ORGANIZATION AND JURISDICTION

51.010 Justice's court defined; no terms of court; court always open for business. A justice's court is a court held by a justice of the peace within the justice of the peace district for which the justice of the peace may be chosen. There are no particular terms of such court, but the same is always open for the transaction of business, according to the mode of proceeding prescribed for it.

51.020 Justice of the peace districts; establishing and modifying boundaries; maximum number of districts. The county court or board of county commissioners of every county may set off and establish, or modify the boundaries of, justice of the peace districts within the county. In every county having a district court no more than five justice of the peace districts shall be set off or established or permitted to remain in existence, and then only outside the county seat and outside any other city in which a district court judge regularly holds court. In every county not having a district court no more than six justice of the peace districts shall be set off or established or permitted to remain in existence. [Amended by 1965 c.568 §5]

51.030 Justice districts abolished in certain county seats. Except as provided in ORS 46.026 (4), each justice district in the county seat in each county having a district court organized under ORS 46.025 is abolished; and all records, registers, dockets, books, papers, pleadings, causes, actions and proceedings lodged, filed, deposited or pending before justice courts in all such county seats are transferred to the district court for the county. Such district court shall have the same power and jurisdiction over them as if they had been in the first instance lodged, deposited, filed or commenced therein. [Amended by 1963 c.614 §3]

51.035 Justice of peace as municipal judge. Except as provided in ORS 46.045, any city situated wholly or in largest part within the boundaries of a justice of the peace district may enter into an agreement pursuant to ORS 190.010 with the county in which the justice of the peace district is located providing that the justice's court for the district shall have all judicial jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties of the municipal court of the city and the judges thereof with respect to all or any violations of the charter or ordinances of the city. [1975 c.713 §1]

51.037 Agreement between city and county for provision of judicial services. Any city may enter into an agreement pursuant to ORS 190.010 with the county in which a justice of the peace district is located for the provision of judicial services.

A justice of the peace providing services to a city pursuant to such an agreement shall have all judicial jurisdiction, authority, powers, functions and duties of the municipal court of the city and the judges thereof with respect to all and any violations of the charter or ordinances of the city. Unless the agreement provides otherwise, and subject to the provisions of ORS 153.630, all fines, costs and forfeited bail collected shall be paid to the prosecuting city, and the city shall reimburse the county providing judicial services for expenses incurred under the agreement. The exercise of jurisdiction under such an agreement by a justice of the peace shall not constitute the holding of more than one office. [1989 c.679 §2]

51.040 Criminal jurisdiction over specified crimes. A justice's court has jurisdiction of the following crimes committed or triable in their respective counties:

(1) Theft, where the punishment may be imprisonment in the county jail or by fine.

51.050 Jurisdiction over misdemeanors; defendant's right to transfer after pleading "not guilty." (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, in addition to the criminal jurisdiction of justices' courts already conferred upon and exercised by them, justices' courts have jurisdiction of all misdemeanors committed or triable in their respective counties.

(2) Any defendant charged with a misdemeanor in a justice court after entering a plea of not guilty, shall be immediately notified of the right of the defendant to have the matter transferred to the district court for the county where the justice court is located, or if there is no district court in the county, then to the circuit court for the county where the justice court is located. The election shall be made within 10 days after the plea of not guilty is entered and the justice shall immediately transfer the case to the appropriate court. [Amended by 1963 c.513 §3; 1969 c.180 §1; 1971 c.743 §313; 1973 c.625 §1]

51.060 Concurrent criminal jurisdiction with circuit courts. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the circuit court in addition to the cases already provided by law in all criminal prosecutions arising under ORS 279.312 to 279.318, 279.338, 279.538, 279.990 (1), 652.990 (1) and (2) and 659.990 (2), (3) and (4).
