REPORTING OF CHILD ABUSE

419B.005 Definitions for ORS 419B.005 to 419B.045. As used in ORS 418.747, 418.748, 418.749 and 419B.005 to 419B.045, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Abuse" means:

(a) Any assault, as defined in ORS chapter 163, of a child and any physical injury to a child which has been caused by other than accidental means, including any injury which appears to be at variance with the explanation given of the injury.

(b) Any mental injury to a child, which shall include only observable and substantial impairment of the child's mental or psychological ability to function caused by cruelty to the child, with due regard to the culture of the child.

(c) Rape of a child, which includes but is not limited to rape, sodomy, unlawful sexual penetration and incest, as those acts are defined in ORS chapter 163.

(d) Sexual abuse, as defined in ORS chapter 163.

(e) Sexual exploitation, including but not limited to:

(A) Contributing to the sexual delinquency of a minor, as defined in ORS chapter 163, and any other conduct which allows, employs, authorizes, permits, induces or encourages a child to engage in the performing for people to observe or the photographing, filming, tape recording or other exhibition which, in whole or in part, depicts sexual conduct or contact, as defined in ORS 167.002 or described in ORS 163.665 and 163.670, sexual abuse involving a child or rape of a child, but not including any conduct which is part of any investigation conducted pursuant to ORS 419B.020 or which is designed to serve educational or other legitimate purposes; and

(B) Allowing, permitting, encouraging or hiring a child to engage in prostitution, as defined in ORS chapter 167.

(f) Negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child, including but not limited to the failure to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter or medical care. However, any child who is under care or treatment solely by spiritual means pursuant to the religious beliefs or practices of the child or the child's parent or guardian shall not, for this reason alone, be considered a neglected or maltreated child under this section.

(g) Threatened harm to a child, which means subjecting a child to a substantial risk of harm to the child's health or welfare.

(2) "Child" means an unmarried person who is under 18 years of age.

(3) "Public or private official" means:

(a) Physician, including any intern or resident.

(b) Dentist.

(c) School employee.

(d) Licensed practical nurse or registered nurse.

(e) Employee of the Department of Human Resources, a county health department, a community mental health and developmental disabilities program, a county juvenile department, a licensed child-caring agency or an alcohol and drug treatment program.

(f) Peace officer.

(g) Psychologist.

(h) Clergyman.

(i) Licensed clinical social worker.

(j) Optometrist.

(k) Chiropractor.

(L) Certified provider of day care or foster care, or an employee thereof.

(m) Attorney.

(n) Naturopathic physician.

(o) Licensed professional counselor.

(p) Licensed marriage and family therapist.

(q) Firefighter or emergency medical technician.

(4) "Law enforcement agency" means:

(a) Any city or municipal police department.

(b) Any county sheriff's office.

(c) The Oregon State Police.

(d) A county juvenile department. [1993 c.546 §12; 1993 c.622 §1a]

419B.007 Policy. The Legislative Assembly finds that for the purpose of facilitating the use of protective social services to prevent further abuse, safeguard and enhance the welfare of abused children, and preserve family life when consistent with the protection of the child by stabilizing the family and improving parental capacity, it is necessary and in the public interest to require mandatory reports and investigations of abuse of children and to encourage voluntary reports. [1993 c.546 §13]

419B.010 Duty of officials to report child abuse; exceptions; penalty. (1) Any public or private official having reasonable cause to believe that any child with whom the official comes in contact has suffered abuse or that any person with whom the official comes in contact has abused a child shall immediately report or cause a report to be made in the manner required in ORS 419B.015. Nothing contained in ORS 40.225 to 40.295 shall affect the duty to report imposed by this section, except that a psychiatrist, psychologist, clergyman or attorney shall not be required to report such information communicated by a person if the communication is privileged under ORS 40.225 to 40.295.

(2) A person who violates subsection (1) of this section commits a violation punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000. Prosecution under this subsection shall be commenced at any time within 18 months after commission of the offense. [1993 c.546 §14]

419B.015 Report form and content; notice to law enforcement agencies and local Children's Services Division office.

A person making a report of child abuse, whether voluntarily or pursuant to ORS 419B.010, shall make an oral report by telephone or otherwise to the local office of the Children's Services Division, to the division's designee or to a law enforcement agency within the county where the person making the report is located at the time of the contact. Such reports shall contain, if known, the names and addresses of the child and the parents of the child or other persons responsible for care of the child, the child's age, the nature and extent of the abuse, including any evidence of previous abuse, the explanation given for the abuse and any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the abuse and the identity of the perpetrator. When a report is received by the Children's Services Division, the division shall immediately notify a law enforcement agency within the county where the report was made. When a report is received by a designee of the Children's Services Division, the designee shall notify, according to the contract, either the Children's Services Division or a law enforcement agency within the county where the report was made. When a report is received by a law enforcement agency, the agency shall immediately notify the local Children's Services Division within the county where the report was made. [1993 c.546 §15; 1993 c.734 §1a]

419B.020 Duty of division or law enforcement agency receiving report; investigation; notice to parents; physical examination; child's consent. (1) Upon receipt of an oral report of child abuse, the Children's Services Division or the law enforcement agency shall immediately cause an investigation to be made to determine the nature and cause of the abuse of the child.

(2) If the law enforcement agency conducting the investigation finds reasonable cause to believe that abuse has occurred, the law enforcement agency shall notify by oral report followed by written report the local office of the Children's Services Division. The Children's Services Division shall provide protective social services of its own or of other available social agencies if necessary to prevent further abuses to the child or to safeguard the child's welfare.

(3) If a child is taken into protective custody by the Children's Services Division, the division shall promptly make reasonable efforts to ascertain the name and address of the child's parents or guardian.

(4)(a) If a child is taken into protective custody by the division or a law enforcement official, the division or law enforcement official shall, if possible, make reasonable efforts to advise the parents or guardian immediately, regardless of the time of day, that the child has been taken into custody, the reasons why the child has been taken into custody and general information about the child's placement, and the telephone number of the division office and any after-hours telephone numbers.

(b) Notice may be given by any means reasonably certain of notifying the parents or guardian, including but not limited to written, telephonic or in-person oral notification. If the initial notification is not in writing, the information required by paragraph (a) of this subsection also shall be provided to the parents or guardian in writing as soon as possible.

(c) The division also shall make a reasonable effort to notify the noncustodial parent of the information required by paragraph (a) of this subsection in a timely manner.

(d) If a child is taken into custody while under the care and supervision of a person or organization other than the parent, the division, if possible, shall immediately notify the person or organization that the child has been taken into protective custody.

(5) If a law enforcement officer or the Children's Services Division, when taking a child into protective custody, has reasonable cause to believe that the child has been affected by sexual abuse and rape of a child as defined in ORS 419B.005 (1)(c) and that physical evidence of the abuse exists and is likely to disappear, the court may authorize a physical examination for the purposes of preserving evidence if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child to have such an examination. Nothing in this section affects the authority of the Children's Services Division to consent to physical examinations at other times.

(6) A minor child of 12 years of age or older may refuse to consent to the examination described in subsection (5) of this section. The examination shall be conducted by or under the supervision of a physician licensed under ORS chapter 677 or a nurse practitioner licensed under ORS chapter 678 and, whenever practicable, trained in conducting such examinations. [1993 c.546 §16; 1993 c.622 §7a]

419B.025 Immunity of person making report in good faith. Anyone participating in good faith in the making of a report of child abuse and who has reasonable grounds for the making thereof shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed with respect to the making or content of such report. Any such participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participating in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report. [1993 c.546 §17]

419B.028 Photographing child during investigation; photographs as records. (1) In carrying out its duties under ORS 419B.020, any law enforcement agency or the Children's Services Division may photograph or cause to have photographed any child subject of the investigation for purposes of preserving evidence of the child's condition at the time of the investigation.

(2) For purposes of ORS 419B.035, photographs taken under authority of subsection (1) of this section shall be considered records. [1993 c.546 §18]

419B.030 Central registry of reports. (1) A central state registry shall be established and maintained by the Children's Services Division. The local offices of the Children's Services Division shall report to the state registry in writing when an investigation has shown reasonable cause to believe that a child's condition was the result of abuse even if the cause remains unknown. Each registry shall contain current information from reports catalogued both as to the name of the child and the name of the family.

(2) When the division provides specific case information from the central state registry, the division shall include a notice that the information does not necessarily reflect any subsequent proceedings that are not within the jurisdiction of the division. [1993 c.546 §19]

419B.035 Confidentiality of records; when available to others. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 192.001 to 192.170, 192.210 to 192.505 and 192.610 to 192.990 relating to confidentiality and accessibility for public inspection of public records and public documents, reports and records compiled under the provisions of ORS 419B.010 to 419B.030 are confidential and are not accessible for public inspection. However, the Children's Services Division shall make records available to:

(a) Any law enforcement agency or a child abuse registry in any other state for the purpose of subsequent investigation of child abuse;

(b) Any physician, at the request of the physician, regarding any child brought to the physician or coming before the physician for examination, care or treatment;

(c) Attorneys of record for the child or child's parent or guardian in any juvenile court proceeding;

(d) Citizen review boards established by the Judicial Department for the purpose of periodically reviewing the status of children under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under ORS 419B.100 and 419C.005. Citizen review boards may make such records available to participants in case reviews;

(e) A court appointed special advocate in any juvenile court proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to child abuse or neglect; and

(f) The Child Care Division for certifying, registering or otherwise regulating day care facilities.

(2) The division may make reports and records available to any person, administrative hearings officer, court, agency, organization or other entity when the division determines that such disclosure is necessary to administer its child welfare services and is in the best interests of the affected child, or that such disclosure is necessary to investigate, prevent or treat child abuse and neglect, to protect children from abuse and neglect or for research when the assistant director gives prior written approval. The division shall adopt rules setting forth the procedures by which it will make the disclosures authorized under this subsection and subsection (1) of this section. The names, addresses or other identifying information about the person who made the report shall not be disclosed pursuant to this subsection and subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Any record made available to a law enforcement agency in this state or to a physician in this state, as authorized by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, shall be kept confidential by the agency or physician. Any record or report disclosed by the division to other persons or entities pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be kept confidential.

(4) No officer or employee of the Children's Services Division or any person or entity to whom disclosure is made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall release any information not authorized by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(5) A person who violates subsection (3) or (4) of this section commits a violation punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000. [1993 c.546 §20,20a]

419B.040 Certain privileges not grounds for excluding evidence in court proceedings on child abuse. (1) In the case of abuse of a child, the privileges created in ORS 40.230 to 40.255, including the psychotherapist-patient privilege, the physician-patient privilege, the privileges extended to nurses, to staff members of schools and to registered clinical social workers and the husband-wife privilege, shall not be a ground for excluding evidence regarding a child's abuse, or the cause thereof, in any judicial proceeding resulting from a report made pursuant to ORS 419B.010 to 419B.030.

(2) In any judicial proceedings resulting from a report made pursuant to ORS 419B.010 to 419B.030, either spouse shall be a competent and compellable witness against the other. [1993 c.546 §21]

419B.045 Investigation conducted on public school premises; notification; role of school personnel. If an investigation of a report of child abuse is conducted on public school premises, the school administrator shall first be notified that the investigation is to take place, unless the school administrator is a subject of the investigation. The school administrator or a school staff member designated by the administrator may, at the investigator's discretion, be present to facilitate the investigation. The Children's Services Division or the law enforcement agency making the investigation shall be advised of the child's handicapping conditions, if any, prior to any interview with the affected child. A school administrator or staff member is not authorized to reveal anything that transpires during an investigation in which the administrator or staff member participates nor shall the information become part of the child's school records. The school administrator or staff member may testify at any subsequent trial resulting from the investigation and may be interviewed by the respective litigants prior to any such trial. [1993 c.546 §22]

JUVENILE COURT (Generally)

419B.100 Jurisdiction; bases; Indian children. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section and ORS 107.726, the juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in any case involving a person who is under 18 years of age and:

(a) Who is beyond the control of the person's parents, guardian or other person having custody of the person;

(b) Whose behavior is such as to endanger the welfare of the person or of others;

(c) Whose condition or circumstances are such as to endanger the welfare of the person or of others;

(d) Who is dependent for care and support on a public or private child-caring agency that needs the services of the court in planning for the best interest of the person;

(e) Whose parents or any other person or persons having custody of the person have:

(A) Abandoned the person;

(B) Failed to provide the person with the care or education required by law;

(C) Subjected the person to cruelty, depravity or unexplained physical injury; or

(D) Failed to provide the person with the care, guidance and protection necessary for the physical, mental or emotional well-being of the person;

(f) Who has run away from the home of the person; or

(g) Who has filed a petition for emancipation pursuant to ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558.

(2) The court shall have jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section even though the child is receiving adequate care from the person having physical custody of the child.

(3) The practice of a parent who chooses for the parent or the child of the parent treatment by prayer or spiritual means alone shall not be construed as a failure to provide physical care within the meaning of this chapter, but shall not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from exercising that jurisdiction under subsection (1)(c) of this section.

(4) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not prevent a court of competent jurisdiction from entertaining a civil action or suit involving a child.

(5) The court shall have no further jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section after a minor has been emancipated pursuant to ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558.

(6)(a) An Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over any child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe, except where the jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the state by existing federal law.

(b) Upon the petition of either parent, the Indian custodian or the Indian child's tribe, the juvenile court, absent good cause to the contrary and absent objection by either parent, shall transfer a proceeding for the foster care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, an Indian child not domiciled or residing within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe, to the jurisdiction of the tribe.

(c) The juvenile court shall give full faith and credit to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of an Indian tribe applicable to an Indian child custody proceeding to the same extent that the juvenile court gives full faith and credit to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of any other entity. [1993 c.33 §53; 1993 c.546 §10; 1993 c.643 §5]

419B.110 Emergency medical care; court may authorize. Whether or not a petition has been filed, if a child requires emergency medical care, including surgery, and no parent is available or willing to consent to the care, a judge of the juvenile court may authorize the care. The judge may thereafter direct the filing of a new petition. [1993 c.546 §24]

419B.115 Parties to proceedings; rights of limited participation. (1) Parties to proceedings in the juvenile court under ORS 419B.100 and 419B.500, are:

- (a) The minor child;
- (b) The legal parents or guardian;
- (c) The state;
- (d) The juvenile department;
- (e) A court appointed special advocate, if appointed;
- (f) The Children's Services Division or other child-caring agency if the agency has temporary custody of the child; and
- (g) An intervenor under ORS 109.119 (1) to (4).

(2) The rights of the parties include, but are not limited to:

- (a) The right to notice of the proceeding and copies of the pleadings;
- (b) The right to appear with counsel and to have counsel appointed as otherwise provided by law;
- (c) The right to call witnesses, cross-examine witnesses and participate in hearings;
- (d) The right of appeal; and
- (e) The right to request a hearing.

(3)(a) Persons who are not parties under subsection (1) of this section may petition the court for rights of limited participation. The petition must be filed and served on all parties no later than two weeks before a proceeding in the case in which participation is sought. The petition must state:

- (A) The reason the participation is sought;

(B) How the person's involvement is in the best interest of the child or the administration of justice;

(C) Why the parties cannot adequately present the case; and

(D) What specific relief is being sought.

(b) If the court finds that the petition is well founded, the court may grant rights of limited participation as specified by the court.

(c) Persons petitioning for rights of limited participation are not entitled to court-appointed counsel. [1993 c.546 §25]

419B.118 Venue. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, a juvenile court proceeding shall commence in the county of wardship if, at the commencement of the proceeding, wardship exists as a result of proceedings under this chapter, or, in the absence of such wardship, in the county where the child resides.

(2) If the proceeding is based on allegations of jurisdiction under ORS 419B.100 (1)(a), (b) or (c), the proceeding may also commence in the county in which the alleged act or behavior took place.

(3) If the proceeding is based on allegations of jurisdiction under ORS 419B.100 (1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f), the proceedings may also commence in the county where the child is present when the proceeding begins.

(4) A termination of parent-child relationship proceeding may be commenced in the county where the child has been held previously to be within the jurisdiction of the court or where the child resides or is found unless the child is an Indian child subject to the Indian Child Welfare Act and the tribal court has assumed jurisdiction. [1993 c.33 §54; 1993 c.546 §26]

419B.121 Return of runaway children to another state. Notwithstanding ORS 419C.145, the court may order the detention of a child who resides in another state if the court finds probable cause to believe that the child has run away from home or from a placement. If a child is ordered detained under this section, the court shall make such orders as are necessary to cause the child to be immediately returned to the child's state of residence. [1993 c.33 §55]

419B.124 Transfer to juvenile court from another court. If during the pendency of a proceeding in any court other than a juvenile court it is ascertained that the age of the person who is the subject of the proceeding is such that the matter is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the juvenile court, it is the duty of the court in which the proceeding is pending forthwith to transfer the proceeding, together with all the papers, documents and testimony connected therewith, to the juvenile court of the county in which the proceeding is pending. [1993 c.33 §56]

419B.127 Transfer to court of county of child's residence. If a proceeding is initiated in a court of a county other than the county in which the child resides, that court, on its own motion or on the motion of a party made at any time prior to disposition, shall transfer the proceeding to the court of the county of the child's residence for such further proceeding as the receiving court finds proper. A like transfer may be made if the residence of the child changes during the proceeding, or if the child has been adjudicated within the jurisdiction of the court where the proceeding is initiated on grounds specified in ORS 419B.100 (1)(b) or (c) and other proceedings involving the child are pending in the county of the child's residence. Certified copies of the court records pertaining to the immediate proceeding shall accompany the case on transfer. [1993 c.33 §57]

419B.130 Delegation of jurisdiction by county of residence. Where a juvenile court proceeding is pending in a county other than the county in which the child resides and the case is transferable under ORS 419B.124 or 419B.127, the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides may authorize the court in which the case is pending to proceed with the case in either of the following ways where it will facilitate disposition of the case without adverse effect on the interests of the child:

(1) To hear, determine and dispose of the case in its entirety; or

(2) Prior to transferring the case, to conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides. [1993 c.33 §58]

419B.132 Delegation of jurisdiction among county juvenile courts. (1) Where a proceeding is pending in the juvenile court of any county, the juvenile court of that county may authorize the juvenile court of any other county to do one or both of the following, where it will facilitate the disposition of the case without adverse effect on the interests of the child:

(a) To conduct a hearing into the facts alleged to bring the child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to determine the facts and to certify its findings to the court in which the case is pending.

(b) To assume jurisdiction over the case and administer protection supervision of the child, where the court in which the proceeding is pending:

(A) Finds that the child has moved to the other county or orders as part of its disposition of the proceeding that legal custody of the child be given to a person residing in the other county; and

(B) Is advised that the court of the other county will accept jurisdiction of the case. The cost of administering probation or protective supervision of the child shall be paid by the county accepting jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree. The cost of transporting the child shall be paid by the county transferring jurisdiction, unless the transferring and receiving counties otherwise agree.

(2) Where the juvenile court of one county is authorized by the juvenile court of another county to conduct a hearing into facts as provided in this section or ORS 419B.130, the facts so found and certified may be taken as established by the court of the county authorizing the hearing and, if adopted by written order of the latter court, form a part of its record in the case. [1993 c.33 §59]

419B.135 Transfer of case; transportation of child. If the child who is the subject of the proceeding is, at the time of a transfer or temporary transfer provided for in ORS 419B.127, 419B.130 and 419B.132, in detention or shelter care or for other reason needs transportation to the other county, the county in which the child resides shall make such order or provision for the transportation and safekeeping of the child as is appropriate in the circumstances, including an order directing any peace officer of the county in which the child resides to transfer the child in the manner directed. [1993 c.33 §60]

(Protective Custody)

419B.150 When protective custody authorized. A child may be taken into protective custody by a peace officer, counselor, employee of the Children's Services Division or any other person authorized by the juvenile court of the county in which the child is found, in the following circumstances:

(1) Where the child's condition or surroundings reasonably appear to be such as to jeopardize the child's welfare; or

(2) Where the juvenile court, by order indorsed on the summons as provided in ORS 419B.271 or otherwise, has ordered that the child be taken into protective custody. [1993 c.33 §61; 1993 c.546 §27]

419B.155 Protective custody not arrest. (1) Protective custody shall not be deemed an arrest so far as the child is concerned.

(2) A peace officer taking a child into protective custody has all the privileges and immunities of a peace officer making an arrest. [1993 c.33 §62; 1993 c.546 §28]

419B.157 Jurisdiction attaches at time of custody. Except as otherwise provided in ORS 419B.168, 419C.094 and 419C.103, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of the county in which a child is taken into protective custody shall attach from the time the child is taken into custody. [1993 c.33 §63; 1993 c.546 §29]

419B.160 Place of detention; record; parental notice required. (1) No child shall be detained at any time in a police station, jail, prison or other place where adults are detained, except that a child may be detained in a police station for up to five hours when necessary to obtain the child's name, age, residence and other identifying information.

(2) All peace officers shall keep a record of children taken into protective custody and shall promptly notify the juvenile court or counselor of all children taken into protective custody.

(3) As soon as practicable after the child is taken into custody, the person taking the child into custody shall notify the child's parent, guardian or other person responsible for the child. The notice shall inform the parent, guardian or other person of the action taken and the time and place of the hearing. [1993 c.33 §64; 1993 c.320 §1; 1993 c.546 §30]

419B.165 Release of child taken into custody. The person taking the child into custody shall release the child to the custody of the child's parent or other responsible person in this state, except in the following cases:

(1) Where the court has issued an order directing that the child be taken into protective custody.

(2) Where the person taking the child into custody has probable cause to believe that the welfare of the child or others may be immediately endangered by the release of the child. [1993 c.33 §65; 1993 c.546 §31]

419B.168 Procedure when child is not released. (1) If a child taken into protective custody is not released as provided in ORS 419B.165 and the juvenile court for the county has not established the alternative procedure authorized in subsection (4) of this section, the person taking the child into custody shall, without unnecessary delay, do one of the following:

(a) Take the child before the court or a person appointed by the court to effect disposition under ORS 419B.165.

(b) Take the child to a place of detention or shelter care or a public or private agency designated by the court and as soon as possible thereafter notify the court that the child has been taken into custody.

(2) Where a child residing in some other county is taken into protective custody the child may be:

(a) Released to the child's parent or other responsible person in this state as provided in ORS 419B.165.

(b) Delivered to a peace officer or juvenile counselor in the county in which the child resides, if such delivery can be made without unnecessary delay. In such event, the person to whom the child is delivered shall assume protective custody of the child and shall proceed as provided in this chapter.

(3) Where a child is released or delivered as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of the county in which the child resides shall attach from the time the child is taken into custody.

(4) The juvenile court may establish, as an alternative to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, that if a child taken into protective custody is not released as provided in ORS 419B.165, procedures shall be followed that comply with the following:

(a) The person taking the child into custody may communicate, by telecommunications or otherwise, with the person appointed by the court to effect disposition under ORS 419B.175.

(b) After interviewing the person taking the child into custody and obtaining such other information as is considered necessary, the person appointed by the court under ORS 419B.175 to effect disposition may exercise the authority granted under that section and shall, in such case, direct that the person taking the child into custody release the child or deliver the child in accordance with such direction.

(c) The person taking the child into custody shall comply with the direction of the person appointed by the court to effect disposition. [1993 c.33 §66; 1993 c.546 §32]

419B.171 Report required when child is taken into custody. Except where the child is taken into custody pursuant to an order of the court, the person taking the child into custody shall promptly file with the court or a counselor a brief written report stating all of the following:

- (1) The child's name, age and address.
- (2) The name and address of the person having legal or physical custody of the child.
- (3) Efforts to notify the person having legal or physical custody of the child and the results of those efforts.

(4) Reasons for and circumstances under which the child was taken into protective custody.

(5) If the child is not taken to court, the placement of the child.

(6) If the child was not released, the reason why the child was not released.

(7) If the child is not taken to court, why the type of placement was chosen.

(8) Efforts to determine whether the child or the parents have any Indian heritage and the results of those efforts. If the child is an Indian child, the placement of the child shall be according to the preferences and criteria set out in the Indian Child Welfare Act. [1993 c.33 §67; 1993 c.546 §33]

419B.175 Initial disposition of child taken into custody. (1) This subsection establishes the authority and procedures that apply to a person designated by a court to effect disposition of a child taken into protective custody or brought before the court under ORS 419B.160, 419B.165, 419B.168 or 419B.171. The person shall, when the person has taken custody of a child or has authority to effect disposition of a child taken into custody:

(a) Release the child to the custody of a parent, guardian or other responsible person;

(b) Release the child on the child's own recognizance when appropriate;

(c) Subject to ORS 419B.121 or 419B.180, place the child in shelter care or detention. The child shall be placed in shelter care rather than detention, unless the person has probable cause to believe that the court will be able to detain the child under ORS 419B.121; or

(d) Pursuant to order of the court made after the filing of a petition, hold, retain or place the child in shelter care subject to further order.

(2) If the child is released under subsection (1)(a) of this section, the person releasing the child shall inform the juvenile court. [1993 c.33 §69; 1993 c.546 §35]

(Shelter Hearings)

419B.180 Shelter and detention facilities. The juvenile court of each county shall designate the place or places in which children are to be placed in detention or shelter care when taken into protective custody. If the county is adjacent to another state, the court may designate a place or places in the adjoining state where children, pursuant to an agreement between such place or places and the juvenile department of the county, may be placed in detention when taken into custody. A county juvenile department shall not enter into an agreement with an out-of-state place for detention of juveniles, as provided in this section, unless the place or places conform to standards of this state for such a place and unless the agreement includes a provision that the place be subject to inspection by officers of this state under ORS 419A.061. [1993 c.33 §68; 1993 c.546 §34]

419B.183 Speedy hearing required. No child shall be held in detention or shelter care more than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and judicial holidays, except on order of the court made pursuant to a hearing. [1993 c.33 §70]

419B.185 Evidentiary hearing. When the child is taken, or is about to be taken, into protective custody pursuant to ORS 419B.160, 419B.165, 419B.168 and 419B.171 and placed in detention or shelter care, a parent or child shall be given the opportunity to present evidence to the court at the hearings specified in ORS 419B.183, and at any subsequent review hearing, that the child can be returned home without further danger of suffering physical injury or emotional harm, endangering or harming others, or not remaining within the reach of the court process prior to adjudication. At the hearing:

(1) The court shall make a written finding as to whether the division has made reasonable efforts, considering the circumstances of the child and parent, to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home or to reunify the family;

(2) In determining whether a child shall be removed or continued out of home, the court shall consider whether the provision of reasonable and available services can prevent or eliminate the need to separate the family;

(3) The court shall make a written finding in every order of removal that it is in the best interest and for the welfare of the child that the child be removed from the home or continued in care; and

(4) The court shall determine whether the child is an Indian child as defined in ORS 419A.004 or in the applicable State-Tribal Indian Child Welfare Agreement. [1993 c.33 §71; 1993 c.295 §5; 1993 c.546 §123]

419B.190 Restraining order when child abuse alleged. (1)(a) When, pursuant to a petition alleging that the child has been physically or sexually abused, a child is taken into temporary custody and placed in shelter care or placement in such custody and care is imminent, the court, at the hearing required under ORS 419B.185, may enter an order restraining the alleged perpetrator of the abuse from having contact with the child and requiring the alleged perpetrator to move from the household in which the child resides if the court finds that:

(A) There is probable cause to believe the abuse occurred and that the person to be restrained committed the abuse; and

(B) The order is in the best interest of the child.

(b) Upon finding that to do so would aid in protecting the victim of the alleged abuse, the court may enter a restraining order described in paragraph (a) of this subsection or other appropriate orders including, but not limited to, orders that control contact between the alleged abuser and other children in the household.

(c) The court shall include in an order entered under this subsection the following information about the person to be restrained:

- (A) Name;
- (B) Address;
- (C) Age and birth date;
- (D) Race;
- (E) Sex;
- (F) Height and weight; and
- (G) Color of hair and eyes.

(2) If the court enters an order under this section:

(a) The clerk of the court shall provide without charge the number of certified true copies of the petition and order necessary to effect service and shall have a true copy of the petition and order delivered to the sheriff for service upon the person to be restrained; and

(b) The sheriff shall serve the person to be restrained personally unless that person is present at the hearing.

(3) Within 30 days after an order is served under this section, the restrained person may request and receive a court hearing on any portion of the order.

(4) If the restrained person requests a hearing, the court shall hold the hearing within 21 days after the request and may cancel or modify the order.

(5) Upon receipt of proof of service, when required, and a true copy of the order, the sheriff shall immediately enter the order into the Law Enforcement Data System. [1993 c.295 §2]

(Court-appointed Counsel)

419B.195 When counsel to be appointed for child. (1) If the child, the parent or guardian requests counsel for the child but is without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel possessing skills and experience commensurate with the nature of the petition and the complexity of the case, the court may appoint suitable counsel to represent the child. Whenever requested to do so, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the child in every case filed pursuant to ORS 419B.100.

(2) Upon presentation of the order of appointment under this section by the attorney for the child, any agency, hospital, school organization, division or department of the state, doctor, nurse or other health care provider, psychologist, psychiatrist, police department or mental health clinic shall permit the attorney to inspect and copy any records of the child or children involved in the case, without the consent of the child or children or parents. This subsection does not apply to records of a police agency relating to an on-going investigation prior to charging. [1993 c.33 §72; 1993 c.234 §1; 1993 c.546 §38]

419B.198 Responsibility for payment of compensation to court-appointed counsel for child. Where the court appoints counsel to represent the child, it may require the parent, if able, or guardian of the estate, if the estate is able, to pay compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation. The test of the parent's or estate's ability to pay such compensation and expenses shall be the same test as applied to appointment of counsel for defendants under ORS 135.050. The court's order of payment shall be enforceable in the same manner as an order of support under ORS 419B.408. [1993 c.33 §73]

419B.201 Compensation for court-appointed counsel for child under ORS 135.055. Where the court appoints counsel for the child and the child, parent or guardian is without sufficient financial means to employ counsel, the compensation for counsel and reasonable expenses of investigation, preparation and presentation paid or incurred shall be allowed and paid as provided in ORS 135.055. [1993 c.33 §74]

419B.205 When counsel to be appointed for parent or legal guardian. Counsel shall be appointed for the parent or legal guardian whenever the nature of the proceedings and due process so require, and when the parent or legal guardian has been determined by the court eligible to receive court-appointed counsel under the standard in ORS 135.050. In deciding whether to appoint counsel under this section, the court shall consider the following factors:

(1) The duration and degree of invasiveness of the interference with the parent-child relationship that possibly could result from the proceeding;

(2) The complexity of the issues and evidence;

(3) The nature of allegations and evidence contested by the parent or legal guardian; and

(4) The effect the facts found or the disposition in the proceeding may have on later proceedings or events, including but not limited to termination of parental rights or criminal proceedings. [1993 c.33 §75]

419B.208 Other law applicable to appointment of counsel. Appointment of counsel for the child or parent is subject to ORS 135.055, 151.430 to 151.480 and applicable contracts entered into by the State Court Administrator under ORS 151.460. [1993 c.33 §76]

(Educational Surrogate)

419B.220 Preliminary evaluation; appointment of surrogate. (1) As a part of the investigation, before making a child a ward of the court, a preliminary evaluation shall also be conducted to determine if the child may be eligible for special education as provided in ORS chapter 343. This preliminary evaluation of disabling conditions shall not constitute a final determination of the child's eligibility for special education but shall be used as the basis for appointing a surrogate to protect the child's due process rights pursuant to ORS chapter 343.

(2) The court shall appoint a surrogate for a child when that child is made a ward of the court if the court finds that the child may be eligible for special education programs because of a disabling condition as provided in ORS chapter 343. This finding of probable eligibility shall be based on the preliminary evaluation conducted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. [1993 c.33 §77]

419B.223 Duties and tenure of surrogate. A person that is appointed surrogate for a dependent child has the duty and authority to protect the due process rights of the child with respect to the provision of free appropriate public education. A surrogate appointed by the court shall immediately apply to the attending school district for an evaluation of the child's eligibility for special education and shall participate in the development of the child's educational plan as provided in ORS chapter 343. The duties and responsibilities of the surrogate shall continue until whichever of the following occurs first:

- (1) The child is 21 years of age;
- (2) The child is determined to be no longer eligible for special education; or
- (3) The juvenile court terminates wardship of the child and determines that the child's parent or guardian is both known and available to protect the special educational rights of the child. [1993 c.33 §78]

(Petition for Jurisdiction)

419B.230 Who may file petition. (1) Any person may file a petition in the juvenile court alleging that a child named therein is within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419B.100.

(2) When the petition is filed by a peace officer, district attorney, attorney general, juvenile department counselor or employee of the Children's Services Division, the petition may be verified upon the information and belief of the petitioner. In all other cases, the petition shall be based on the personal knowledge of the petitioner. [1993 c.33 §85; 1993 c.546 §39]

419B.233 Temporary custody after filing petition. At any time after a petition is filed, the court may make an order providing for temporary custody of the child. [1993 c.33 §87]

419B.236 Dismissal of petition. The court may dismiss the petition at any stage of the proceedings. [1993 c.33 §88]

419B.239 Form of petition. The petition and all subsequent court documents in the proceeding shall be entitled "In the matter of _____, a child." The petition shall be in writing and verified. [1993 c.33 §89; 1993 c.546 §40]

419B.242 Contents of petition. The petition shall set forth in ordinary and concise language such of the following facts as are known and indicate any which are not known:

(1) The name, age and residence of the child.

(2) The facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419B.100.

(3) The name and residence of the child's parents and, in cases under ORS 419B.100, the names and residences of the persons with whom the child has resided for the previous five years.

(4) Whether there is a custody proceeding involving the child pending in any court.

(5) Whether any person other than a parent has or claims to have physical custody of the child and, if so, the name and residence of the person having physical custody of the child. [1993 c.33 §90; 1993 c.546 §41]

419B.245 Amendment of petition. The court, on motion of an interested party or on its own motion, may at any time direct that the petition be amended. If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the facts originally alleged, the court shall grant such continuance as the interests of justice may require. [1993 c.33 §91]

(Consolidation)

419B.260 When consolidation of proceedings required. (1) In any case filed in the juvenile court in which the legal or physical custody of a child is at issue and there is also pending, or adjudicated, a child custody or visitation case involving the child in a domestic relations, filiation or guardianship proceeding, the matters shall be consolidated.

(2) Upon entry of an order of consolidation, all matters relating to custody or visitation shall be heard together. The judge hearing such matters may enter orders or modify existing orders in all cases subject to the order of consolidation. [1993 c.546 §43 (enacted in lieu of 1993 c.33 §92)]

(Summons)

419B.265 When summons issued. (1) Promptly after the petition is filed, there shall be an investigation of the circumstances concerning the child. No later than 60 days after the petition is filed, summons may be issued.

(2) A certified copy of the petition shall be served, together with the summons. [1993 c.33 §93; 1993 c.546 §44]

419B.268 Form of summons; contents.

(1) The summons shall be signed by a counselor or some other person acting under the direction of the court and shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and, except for a published summons, a brief statement of the substance of the facts required by ORS 419B.242. The summons shall also include a notice:

(a) That the parent or other person legally obligated to support the child may be required to pay, at some future date, for all or a portion of the support of the child, including the cost of out-of-home placement, depending upon the ability of the parent or other person to pay support;

(b) That if the person named in the summons fails to appear at the time and place specified therein, the court may take jurisdiction of the child, make such orders and take such action as may be authorized by law; and

(c) That, if the petition alleges that the child has been physically or sexually abused, the court, at the hearing, may enter an order requiring the alleged perpetrator of the abuse to move from the household in which the child resides.

(2) Summons published as provided in ORS 419B.277 (1)(c) shall contain the name of the court, the title of the proceeding and the statement mentioned in that paragraph. [1993 c.33 §94; 1993 c.295 §3; 1993 c.546 §45]

419B.271 Effect of summons; to whom issued. (1) The summons shall require the person or persons who have physical custody of the child to appear personally and bring the child before the court at the time and place stated in the summons. The time for the hearing on the petition shall be fixed at a reasonable time, not less than 24 hours, after the issuance of the summons. If it appears to the court that the welfare of the child or of the public requires that the child immediately be taken into custody, the court may indorse an order on the summons directing the officer serving it to take the child into custody.

(2) Summons shall be issued to the legal parents of the child, without regard to who has legal or physical custody of the child, and to the legal guardian, if any, and to a putative father if he has provided or offered to provide for the physical, emotional, custodial or financial needs of the child in the previous six months.

(3)(a) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any person whose presence the court deems necessary.

(b) Summons shall be issued requiring the appearance of any person who may be subject to an order issued under ORS 419B.190.

(4) If the child is 12 years of age or older, a certified copy of the summons shall be served upon the child. [1993 c.33 §95; 1993 c.295 §4; 1993 c.546 §46]

419B.274 Service outside issuing county. Summons or other process issuing from the juvenile court may be served without further indorsement in any county of the state by an officer of the county in which the proceeding is pending, by an officer of the county in which the person to be served is found or by any person authorized by the court to serve the process. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of law or the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to summons in civil cases apply to summons issued from juvenile court. [1993 c.33 §96]

419B.277 Alternative service. (1) If any parent or guardian required to be summoned as provided in ORS 419B.271 cannot be found within the state, summons may be served on the parent or guardian in any of the following ways:

(a) If the address of the parent or guardian is known, by sending the parent or guardian a copy of the summons by registered or certified mail with a return receipt to be signed by the addressee only.

(b) By personal service outside the state.

(c) If efforts fail to locate a parent or guardian, by any method or combination of methods that under the circumstances is most reasonably calculated to notify the parent or guardian of the existence and pendency of the action including, but not limited to, publication of summons, mailing without publication to a specified post-office address of the parent or guardian, return receipt requested, restricted delivery or posting at specified locations. If service is ordered by any manner other than publication, the court may order a time for response.

(2) In lieu of the brief statement of facts required by ORS 419B.268, the published summons shall simply state that a proceeding concerning the child is pending in the court and an order making an adjudication will be entered therein. The summons shall be published once a week for a period of three weeks, making three publications in all. If the names of one or both parents or the guardian are unknown, they may be summoned as "The parent(s) or guardian of (naming or describing the child), found (stating the address or place where the child was found)."

(3) Service as provided in this section and ORS 419B.274 and 419B.280 shall vest the court with jurisdiction over the parents or guardian in the same manner and to the same extent as if the person served were served personally within this state. [1993 c.33 §97; 1993 c.546 §47]

419B.280 Travel expenses of party summoned. The court may authorize payment of travel expenses of any party summoned. Except as provided in this section, responsibility for the payment of the cost of service of summons or other process on any party, and for payment of travel expenses so authorized, shall be borne by the party issuing the summons or requesting the court to issue the summons. When the Children's Services Division issues the summons or requests the court to issue the summons, responsibility for such payment shall be borne by the county. [1993 c.33 §98]

419B.282 When arrest warrant for summoned person authorized. (1) No person required to appear as provided in ORS 419B.265, 419B.268 and 419B.271 shall without reasonable cause fail to appear or, where directed in the summons, to bring the child before the court.

(2) If the summons cannot be served, if the person to whom the summons is directed fails to obey it or if it appears to the court that the summons will be ineffectual, the court may direct issuance of a warrant of arrest against the person summoned or against the child. [1993 c.33 §99]

419B.285 Proceeding when summoned person not before court. If the child is before the court, the court has the power to proceed with the case without service upon those entitled to service under ORS 419B.271 if diligent efforts have failed to reveal the identity or the whereabouts of the person, except that:

(1) No order entered pursuant to ORS 419B.500, 419B.502, 419B.504, 419B.506 and 419B.508 may be entered unless ORS 419B.515, 419B.518, 419B.521 and 419B.524 are complied with.

(2) No order for support as provided in ORS 419B.400, 419B.402, 419B.404 and 419B.406 may be entered against a person unless that person is served as provided in ORS 419B.274.

(3) If it appears to the court that a parent or guardian required to be served by ORS 419B.265, 419B.268 and 419B.271 was not served as provided in ORS 419B.274, 419B.277 and 419B.280 or was served on such short notice that the parent or guardian did not have a reasonable opportunity to appear at the time fixed, the court shall, upon petition by the parent or guardian, reopen the case for full consideration. [1993 c.33 §100; 1993 c.546 §48]

(Disclosure)

419B.300 Scope of disclosure; when required; exceptions. (1) In all proceedings brought under ORS 419B.100 or 419B.500, each party, including the state, shall disclose to each other party the following information and material within the possession or under the control of the party:

(a) The names and addresses of all persons the party intends to call as witnesses at any stage of the hearing, together with any relevant written or recorded statements or memoranda of any oral statements of such persons;

(b) Any written or recorded statements or memoranda of any oral statements made either by the parent or by the child to any other party or agent for any other party;

(c) Any reports or statements of experts made in connection with the particular case, including the results of any physical or mental examinations and of comparisons or experiments that the party intends to offer in evidence at the hearing; and

(d) Any books, papers, documents or photographs that the party intends to offer in evidence at the hearing, or that were obtained from or belong to any other party.

(2) Disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable following the filing of a petition. The court may supervise the exercise of discovery to the extent necessary to insure that it proceeds properly and expeditiously.

(3) The obligation to disclose is an ongoing obligation and if a party finds, either before or during the hearing, additional material or information that is subject to disclosure, the information or material shall be promptly disclosed.

(4) The following material and information need not be disclosed:

(a) Attorney work product, legal research, records, correspondence, reports or memoranda to the extent they contain the opinions, theories or conclusions of the attorneys or their agents and peace officers or their agents; and

(b) Transcripts, recordings or memoranda of testimony of witnesses before the grand jury, except transcripts or recordings of testimony of a party to the current juvenile court proceeding.

(5) When some parts of certain material are subject to disclosure and other parts are not, as much of the material as is subject to disclosure shall be disclosed.

(6) Upon being notified of any breach of a duty to disclose material or information, the court may order the violating party to permit inspection of the material, or grant a continuance, or refuse to permit the witness to testify, or refuse to receive in evidence the material that was not disclosed, or enter such other order as the court considers appropriate.

(7) Upon a showing of good cause, the court may at any time order that specified disclosure be denied, restricted or deferred or make such other order as is appropriate.

(8) Upon request of a party, the court may permit a showing of good cause for denial or regulation of disclosure, or portion of such showing, to be made in camera. A record shall be made of the proceeding.

(9) If the court enters an order granting relief following an in camera showing, the entire record of the showing shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal. The trial court, in its discretion, may, after disposition, unseal the record. [1993 c.546 §50]

(Hearings)

419B.310 Conduct of hearings. (1) The hearing shall be held by the court without a jury and may be continued from time to time. During the hearing of a case filed pursuant to ORS 419B.100, the court, on its own motion or upon the motion of a party, may take testimony from any child appearing as a witness and may exclude the child's parents and other persons if the court finds such action would be likely to be in the best interests of the child. However, the court shall not exclude the attorney for each party and the testimony shall be reported.

(2) Where the court conducts any hearing, the court shall inquire whether a child is an Indian child subject to the Indian Child Welfare Act. If the court knows or has reason to know that an Indian child is involved, the court shall enter an order requiring the Children's Services Division to notify the Indian child's tribe of the pending proceedings and of the tribe's right to intervene.

(3) Stenographic notes or other report of the hearings shall be taken only when required by the court.

(4) The facts alleged in the petition showing the child to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419B.100 (1), unless admitted, must be established by a preponderance of competent evidence. [1993 c.33 §101; 1993 c.546 §51]

419B.315 When depositions, authorized; procedure. (1) After the commencement of a proceeding under ORS 419B.100 or 419B.500, a party may move the court for an order allowing a deposition to be taken to perpetuate the testimony of a witness who is:

(a) Outside the jurisdiction of, or otherwise not subject to the process of, the court; or

(b) Unable to attend because of age, sickness, infirmity, imprisonment or undue hardship.

(2) The affidavit in support of the motion to take a deposition to perpetuate testimony, in addition to setting forth the reasons described in subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, shall also set forth:

(a) The reasons why the testimony of the witness sought to be deposed cannot be taken by telephone at the time of the hearing;

(b) Where the deposition is to be taken;

(c) The manner of recording the deposition; and

(d) A brief statement of the substance of the testimony that the witness is expected to give.

(3) If the court finds that taking a deposition will best promote the just, speedy and inexpensive resolution of one or more issues in the proceeding or that taking a deposition is necessary to meet the requirements of due process, the court shall grant the motion.

(4) If the motion is granted, the court may, in its discretion, set conditions regarding the time, place and method of taking the deposition.

(5) All objections to any testimony or evidence taken at the deposition shall be made at the time and noted upon the record. The court before which the testimony is offered shall rule on any objections before the testimony is offered. Any objection not made at the deposition is waived. [1993 c.546 §53]

419B.317 Subpoena. Witnesses or other persons necessary for the conduct of the hearing may be subpoenaed. The child, parents, guardian or any person appearing in the child's behalf may have compulsory attendance of witnesses in the child's or their behalf in the same manner as provided in ORS 136.567 to 136.603. The form of the subpoena shall be substantially as provided in ORS 136.575 (4) or (6), but shall describe the action as a "juvenile court proceeding" and the appearance as on behalf of "the court," "the child," and so on, as the case may be. [1993 c.33 §102]

419B.320 Witness fees; payment. Witnesses subpoenaed to give testimony shall receive the same fees as are paid in criminal cases. Except as provided by this subsection, responsibility for the per diem and mileage fees of any witness, and travel expenses if so ordered by the court, shall be borne by the party who subpoenas the witness or requests the court to subpoena the witness. If the witness was subpoenaed to appear on behalf of the Children's Services Division, responsibility for per diem, mileage fees and travel expenses shall be borne by the county. If the witness was subpoenaed by more than one party, the witness shall be paid by the party who first subpoenas the witness. The court may then, thereafter, order that the costs be distributed equally among all parties who subpoenaed the witness and that the original payor of the costs be reimbursed accordingly. When the witness has been subpoenaed on behalf of an indigent party who is represented by court-appointed counsel, the fees and costs allowed for that witness shall be paid pursuant to ORS 135.055. [1993 c.33 §103]

(Disposition)

419B.325 Disposition required; evidence. (1) At the termination of the hearing or hearings in the proceeding, the court shall enter an appropriate order directing the disposition to be made of the case.

(2) For the purpose of determining proper disposition of the child, testimony, reports or other material relating to the child's mental, physical and social history and prognosis may be received by the court without regard to their competency or relevancy under the rules of evidence. [1993 c.33 §104]

419B.328 Ward of the court. A child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419B.100, may be made a ward of the court. [1993 c.33 §105]

419B.331 When protective supervision authorized; conditions that may be imposed. Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and welfare of the child, the court may place the child under protective supervision. The court may direct that the child remain in the legal custody of the child's parents or other person with whom the child is living, or the court may direct that the child be placed in the legal custody of some relative or some person maintaining a foster home approved by the court, or in a child care center or a youth care center authorized to accept the child. The court may specify particular requirements to be observed during the protective supervision consistent with recognized juvenile court practice, including but not limited to restrictions on visitation by the child's parents, restrictions on the child's associates, occupation and activities, restrictions on and requirements to be observed by the person having the child's legal custody, and requirements for visitation by and consultation with a juvenile counselor or other suitable counselor. [1993 c.33 §106]

419B.334 Placement out of state. Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and welfare of the child, the court may, if there is an interstate compact or agreement or an informal arrangement with another state permitting the child to reside in another state while under protective supervision, or to be placed in an institution or with an agency in another state, place the child under protective supervision in such other state. [1993 c.33 §107]

419B.337 Commitment to custody of Children's Services Division. (1) Where a child has been found to be within its jurisdiction, and when the court determines it would be in the best interest and for the welfare of the child, the court may place the child in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division for care, placement and supervision. When the court enters an order removing a child from the child's home or an order continuing care, the court shall make a written finding as to whether:

(a) Removal of the child from the child's home or continuation of care is in the best interest and for the welfare of the child; and

(b) Reasonable efforts, considering the circumstances of the child and parent, have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home or to make it possible to reunify the family.

(2) The court may specify the particular type of care, supervision or services to be provided by the Children's Services Division to children placed in the division's custody and to the parents or guardians of such children, but the actual planning and provision of such care, supervision or services shall be the responsibility of the Children's Services Division. The division may place the child in a child care center authorized to accept the child.

(3) Uniform commitment blanks, in a form approved by the Assistant Director for Children's Services, shall be used by all courts for placing children in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division.

(4) If the child has been placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division, the court shall make no commitment directly to any residential facility, but shall cause the child to be delivered into the custody of the Children's Services Division at the time and place fixed by rules of the division. No child so committed shall be placed in a Department of Corrections institution. [1993 c.33 §108; 1993 c.546 §129]

419B.340 Reasonable efforts determination. (1) If the court awards custody to the Children's Services Division, the disposition order shall include a determination whether the division has made reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home. If the child has been removed prior to the entry of the order, the order shall also include a determination whether the division has made reasonable efforts to reunify the family after the removal.

(2) In support of its determination whether reasonable efforts have been made by the division, the court shall enter a brief description of what preventive and reunification efforts were made and why further efforts could or could not have prevented or shortened the separation of the family.

(3) Where the first contact with the family has occurred during an emergency in which the child could not remain without jeopardy at home even with reasonable services being provided, the division shall be considered to have made reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal.

(4) Where the court finds that preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable, but further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the child to remain without jeopardy at home, the court may authorize or continue the removal of the child.

(5) Where an Indian child is involved, the division must satisfy the court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that these efforts have proven unsuccessful. No foster care placement may be ordered in a proceeding in the absence of a determination, supported by clear and convincing evidence, including the testimony of expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical injury to the Indian child. [1993 c.33 §109; 1993 c.546 §124]

419B.343 Recommendations of committing court. To insure effective planning for children, the Children's Services Division shall take into consideration recommendations and information provided by the committing court before placement in any facility. [1993 c.33 §110]

419B.346 Medical planning. Whenever a child who is in need of medical care or other special treatment by reason of physical or mental condition is placed in the custody of the Children's Services Division by the juvenile court, the division shall prepare a plan for care or treatment within 14 days after assuming custody of the child. The court may indicate in general terms the type of care which it regards as initially appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a time schedule for its implementation, shall be sent to the juvenile court which committed the child to the division. The court may at any time request regular progress reports on implementation of the plan. The division shall notify the court when the plan is implemented, and shall report to the court concerning the progress of the child annually thereafter. If the plan is subsequently revised, the division shall notify the court of the revisions and the reasons therefor. [1993 c.33 §111]

419B.349 Court authority to review placement. Commitment of a child to the Children's Services Division does not terminate the court's continuing jurisdiction to protect the rights of the child or the child's parents or guardians. Notwithstanding ORS 419B.337 (3), if upon review of a placement of a child made by the Children's Services Division, the court determines that the placement is so inappropriate as to violate the rights of the child or the child's parents or guardians the court may direct the Children's Services Division to place the child in a specific type of residential placement, but the actual planning and placement of the child shall be the responsibility of the Children's Services Division. Nothing in this section affects any contractual right of a private agency to refuse or terminate a placement. [1993 c.33 §112]

419B.352 Hospitalization; mental health examination. The court may direct that the child be examined or treated by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist, or receive other special care or treatment in a hospital or other suitable facility. If the court determines that mental health examination and treatment should be provided by services delivered through the Mental Health and Developmental Disability Services Division, the Mental Health and Developmental Disability Services Division shall determine the appropriate placement or services in consultation with the court, the Children's Services Division and other affected agencies. If the Children's Services Division or another affected agency objects to the type of placement or services, the court shall determine the appropriate type of placement or service. During the examination or treatment of the child, the Mental Health and Developmental Disability Services Division shall not be appointed guardian of the child. [1993 c.33 §113]

(Legal Custodian of Child)

419B.370 Guardianship as incident of custody. (1) When the court grants legal custody to the Children's Services Division, it may also grant guardianship of the child to the division, to remain in effect solely while the child remains in the legal custody of the division.

(2) In all other cases, the court may grant guardianship of the child to a private institution or agency to which the child is committed or to some suitable person or entity if it appears necessary to do so in the interests of the child.

(3) Unless guardianship is granted as provided in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the court as an incident of its wardship over the child shall have the duties and authority of the guardian as provided in ORS 419B.376 and 419B.379. [1993 c.33 §114; 1993 c.367 §3]

419B.373 Duties and authority of legal custodian. A person, agency or institution having legal custody of a child has the following duties and authority:

(1) To have physical custody and control of the child.

(2) To supply the child with food, clothing, shelter and incidental necessities.

(3) To provide the child with care, education and discipline.

(4) To authorize ordinary medical, dental, psychiatric, psychological, hygienic or other remedial care and treatment for the child, and, in an emergency where the child's safety appears urgently to require it, to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care.

(5) To make such reports and to supply such information to the court as the court may from time to time require.

(6) To apply for any social security benefits or public assistance to which the child is otherwise entitled and to use the benefits or assistance to pay for the care of the child. [1993 c.33 §115; 1993 c.367 §1]

(Guardian)

419B.376 Duties and authority of guardian. A person, agency or institution having guardianship of a child by reason of appointment by the court has the duties and authority of a guardian of the child, including but not limited to the following:

(1) To authorize surgery for the child, but this authority does not prevent the person having legal custody of the child from acting under ORS 419B.373 (4).

(2) To authorize the child to enlist in the Armed Forces of the United States.

(3) To consent to the child's marriage.

(4) When the child has been committed under ORS 419B.527, to consent to the adoption of the child.

(5) To make other decisions concerning the child of substantial legal significance.

(6) To make such reports and to supply such information to the court as the court may from time to time require. [1993 c.33 §116]

419B.379 Guardian is not conservator. A person appointed guardian of the child by the court is guardian only and not a conservator of the estate of the child, unless that person is appointed conservator of the child's estate in a protective proceeding as provided in ORS 126.003 to 126.403, 127.005 and 127.015. [1993 c.33 §117]

(Authority Over Parents)

419B.385 Parent or guardian as party. A parent or legal guardian of any child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court as provided in ORS 419B.100, if such parent or guardian was served with summons under ORS 419B.265, 419B.268 and 419B.271 prior to the adjudication, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court for purposes of this section. The court may order the parent or guardian to assist the court in any reasonable manner in providing appropriate education or counseling for the child. [1993 c.33 §118]

419B.387 Parent participation in treatment or training. If the court finds in an evidentiary hearing that treatment or training is needed by a parent to correct the circumstances that brought the child within the jurisdiction of the court or to prepare the parent to resume the care of the child, the court may order the parent to participate in the treatment or training if the participation is in the child's best interests. [1993 c.546 §55 (enacted in lieu of 1993 c.33 §§119 and 120)]

(Support)

419B.400 Authority to order support; collection. The court may, after a hearing on the matter, require the parents or other person legally obligated to support a child found to be within the jurisdiction of the court to pay toward the child's support such amounts at such intervals as the court may direct, while the child is within the jurisdiction of the court even though the child is over 18 years of age as long as the child is attending school. The court, in determining the amount to be paid, shall use the scale and formula provided for in ORS 25.275 and 25.280. Unless otherwise ordered, the amounts so required to be paid shall be paid to the Department of Human Resources or the county clerk, whichever is appropriate, for transmission to the person, institution or agency having legal custody of the child. [1993 c.33 §121]

419B.402 Support order is final judgment. Any order for support entered pursuant to ORS 419B.400 is a final judgment as to any installment or payment of money which has accrued up to the time either party makes a motion to set aside, alter or modify the order, and the court does not have the power to set aside, alter or modify such order, or any portion thereof, which provides for any payment of money, either for minor children or the support of a party, which has accrued prior to the filing of such motion. [1993 c.33 §122]

419B.404 Support for child in state financed or supported institution. Any order for support entered pursuant to ORS 419B.400 for a child in the care and custody of the Children's Services Division may be made contingent upon the child residing in a state financed or supported residence, shelter or other facility or institution. A certificate signed by the Assistant Director for Children's Services, the Administrator of the Support Enforcement Division or the administrator's authorized representative shall be sufficient to establish such periods of residence and to satisfy the order for periods of nonresidence. [1993 c.33 §123]

419B.406 Assignment of support order to state. When a child is in the legal custody of the Children's Services Division and such child is the beneficiary of an existing order of support in a decree of dissolution or other order and the division is required to provide financial assistance for the care and support of such child, the Children's Services Division shall be assignee of and subrogated to such child's proportionate share of any such support obligation including sums which have accrued whether or not the support order or decree provides for separate monthly amounts for the support of each of two or more children or a single monthly gross payment for the benefit of two or more children, up to the amount of assistance provided by the division. [1993 c.33 §124]

419B.408 Enforcement of support order. (1) An order of support entered pursuant to ORS 419B.400 may be enforced by execution or in the manner provided by law for the enforcement of a judgment granting an equitable remedy or by an order to withhold pursuant to ORS 25.311 to 25.318, 25.351 to 25.367 and 25.722.

(2) No property of the child's parents, or either of them, or other person legally obligated to support the child is exempt from levy and sale or other process to enforce collection of the amounts ordered by the court to be paid toward the support of the child. [1993 c.33 §125; 1993 c.798 §31]

(Modification of Orders)

419B.420 Authority to modify or set aside orders. Except as provided in ORS 419B.423 and 419B.426, the court may modify or set aside any order made by it upon such notice and with such hearing as the court may direct. [1993 c.33 §126]

419B.423 Notice of modification. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, notice and a hearing as provided in ORS 419B.195, 419B.198, 419B.201, 419B.205, 419B.208, 419B.265 to 419B.285, 419B.310 and 419B.317 to 419B.325 shall be granted in any case where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will or may be to deprive a parent of the legal custody of the child, to place the child in an institution or agency or to transfer the child from one institution or agency to another. However, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a parent whose rights have been terminated under ORS 419B.500 to 419B.524 or whose child has been permanently committed by order of the court unless an appeal from such order is pending.

(2)(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, notice and a hearing as provided in subsection (1) of this section are not required where the effect of modifying or setting aside the order will be to transfer the child from one foster home to another.

(b) When an Indian child is involved, notice must be provided as required under the Indian Child Welfare Act. [1993 c.33 §127; 1993 c.546 §125]

419B.426 Limitation on modification of permanent commitment order. No order pursuant to ORS 419B.527 may be set aside or modified during the pendency of a proceeding for the adoption of the child, nor after a petition for adoption has been granted. [1993 c.33 §128]

(Reports by Guardians and Custodians)

419B.440 Circumstances requiring reports. Any public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of a child pursuant to court order shall file reports on the child with the juvenile court which entered the original order concerning the child or, where no such order exists, with the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence in the following circumstances:

(1) Where the child has been placed with the agency as a result of a court order and prior to, or as soon as practicable after the agency places the child in any placement including, but not limited to, the child's home, shelter care, substitute care or a child care center, unless the court has previously received a report or treatment plan indicating the actual physical placement of the child;

(2) Where the child has been placed with the agency as the result of a court order and remains under agency care for six consecutive months from date of initial placement except for a child who has been committed to a state juvenile training school; or

(3) Where the child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child. [1993 c.33 §129]

419B.443 Time and content of reports.

(1) The reports required by ORS 419B.440 (2) and (3) shall be filed by the agency at the end of the initial six-month period and no less frequently than each six months thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders. The reports shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A description of the problems or offenses which necessitated the placement of the child with the agency;

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment and supervision that the agency has provided for the child, together with a list of all placements made since the child has been in the guardianship or legal custody of an agency and the length of time the child has spent in each placement;

(c) A description of agency efforts to return the child to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child, including, where applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child from the home;

(d) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including, where applicable, terms of visitation to be allowed and expected of parents and a description of efforts expected of the child and the parents to remedy factors which have prevented the return of the child to the parental home; and

(e) If continued substitute care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended substitute care is necessary.

(2) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, reports following the initial report need not contain information contained in prior reports. [1993 c.33 §130]

419B.446 Filing report with local citizen review board. Notwithstanding the requirements under ORS 419B.440 that reports be filed with the court, any report after the initial report that is required by ORS 419B.443 on a child whose case is being regularly reviewed by a local citizen review board shall be filed with that local citizen review board rather than the court. [1993 c.33 §131]

419B.449 Review hearing by court; findings. (1) Upon receiving any report required by ORS 419B.440 and 419B.443, the court may hold a hearing to review the child's condition and circumstances and to determine if the court should continue jurisdiction over the child or order modifications in the care, placement and supervision of the child. The court shall hold a hearing:

(a) In all cases under ORS 419B.440 (3) where the parents' rights have been terminated; or

(b) If requested by the child, the attorney for the child, if any, the parents or the public or private agency having guardianship or legal custody of the child within 30 days of receipt of the notice provided in ORS 419B.452.

(2) The hearing provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be conducted in the manner provided in ORS 419B.310, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided in ORS 419B.325. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact if the decision is to continue the child in substitute care. Such findings shall specifically state:

(a) Why continued care is necessary as opposed to returning the child to the child's home or taking prompt action to secure another permanent placement; or

(b) The expected timetable for return or other permanent placement.

(3) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the hearing provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be a final order for the purposes of ORS 419A.200. [1993 c.33 §132]

419B.452 Distribution of report by court. Except where a child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated, the court shall send a copy of the report required by ORS 419B.440 to the parents of the child and shall notify the parents either that a hearing will be held or that the parents may request a hearing at which time they may ask for modifications in the care, treatment and supervision of the child. If the court finds that informing the parents of the identity and location of the foster parents of the child is not in the child's best interest, the court may order such information deleted from the report before sending the report to the parents. If an Indian child is involved, the court shall send a copy of the report to the Indian child's tribe as required by the notice requirements of the Indian Child Welfare Act. [1993 c.33 §133; 1993 c.546 §126]

(Child Surrendered for Adoption)

419B.460 Agency's responsibility. Where a child has been surrendered for adoption and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child, the agency shall file a petition alleging that the child comes within the jurisdiction of the court. [1993 c.33 §134]

419B.470 Dispositional review hearing; schedule. The court shall conduct a dispositional review hearing no later than 18 months after the original placement and periodically thereafter during the continuation of substitute care. Unless good cause otherwise is shown, the court shall also conduct a dispositional review hearing at any time upon the request of the division, an agency directly responsible for care or placement of the child, parents whose parental rights have not been terminated, an attorney for the child, a court-appointed special advocate, a citizen review board, a tribal court or upon its own motion. The court shall schedule the hearing as soon as possible after receiving a request. [1993 c.33 §135; 1993 c.546 §127]

419B.473 Notice; appearance. (1) The court may order that the child or any other person be present during the hearing.

(2) The court shall notify the parties listed in ORS 419B.470 and any other interested parties of the hearing. The notice shall state the time and place of the hearing. Upon request of the court, the division or other legal custodian of the child shall provide the court with information concerning the whereabouts and identity of such parties. [1993 c.33 §136]

419B.476 Conduct of hearing; orders. (1) The dispositional review hearing shall be conducted in the manner provided in ORS 419B.310, 419B.317 and 419B.320, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided in ORS 419B.325.

(2) The court shall enter an order within 20 days after the review hearing. Where the child is in substitute care, the order shall include a determination of:

(a) Whether or not the child should be returned to the parent;

(b) Whether or not the child should be placed for adoption;

(c) Whether the child should continue in substitute care for a specified period; or

(d) Whether, because of special needs or circumstances, the child should be placed in the permanent custody or guardianship of a responsible relative or other individual or should continue in substitute care on a permanent or long-term basis.

(3) The court shall also include the tribal affiliation of the child in the order if the family has indicated there is Indian ancestry.

(4) If the court determines that the child shall be placed or continued in substitute care or placed in the custody or guardianship of a relative or other responsible individual, the court shall enter written findings specifying why neither placement with parents nor adoption is appropriate. If the current placement is not expected to be permanent, the court shall specify a projected timetable for return home or another permanent placement. If the timetable set forth by the court is not met, the division shall promptly notify the court and parties. If an Indian child is involved, the placement preference under the Indian Child Welfare Act shall be followed.

(5) In the course of the dispositional review hearing, the court may determine the adequacy of and compliance with the case plan and case progress report. In addition to other orders, the court may:

(a) Order the division to develop or expand a case plan or case progress report which must be submitted within 10 days after the hearing;

(b) Set a court hearing at a specific later time;

(c) Direct the local citizen review board to review the status of the child prior to its next review under ORS 419A.106, 419A.108, 419A.110, 419A.112, 419A.116 and 419A.118;

(d) Order the division or other agency directly responsible for the child to modify the care, placement and supervision of the child; and

(e) Determine whether the division or other agency directly responsible for the child has made reasonable efforts to reunify the family. If an Indian child is involved, determine whether the division or other agency directly responsible for the child has made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs to prevent the breakup of the Indian family prior to removal of the child from the home.

(6) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the dispositional review hearing shall be a final order for the purposes of ORS 419A.200. [1993 c.33 §137; 1993 c.546 §128]

(Termination of Parental Rights)

419B.500 Termination of parental rights. The parental rights of the parents of a child within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court as provided in ORS 419B.100 may be terminated as provided in this section and ORS 419B.502 to 419B.524, if it is in the best interest of the child. If an Indian child is involved, the termination of parental rights must be in compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent. [1993 c.33 §138; 1993 c.546 §56]

419B.502 Termination upon finding of extreme conduct. The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in ORS 419B.500 if the court finds that the parent or parents are unfit by reason of a single or recurrent incident of extreme conduct toward the child or another child and that continuing the parent and child relationship is likely to result in serious abuse or neglect. In such case, no efforts need to be made by available social agencies to help the parent adjust the conduct in order to make the return of the child possible. In determining extreme conduct, the court shall consider the following:

(1) Rape or sodomy of the child by the parent.

(2) Intentional starvation or torture of the child by the parent.

(3) Parental abuse or neglect of the child resulting in serious physical injury, as defined in ORS 161.015.

(4) Parental abuse or neglect resulting in death or serious physical injury, as defined in ORS 161.015, of a sibling or another child. [1993 c.33 §139]

419B.504 Termination upon finding of unfitness. The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in ORS 419B.500 if the court finds that the parent or parents are unfit by reason of conduct or condition seriously detrimental to the child and integration of the child into the home of the parent or parents is improbable in the foreseeable future due to conduct or conditions not likely to change. In determining such conduct and conditions, the court shall consider but is not limited to the following:

(1) Emotional illness, mental illness or mental deficiency of the parent of such nature and duration as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time.

(2) Conduct toward any child of an abusive, cruel or sexual nature.

(3) Addictive or habitual use of intoxicating liquors or controlled substances to the extent that parental ability has been substantially impaired.

(4) Physical neglect of the child.

(5) Lack of effort of the parent to adjust the circumstances of the parent, conduct, or conditions to make the return of the child possible or failure of the parent to effect a lasting adjustment after reasonable efforts by available social agencies for such extended duration of time that it appears reasonable that no lasting adjustment can be effected. [1993 c.33 §140]

419B.506 Termination upon finding of neglect. The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in ORS 419B.500 if the court finds that the parent or parents have failed or neglected without reasonable and lawful cause to provide for the basic physical and psychological needs of the child for six months prior to the filing of a petition. In determining such failure or neglect, the court shall consider but is not limited to one or more of the following:

(1) Failure to provide care or pay a reasonable portion of substitute physical care and maintenance if custody is lodged with others.

(2) Failure to maintain regular visitation or other contact with the child which was designed and implemented in a plan to reunite the child with the parent.

(3) Failure to contact or communicate with the child or with the custodian of the child. In making this determination, the court may disregard incidental visitations, communications or contributions. [1993 c.33 §141]

419B.508 Termination upon finding of abandonment. The rights of the parent or parents may be terminated as provided in ORS 419B.500 if the court finds that the parent or parents have abandoned the child or the child was left under circumstances such that the identity of the parent or parents of the child was unknown and could not be ascertained, despite diligent searching, and the parent or parents have not come forward to claim the child within three months following the finding of the child. [1993 c.33 §142]

419B.515 Summons. An order pursuant to ORS 419B.500, 419B.502, 419B.504, 419B.506 and 419B.508 may be made only after service of summons, as provided in ORS 419B.274, 419B.277 and 419B.280, on the parent or parents. The summons shall contain a statement to the effect that the rights of the parent or parents are proposed to be terminated in the proceeding and that if the parent or parents fail to appear at the time and place specified in the summons, the court may terminate parental rights and take any other action that is authorized by law. The summons shall also contain a statement advising the parents that they have the right to an attorney in the matter and that if they cannot afford an attorney one may be appointed at state expense upon their request and a court determination of indigency. Where information has been submitted that an Indian child is or may be involved, notice shall be sent to the Indian child's tribe as required by the notice requirements of the Indian Child Welfare Act. [1993 c.33 §143; 1993 c.546 §57]

419B.518 Appointment of counsel for parents. If the parents are determined to be indigent by the court, and request the assistance of appointed counsel, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent them at state expense. Appointment of counsel under this section is subject to ORS 135.055 and 151.430 to 151.480 and to applicable contracts entered into under ORS 151.460. [1993 c.33 §144]

419B.521 Conduct of termination hearing. (1) A hearing shall be held by the court on the question of terminating the rights of the parent or parents. No such hearing shall be held any earlier than 10 days after service or final publication of the summons. The facts on the basis of which the rights of the parents are terminated, unless admitted, must be established by clear and convincing evidence and a stenographic or other report authorized by ORS 8.340 shall be taken of the hearing.

(2) Not earlier than provided in subsection (1) of this section and not later than six months from the date on which summons for the petition to terminate parental rights is served, the court before which the petition is pending shall hold a hearing on the petition except for good cause shown. When determining whether or not to grant a continuance for good cause, the judge shall take into consideration the age of the child and the potential adverse effect delay may have on the child. The court shall make written findings when granting a continuance.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if an Indian child is involved, termination of parental rights must be supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, including testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the child is likely to result in serious emotional or physical harm to the child. [1993 c.33 §145; 1993 c.546 §58]

419B.524 Effect of termination order. Unless there is an appeal from the order terminating the rights of the parent or parents, the order permanently terminates all rights of the parent or parents whose rights are terminated and the parent or parents have no standing to appear as such in any legal proceeding concerning the child. [1993 c.33 §146]

419B.527 Disposition of child after termination. (1) After the entry of an order terminating the rights of the parent or parents of the child, the court may:

(a) Place the child in the legal custody and guardianship of a public or private institution or agency authorized to consent in loco parentis to the adoption of children. An order pursuant to this paragraph is a "permanent commitment" for the purposes of ORS 109.305, 109.309, 109.312 to 109.330 and 109.350 to 109.390; or

(b) Make any order directing disposition of the child which it is empowered to make under this chapter.

(2) If the rights of only one parent have been terminated, the authority to consent to the adoption of the child as provided in subsection (1)(a) of this section is effective only with respect to the parent whose rights have been terminated. [1993 c.33 §147]

419B.530 Representation by Attorney General. (1) Whenever a juvenile court has before it an action to terminate parental rights, the juvenile court or the Children's Services Division may request the services of the Attorney General.

(2) Whenever an action to terminate parental rights is before a juvenile court pursuant to ORS 419B.500, 419B.502, 419B.504,

419B.506 and 419B.508, the Attorney General shall have the same authority to assist the court as is granted to the district attorney under ORS 8.685. [1993 c.33 §148]

(Emancipation of Minor)

419B.550 Definitions for ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558. As used in ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558:

(1) "Domicile" of a minor means the legal residence or domicile of the custodial parent or guardian.

(2) "Emancipation" means conferral of certain rights of majority upon a minor, as enumerated in ORS 419B.552.

(3) "Minor" means a person under the age of 18 years.

(4) "Parent" means legal guardian or custodian, natural parent or adoptive parent if the minor has been legally adopted.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if a minor is subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to ORS 419B.100 or 419C.005, the domicile of that minor shall be that of the court which has jurisdiction. [1993 c.546 §133]

419B.552 Application for emancipation decree; effect of decree. (1) A juvenile court, upon the written application of a minor who is domiciled within the jurisdiction of such court, is authorized to enter a decree of emancipation in the manner provided in ORS 419B.558. A decree of emancipation shall serve only to:

(a) Recognize the minor as an adult for the purposes of contracting and conveying, establishing a residence, suing and being sued, and recognize the minor as an adult for purposes of the criminal laws of this state.

(b) Terminate as to the parent and child relationship the provisions of ORS 109.010 until the child reaches the age of majority.

(c) Terminate as to the parent and child relationship the provisions of ORS 109.053, 109.100, 419B.373, 419B.400, 419B.402, 419B.404, 419B.406, 419B.408, 419C.550, 419C.590, 419C.592, 419C.595, 419C.597 and 419C.600.

(2) A decree of emancipation shall not affect any age qualification for purchasing alcoholic liquor; the requirements for obtaining a marriage license, nor the minor's status under ORS 109.510. [1993 c.546 §134]

419B.555 Hearing; notice to parent; duty to advise minor of liabilities of emancipated person; filing fee. (1) The juvenile court shall conduct a preliminary hearing on the minor's application for emancipation within 10 days of the date on which it is filed or as soon as possible thereafter. At the time of the preliminary hearing, the court may issue a temporary custody decree, stay any pending proceedings or enter any other temporary order appropriate to the circumstances. No action of the court pursuant to this subsection may be extended beyond the date set for a final hearing.

(2) The final hearing shall be held no later than 60 days or as soon as possible after the date on which the application is filed.

(3) Notice to the parent or parents of the applicant shall be made pursuant to ORS 419B.265 (1), 419B.268 and 419B.271.

(4) At the preliminary hearing, the court shall advise the minor of the civil and criminal rights and civil and criminal liabilities of an emancipated minor. This advice shall be recited in the decree of emancipation.

(5) The hearing mentioned in subsection (2) of this section may be waived by the minor and parent or parents.

(6) A uniform filing fee of $50 shall be charged and collected by the court for each application for emancipation. In addition, the court shall collect any other fees required by law. [1993 c.546 §135]

419B.558 Conditions for issuance of decree; copy to applicant; issuance of license or identification card by Department of Transportation; emancipated person subject to adult criminal jurisdiction. (1) The juvenile court in its discretion may enter a decree of emancipation where the minor is at least 16 years of age and the court finds that the best interests of the minor will be served by emancipation. In making its determination, the court shall take into consideration the following factors:

(a) Whether the parent of the minor consents to the proposed emancipation;

(b) Whether the minor has been living away from the family home and is substantially able to be self-maintained and self-supported without parental guidance and supervision; and

(c) Whether the minor can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that the minor is sufficiently mature and knowledgeable to manage the minor's affairs without parental assistance.

(2) Upon entry of a decree of emancipation by the court, the applicant shall be given a copy of the decree. The decree shall instruct that the applicant obtain an Oregon driver's license or an Oregon identification card through the Department of Transportation and that the Department of Transportation make a notation of the minor's emancipated status on the license or identification card.

(3) An emancipated minor shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the adult courts for all criminal offenses. [1993 c.546 §136]
