(3) If at any time after the appointment of counsel the court having jurisdiction of the case finds that the defendant is financially able to obtain counsel, the court may terminate the appointment of counsel. If at any time during criminal proceedings the court having jurisdiction of the case finds that the defendant is financially unable to pay counsel whom the defendant has retained, the court may appoint counsel as provided in this section.

(4) In addition to any criminal prosecution, a civil proceeding may be initiated by any public body that has expended moneys for the defendant's legal assistance within two years of judgment if the defendant was not qualified for legal assistance in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section. 151.487 Partial ability to pay; effect.

(1) If in determining that a person is eligible for court-appointed counsel after applying the guidelines and standards issued by the State Court Administrator under ORS 151.485, the court finds that the person has financial resources that enable the person to offset in part the costs of the legal services to be provided, the court shall order the person to pay to the General Fund, through the clerk of the court, the amount that it finds the person is able to pay without creating substantial hardship in providing basic economic necessities to the person or the person's dependent family. The amount that a court may order the person to pay shall be subject to the guidelines and procedures issued by the State Court Administrator as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) Failure to obey an order under this section shall not be grounds for contempt or grounds for withdrawal by the appointed attorney, but any part of the amount ordered under this section and not paid may be included in any costs that may be legally assessed at the conclusion of a case or matter:

(a) As against a defendant under and in accordance with the procedures in ORS 161.665;

(b) As against a juvenile under ORS 419.582; or

(4) The State Court Administrator shall promulgate and issue guidelines and procedures that have been approved by the Supreme Court:

(a) For the determination of persons provided with court-appointed counsel who have some financial resources to offset in part the costs of the legal services to be provided; and

(b) Regarding the amounts persons may be required to contribute by a court under subsection (1) of this section.

(5) The determination that a person is partially able to pay, or that a person no longer has the ability to pay the amount ordered in subsection (1) of this section, shall be subject to review at any time by any court before which the matter is then pending. [1989 c.1053 §14]

For the purpose of aiding courts in implementing indigency eligibility determinations under ORS 151.485 and 151.487, the State Court Administrator may locate indigency verification and screening positions in the state trial and appellate courts and may prescribe the policies and procedures for their use. [1989 c.1053 §15]

(1) The State Court Administrator or authorized designee who conducts the verification of the financial statement submitted by a person seeking or having appointed counsel payable at state expense under ORS 151.450 shall have the authority to require the person to execute and deliver any written requests or authorizations as may be necessary under applicable law to provide the State Court Administrator or authorized designee with access to records of public or private source, otherwise confidential, as may be needed to evaluate eligibility.

(2) In performing the verification duties under subsection (1) of this section, the State Court Administrator or authorized designee is authorized to obtain information from any public record office of the state or of any subdivision or agency of the state upon request and without payment of any fees ordinarily required by law. [1989 c.1053 §16]

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any state agency as defined in ORS 192.410 that receives a request for release of information from the State Court Administrator for the purpose of verifying the indigency of a person under ORS 151.430 to 151.495 shall release all requested information to the State Court Administrator. The administrator shall forward to the state agency a certification signed by the person about whom the requested information is sought that authorizes the release of the information.

(2) Upon motion of the State Court Administrator, a court that has appointed counsel for a person by reason of indigency may order the release of any information relating to the person's financial situation held by any other person. [1991 c.825 §4]

151.495 Confidentiality of information obtained by State Court Administrator; exceptions. (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, information supplied by a person seeking court-appointed counsel and information collected by the State Court Administrator for purposes of verifying indigency may be:
