapacitated custodian, as soon as practicable, shall put the custodial property and records in the possession and control of the successor custodian. The successor custodian by action may enforce the obligation to deliver custodial property and records and becomes responsible for each item as received.

(6) A transferor, the legal representative of a transferor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the person of the minor, the conservator of the minor or the minor if the minor has attained 14 years of age may petition the court to remove the custodian for cause and to designate a successor custodian other than a transferor under ORS 126.816 or to require the custodian to give appropriate bond. [1985 c.665 §19]

126.866 Accounting by custodian; determination of responsibility. (1) A minor who has attained 14 years of age, the minor's guardian of the person or legal representative, an adult member of the minor's family, a transferor or a transferor's legal representative may petition the court:

(a) For an accounting by the custodian or the custodian's legal representative; or

(b) For a determination of responsibility, as between the custodial property and the custodian personally, for claims against the custodial property unless the responsibility has been adjudicated in an action under ORS 126.859 to which the minor or the minor's legal representative was a party.

(2) A successor custodian may petition the court for an accounting by the predecessor custodian.

(3) The court, in a proceeding under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 or in any other proceeding, may require or permit the custodian or the custodian's legal representative to account.

(4) If a custodian is removed under ORS 126.862 (6), the court shall require an accounting and order delivery of the custodial property and records to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for transfer of the custodial property. [1985 c.665 §20]

126.869 Time of transfer of custodial property to minor or minor's estate. The custodian shall transfer in an appropriate manner the custodial property to the minor or to the minor's estate upon the earlier of:

(1) The minor's attainment of 21 years of age with respect to custodial property transferred under ORS 126.816 or 126.819;

(2) The minor's attainment of 18 years of age with respect to custodial property transferred under ORS 126.822 or 126.826; or

[1959 c.640 §17; 1983 c.457 §5; 1985 c.665 §26]

126.877 Applicability of ORS 126.805 to 126.886 to transfers made after January 1, 1986. ORS 126.805 to 126.886 apply to a transfer within the scope of ORS 126.809 made after January 1, 1986, if:

(1) The transfer purports to have been made under the Oregon Uniform Gifts to Minors Act; or

(2) The instrument by which the transfer purports to have been made uses in substance the designation "as custodian under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act" or "as custodian under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act" of any other state, and the application of ORS 126.805 to 126.886 is necessary to validate the transfer. [1985 c.665 §22]

126.879 Validation of transfer made before January 1, 1986. (1) Any transfer of custodial property made before January 1, 1986, is validated notwithstanding that there was no specific authority in ORS 126.805 to 126.886 prior to January 1, 1986, for the coverage of custodial property of that kind or for a transfer from that source at the time the transfer was made.

(2) ORS 126.805 to 126.886 apply to all transfers made before January 1, 1986, in a manner and form prescribed in the Oregon Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, except insofar as the application impairs constitutionally vested rights or extends the duration of custodianships in existence on January 1, 1986.

(3) ORS 126.805 and 126.869 with respect to the age of a minor for whom custodial property is held under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 do not apply to custodial property held in a custodianship that terminated because of the minor's attainment of 18 years of age after October 4, 1973, and before January 1, 1986. [1985 c.665 §23]

126.880 [1959 c.640 §18; 1967 c.300 §10; repealed by 1985 c.665 §27]

126.882 Application and construction of ORS 126.805 to 126.886. ORS 126.805 to 126.886 shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of ORS 126.805 to 126.886 among states enacting it. [1985 c.665 §24]

126.886 Short title. ORS 126.805 to 126.886 may be cited as the "Oregon Uniform Transfers to Minors Act." [1985 c.665 §25]
